LIVE THE LITURGY

Inspiration for the week

The immensity, scope, intimacy, and pervasiveness of God's presence is too intense for the human mind. We often limit God by our expectations of Him and have a hard time just letting God be God. Some people all too easily lose faith because God does not meet their expectations. Worse still, the idea of faith is rejected altogether by others because of polarities and experiences they have that don't square with who they need God to be. The Holy Trinity is one of those teachings that is best encountered rather than dissected. It is only through being present with the Trinity that we can experience both the immensity and otherness of God's presence as well as the intimacy of the God who wants us to call Him "dad." We feel the loving guidance of a God who wants to take us from fear and give us confidence. Our God of yesterday, today, and tomorrow is a God of all ages whose three-fold Presence invades all senses, seasons, and times. God, who is Father, Son, and Holy Spirit, is much more than any of our expectations if we simply let God be who God is.

*"Go, therefore,
and make disciples of all nations."*

"The Spirit itself bears witness with our spirit that we are children of God, and if children then heirs, heirs of God and joint heirs with Christ..."
ROMANS 8:16-17

If we are heirs to the kingdom of God, shouldn't we work to build up His kingdom? Shouldn't we be good stewards of our inheritance, using our time in prayer, our talent in charitable works and our treasure to care for the Church that God has left to us? Our Church is a treasured heirloom from God. Do we treat it that way?

The Archdiocese has a new mask policy now for parishes, following the changes made by the CDC and St Louis County late last week. Masks will now only be required to be worn in church by parishioners who have not been fully vaccinated. Masks are optional for those who are fully vaccinated. Dynamic Catholic, Alive! – Most Holy Trinity- The Triune God

I have often heard priests tell me that this solemnity is one of the most difficult days in the liturgical year on which to preach a good homily. It is difficult to preach a homily on such a central mystery of our faith like the Trinity. What is essential to remember for all Catholics is to simply listen to the readings and each of the prayers today for the Mass. Within these texts we can find spiritual insights about the Trinity. For example, the preface for the Mass today provides a great summary of the Church's teaching on the mystery of the Trinity: "For what you have revealed to us of your glory we believe equally of your Son and of the Holy Spirit, so that, in the confessing of the true and eternal Godhead, you might be adored in what is proper to each Person, their unity in substance, and their equality in majesty." One God in three Persons is always there for us.

How To Go To Confession

Prior to going into the confessional, each penitent should make a good examination of conscience. A good review of the Ten Commandments is helpful:
 I) I am the Lord your God. You shall not have strange gods before Me. II) You shall not take the name of the Lord, your God, in vain. III) Remember to keep holy the Lord's Day. IV) Honor your father and your mother. V) You shall not kill. VI) You shall not commit adultery. VII) You shall not steal. VIII) You shall not bear false witness against your neighbor. IX) You shall not covet your neighbor's wife. X) You shall not covet your neighbor's goods.

When you enter the confessional, sit or kneel down and begin "Bless me, Father, for I have sinned. It has been (how many weeks, months, years?) since my last confession. These are my sins." You then tell the priest your sins, making special mention of any mortal sins you have committed. So he'll know when you're finished, you conclude with "For these and all my sins I am truly sorry." The priest will give you a few words of encouragement and /or advice, and your penance, and then he will invite you to say the Act of Contrition. When you are finished, he will give you absolution. You should make the Sign of the Cross when he gets to the part that says. "I absolve you from your sins, in the name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Spirit." There—you've done it! It's as simple and as wonderful as that!

Act of Contrition:

O my God, I am heartily sorry for having offended Thee, and I detest all my sins because of Thy just punishments. But most of all because they have offended Thee, my God, who art all good and deserving of all my love. I firmly resolve with the help of Thy grace to confess my sins, do penance, and amend my life. Amen.

O my God, I am sorry for my sins. In choosing to sin and failing to do good I have sinned against you and your Church. I firmly intend, with the help of you Son, to make up for my sins and to love as I should. Our Savior, Jesus Christ, suffered and died for us. In His name, my God, have mercy.
