14TH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

When the sabbath came he began to teach in the synagogue, and many who heard him were astonished. They said, "Where did this man get all this? What kind of wisdom has been given him? What mighty deeds are wrought by his hands!" - Mk 6:2

LIVE THE LITURGY

Inspiration for the week

God never ceases to proclaim His Word. His life-giving presence continues to sustain all things and keep them in being regardless of whether there is the faith to receive or perceive Him. Our personal agendas, preconceived ideas, misconceptions, and expectations can often cause us to be so hard of heart and obstinate that we fail to see what God is trying to do. While God remains ever present, faith is necessary for God's power to bear fruit. As we celebrate our country's independence, let us not forget the difference between liberties and freedom. While the liberties we have are most welcome treasures, only freedom from what blinds, deceives, and weighs us down can bring happiness. God is all about healing, transformation, and hope. In order for God to do what God does best, we have to invite Him in and see Him for who he is. Otherwise, God's will for humanity will be something at which we simply take offense, a common reaction when something challenges or unsettles us.

This weekend marks the first set of Sunday Masses where the dispensation from attending Mass in person is gone, meaning that we are all called to return to Holy Mass in-person. If you are reading this on a paper copy, chances are good that you have indeed been with us in person this weekend. SOOO good to have you back with us in person. We ARE glad that you are here, back at the tables of Word and Sacrament that nourish us and keep us growing in our life in Christ. Over the next few weeks, keep an eye out, if you would, for those who have not yet found their way back to us. Perhaps it is a next door neighbor, or a family member. Maybe it is the elderly neighbor the street, or the single parent still trying to hold everything together. It might be one who has fallen away from the practice of any faith that you realize is no longer standing on our Saint Andrew welcome mat. And then engage with them to invite them to return home. Fr. Krill can issue invitations for people to return home. And we will be happy to do so. But sometimes the more effective ones come from you, their neighbors and friends and family members. Please help me say those wonderful words to your neighbors and friends: "Welcome. We are glad you are here. Please, come in, sit down and make yourself at home." Finally, this Holiday Weekend where we celebrate our tales of Freedom for our country, the events of this past year remind us of the fragility AND the strength of this Union we are blessed to be a part of. In the midst of your celebrations, breathe a prayer of thanks to God for blessing our land so abundantly. And offer a second prayer for all of our first responders as well as all who serve in the military. Happy Fourth of July!

"As the Lord spoke to me, the spirit entered me and set me on my feet, and I heard the one who was speaking say to me, 'Son of man, I am sending you...' " EZEKIEL 2:2-3

God has a plan for each of us. He calls us to do something for Him. But, He doesn't leave us on our own to figure it out. He gives us the resources we need to do His work. Are you listening for God's call? When you hear it, do you get on your feet and do the work He asks of you? Do not be afraid. God doesn't call the equipped, he equips the called. Answer His call.
