LIVE THE LITURGY

Inspiration for the week

When we lose our ability to trust, we become afraid. When we are afraid, we may begin to grumble and question whether where we are is where we need to be. For us who have faith, we even question whether God is who God says He is. Trust is so important to our success on our journey. Often, the road of our lives can become a bit treacherous. We may find ourselves feeling more unsettled than comfortable and less fulfilled than we would like to be. As much as we try, the pieces of our puzzle don't quite fit together as they ought. We wonder if we will ever experience happiness again. Then, something reminds us that God is very much present in this mess we call life. God is still bringing hope out of despair and life out of death. After all, God is the true bread that comes down from heaven to give life. All that is necessary is for us to trust in this truth, even when we may be lacking in some of life's essentials. The God who gives life is the same God who sustains it. He is also the same God who assures us that we will not perish.

We shine for God

Dynamic Catholic, Alive!—
The Bread of Life

"Jesus said to them, "I am the bread of life; whoever comes to me will never hunger, and whoever believes in me will never thirst." We have heard this so many times before that many of us don't give it a second thought. But, imagine if you heard this for the first time, what would your reaction be? For some, there is immediate disbelief, it isn't logical and they can't get beyond their own limited human thinking. For others, they have known Jesus and are one of his disciples, yet they can't comprehend what Jesus is offering. For some, they can comprehend what He is offering but are not willing to undergo the transformation needed to be fully committed. And for some, their faith was so strong that they were willing to die for it. Starting today, stop taking the Eucharist for granted. Recognize the tremendous gift that we are given - we become tabernacles of the Lord every time we participate in Holy Communion. Share the joy of your friendship with the Holy Trinity with others and encourage them to invite the Lord into their hearts and bodies.

WELCOME BACK TO MASS

Month of July:

$ 12,671.71

"Each day the people are to go out and gather their daily portion; thus will I test them, to see whether they follow my instructions or not." EXODUS 16:4

When the Israelites gathered more than their daily portion of manna, the surplus became wormy and rotten. In the same way today, self-reliance, pride and ego leads to hoarding and excessive surplus of goods and money. Living a stewardship lifestyle helps us discern our "wants" from our "needs". Living a grateful and generous lifestyle reminds us that God will provide all that we need and that we have plenty to share.
