Jesus said to her, "Woman, how does your concern affect me? My hour has not yet come." - Jn 2:4

We come together to worship God, serve our neighbors, and make disciples.

From Fr. Mitch

ALL GOOD GIFTS AROUND US

For seven weeks we will hear from Saint Paul's first letter to the Corinthians; beginning today with Chapter 12 and ending with Chapter 15. In this beautiful, thoughtful, even precise teaching we can sense Paul's deep desire that we come to trust the very Spirit of God dwelling within us, to rely on God's love at work in us, to embrace our identity as the Body of Christ with each one of us participating in the one life of Christ as vital members.

Since his own conversion experience which began on the Road to Damascus and continues until his martyrdom, Saint Paul is a living flame of God's love; he desires only to share that fire with everyone he meets. He knows in every ounce of his being what we long to also know: through the one Spirit of God dwelling in each of us, we are one body, the very body and blood of Christ which is offered on the altar in every Eucharist for the life of the world. We are invited to use the gifts of the Spirit for the building up of the community, for service to our brothers and sisters, especially the poor. Simply, we are called to love one another.

Let us open our hearts today to the gifts which God has given us for the building up of the Kingdom. Let us trust the Spirit of God dwelling within us, the Father, Son and Holy Spirit. Let us be courageous; let us risk for love.

Behold the Lamb of God who takes away the sins of the world.
