LIVE THE LITURGY

Inspiration for the week

Prophets possess an intimate knowledge of God and act on their experience of God. Prophetic messages usually challenge the status quo and draw us up and out of ourselves, focusing us on the bigger picture. We often think of ourselves and our own needs first. When we listen to someone speak, we judge the merit of the message by its degree of usefulness. If the message or vision contains no personal benefit or profit but a call to stretch and grow, we can become indignant. Prophets are usually the ones whose message challenges us and calls us to see things differently and love more perfectly and deeply. God is love. When listening to St. Paul speak about love we witness the unfolding of this type of unconditional, other centered, self-sacrificial perfect God. It is an invitation to life, freedom, and happiness that can be offered to us only by God. Jesus, who is God and Love incarnate, calls us to this richer expression of love. Are we ready to listen and be challenged and stretched?

ST. BLAISE

FEAST DAY
FEBRUARY 3

SAINT OF THE WEEK

You may be familiar with the annual "blessing of throats" that many parishes in the United States use to commemorate the beloved bishop and martyr, St. Blaise lived in the fourth century in Turkey and Armenia. Due to religious persecution, he was forced to flee and hide in a cave in the back country in order to save his life.

History has it that one day a group of hunters stumbled upon where St. Blaise was living. They found the bishop kneeling in prayer, surrounded by wolves, lions and bears that he had tamed. The legend has it that as the hunters dragged Blaise off to prison, a mother came with her young son who had a fish bone lodged in his throat. At Blaise's command, the child was able to cough up the bone and thus lived.

Today we remember the saint on his feast day by taking two candles, crossing them against the throat, and saying the following prayer:

Through the intercession of St. Blaise, bishop and martyr, may God deliver you from ailments of the throat and from every other evil. In the name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Spirit. Amen.

Please remember to let the Parish Office know of changes to the prayer list by calling 843-8482 x0. Thank you!

Stewardship

"Love is patient, love is kind. It is not jealous, it is not pompous..." (1 CORINTHIANS 13:4)

Do you get jealous? Do you focus more on the things that other people have than on the gifts that God has given to you? Are you pompous? Do you acquire more possessions to impress others? At times we are all guilty of these things. Pray for more humility. Humility helps us become less "self-centered" and become more "God-centered" for the sake of others.

Parish Library

Look for these new books with specific themes of caring for the dying or a parent with Alzheimer's, or caring for oneself during a time of grief: A SHORT SPAN OF DAYS gives thoughtful meditations in the care for the dying patient, family and caregiver. FIERCE BLESSING chronicles a family's journey through the course of Alzheimer's. GENTLY GRIEVING uses experiences or "stories" to help people through the grieving process. The author is a nurse psychotherapist and pastoral counselor. WHEN YOU'RE A WIDOW by Clarissa Start, a former St. Louis Post-Dispatch columnist, who describes her sudden widowhood and her response to reshaping her life and her faith.

Eucharistic Adoration

Calling All Parishioners: Next Friday, February 4, the First Friday of the month, we will be having Eucharistic Adoration in the Church from 8:30 am until 5:00 pm. As we do each month, we invite all of our parishioners to come and pray that day! Please come for 15 minutes, or 30, or spend a full hour with Him. There are so many needs! The same safety precautions will be in place for Adoration as for Mass; we will have the entirety of the church for seating to ensure everyone's safety. We hope to see many of you in church on February 4th! Any questions or concerns, please contact Jean Fiala (809-7909) or Carol Craft (842-2626). Thank you!

Birthingright Heaven and Earth Club

Our next Birthingright collection will be on February 6/7. Thank you for your continued support of their mission. It is greatly appreciated by both Birthingright and their clients.

So, the Feb. 5th Celebration of Blessings/Casino Night website is LIVE. Go to cob2022@givesmart.com to either register or update your registration from previous years. Tickets for the raffle items, reservations for the Event Nights, and the Live Auction items are already open for purchase or bidding. You can put a watch on items you want to bid on that night, and your phone will keep you up to date on the latest bids. All of that can be done from the confines of your own home.

And, should you be willing to venture out, then like the last time we held the event – the Roulette, Black-Jack, Craps, and Poker tables will be out in the Concourse for the evening's entertainment. You will also find the live auction baskets for perusal. (You can see the items already online, but sometimes in person gives you the best view of the items) Food, drink and beverage are available in the dining hall, as is quieter conversation.

It is not a risk free event if you go the in-person route, but we are doing our best to spread things out and create as much distancing from each area as we can. Though it is hard to say where the County Mask Mandate will be by then, I certainly encourage their use, and you will find mine on when not sipping my drink or eating. And, to add to the fun, the 'dress theme' is the roaring '20's – so bring those coats and tails and flappers and boa's and we will see you, either virtually, or in person, on Feb. 5th...

As you know, the All Things New website went live this past Tuesday. You can access a wealth of information about this initiative at: www.allthingsnew.archstl.org.

In the preparation stage leading up to that day, each pastor in the Archdiocese was to assemble and submit the names of 5 people who would be the Key Parish Leaders for this process.

Key Parish Leaders have four primary responsibilities:

1. Publicize and support the All Things New planning initiative in their daily interactions so that as many people as possible can receive the invitation to participate in the process.
2. Inform, validate and/or refine the informational snapshot of their parish provided by the Archdiocesan Pastoral Council so that the current landscape description is as accurate as possible.
3. Participate in consultation sessions within their local planning areas in order to generate feedback on future models and strategies of parish life to the Archdiocesan Pastoral Council.
4. Observe and summarize key discussion points at parish consultation sessions so that the Archdiocesan Pastoral Council can benefit from the timely and thoughtful insights of parishioners from around the Archdiocese of St. Louis.

So, I am happy to let you know that the following people have said yes to that role in our parish during this upcoming process. They are, I believe, a representative sample of our major demographic groups, and bring their passion, practice and belief in the church to this process. I am grateful to Ryan Carney, Sue Fagan, Al Hauser, Michael Hopfinger, and Maureen Wilke for saying yes.

Certainly, if you have questions, you can address them to me, but know that you are also free to ask them as well. Between the six of us and the All Things New website, we will answer your questions and bring your concerns to this year and half long process. www.allthingsnew.archstl.org.

Feast of the Conversion of Saint Paul the Apostle

Dear Brothers and Sisters in Christ,

Today, we celebrate a pivotal moment in the life of Church – one in which St. Paul was called by Jesus to participate in the saving story of salvation in a new way. Through St. Paul's acceptance of this call, he became one of the biggest and earliest evangelizers in our Church's history.

In St. Louis, we too are called to a new chapter in our nearly 200-year history. The model that fulfilled its mission in growing and evangelizing the Church during the last century has become archaic. Jesus is calling on us to re-energize and reshape our efforts to share His saving message.

I am excited to share with you today the official launch of our archdiocesan strategic pastoral planning initiative known as "All Things New." Under the leadership of Father Chris Martin, Vicar for Strategic Planning, we will assess every aspect of our Archdiocese and make the necessary adjustments to our ministries and supporting structures to reflect the needs of our communities for the next century. We anticipate that these adjustments will be the most sweeping changes that the Archdiocese has witnessed in its history.

"All Things New" seeks to enable a vibrant Catholic presence across every square mile of our Archdiocese by renewing the church in its mission of proclaiming the Gospel, and securing a vibrant future. Throughout this process, we will be mindful of our three-fold goals: engaging in unceasing prayer, defining and implementing a unifying vision, and ensuring intentional stewardship of the gifts that God has given to us over these past 200 years.

With St. Paul, let us begin this journey together with prayer. Opportunities for prayer and Eucharistic adoration will be held throughout the Archdiocese, asking for God to enter our hearts and minds and guide our actions as we consider the best path forward.

Throughout this process, you will have several opportunities to provide feedback on your aspirations for the Archdiocese. The first of these opportunities will begin on Ash Wednesday, March 2nd, where every Catholic in the Archdiocese will be asked to take a survey. This survey, known as the Disciple Maker Index, will ask you about your beliefs, participation, satisfaction, and attitudes about your faith and your local parish experience. I encourage you to complete this survey so your voice can be heard at this important moment.

I thank you in advance for investing and serving God's one Holy Church here in St. Louis. Please know that you are in my prayers.

Sincerely yours in Christ,
Most Reverend Mitchell T. Rozanski, Archbishop of St. Louis

ALL THINGS NEW
STEADFAST IN FAITH • FORWARD IN HOPE

Dear Brothers and Sisters in Christ,

We have officially launched All Things New, the strategic pastoral planning process for the Archdiocese of St. Louis. All Things New will evaluate the effectiveness of the Church in St. Louis in proclaiming the Gospel and will identify opportunities for improvement and renewal within all parishes, schools, curia offices and agencies.

Why?

Why does the Church exist? To make disciples. Not to run hospitals, schools or homeless shelters. These are all good fruits that flow from discipleship...but if we aren't making disciples, the institutions become hollow.

We all know that the Church of today is not the same that it was 50, 100 or 150+ years ago, and yet we are still functioning in many ways out of the same mode of evangelization. We have inherited a great treasure of Catholic institutions from previous generations, but as the Catholic population and society have shifted over the past several decades, they are no longer as effective or sustainable as they once were. We are closer now to 2050 than to 1950. We need to ask ourselves what our parishes, ministries and institutions need to look like in order to effectively share the faith in a way that is suitable and sustainable for our children and generations to come.

What?

We will be utilizing 3 guiding principles for All Things New:

*Unceasing Prayer

-Prayer resources for individuals and parishes, as well as local and diocesan events will help us to renew our own personal call to holiness and evangelization and to ask the Holy Spirit's Guidance as we discern what is best for our local Church moving forward.

*Unified Vision for Evangelization

-Evangelization is the mission Jesus gives to us. To share the Good News is the responsibility of all of us. Yet, only 0.6% of Catholics say that they feel equipped to share their story and invite others into relationship with Jesus and the Church. We need to renew and rediscover this call in our lives.

*Intentional Stewardship

-The Church is made of living stones, not those of brick and mortar. We cannot allow our attachment to infrastructure impede our primary mission of building up disciples and saving souls. Empty churches don't save anyone.

How?

Your prayers and input are needed. Opportunities for prayer, to provide feedback and to attend listening sessions will be occurring all across the Archdiocese. We invite you to stay informed and sign up for regular updates on the All Things New website at AllThingsNew.Archstl.org. Sign up today! Steadfast in Faith, Forward in Hope.

God Bless,
Rev. Chris Martin

Catholic Schools Week Celebration!

Sunday, January 30th kicks off our Catholic Schools Week Celebration with an Open House from 9-12 in school. Please stop by to see our classrooms and visit with our wonderful staff! We have lots of fun events scheduled this week to celebrate the unique privilege working in a school that combines our faith with education in a family-centered environment.

January Saints:

Our virtue this month is fortitude, and our students will learn about one of three saints (depending on their grade level) who exemplifies the virtue.

St. Bernadette defended the truth of her visions of the Blessed Mother in the face of harsh disbelief and ridicule. St. Joan of Arc was visited by saints and asked to fight for the Catholic faith in France. When she was put on trial for heresy, she would not deny her faith, even in the face of execution. St. Paul Miki was a Japanese-born Jesuit in the 1500s. He, along with 25 companions, were captured and crucified for their faith. From his cross, St. Paul Miki forgave his persecutors and prayed for their conversion.
