LOCAL TORNADO RELIEF EFFORTS

In the wake of the devastation resulting from recent storms in the surrounding St. Louis area, first responders are completing their first priority work to save and protect lives in the neighborhoods most impacted, and Catholic Charities of St. Louis (CCSTL) is helping to lead that response! With your generosity we can help support rebuilding efforts and supply vital care to our brothers and sisters who have suffered such great devastation and loss.

Archbishop Rozanski is asking parishes to hold a special collection at Masses next weekend, May 31 and June 1. If you would like to support this cause you may place envelopes marked "Tornado Relief" in the collection baskets or donate online at give.ccstl.org.

CCSTL is helping provide vital assistance and structured pathways toward healing, help, and hope and we thank you for your compassion and charity.

"The earth will not continue to offer its harvest, except with faithful stewardship."
~ Pope John Paul II

Protect Pollinators.

Bees, butterflies, and other key pollinators are necessary for most of our major food crops. Honey bees pollinate 80 percent of all flowering plants alone, including more than 130 types of fruits and vegetables. According to Farmers.gov, the ecological service provided by pollinators is valued at $200 billion each year.

Unfortunately, bee populations have dropped alarmingly across North America, as have the populations of many other pollinator species. They are in serious decline due to exposure to parasites, pesticides, disease, habitat loss and other environmental contaminants.

If we all dedicate just a small area to protecting habitats for pollinators, using native plants and sustainable gardening practices, we can help safeguard our common home. Limit pesticide use and consider following these tips to start your own pollinator garden at: www.fws.gov/story/how-build-pollinator-garden

If you'd like to know more, or maybe get involved in this ministry, join us Thursday, May 29 from 6:30-8pm in the Dining Room or email us at LaudatoSi@sacredhearteureka.org.

Take Big Al & Annie with you on your summer adventures – big or small! Snap a picture (while holding the photo of Big Al & Annie on the previous page) and email it to communications@sacredhearteureka.org with a brief description telling us what you're up to. You may appear in our bulletin or social media this summer! Enjoy summer break! Remember to be kind and stay loving!
