FOURTH SUNDAY OF ADVENT

“And how does this happen to me, that the mother of my Lord should come to me?”

Luke 1:39-45

Prepare For Next Sunday’s Readings

In next Sunday’s Gospel, (December 26) the Feast of the Holy Family, our Gospel reading identifies this feast as a part of the Christmas season. Mary, Joseph, and Jesus are presented in this Gospel as a faithful Jewish family. They are participating in the annual pilgrimage to Jerusalem for the feast of Passover, an event shared each year with family and friends. When Jesus is found, Luke describes him as seated in the Temple in the midst of the Jewish teachers. Although he is young, Jesus seems not to need teaching about his Jewish tradition. In his dialogue with these learned teachers, Jesus astounds them with his insight and understanding. Jesus is a child of Israel. His Father is God. When Mary and Joseph find Jesus in the Temple, they question Jesus and express their anxiety. Jesus replies in words that many have thought to be disrespectful. Jesus says that he was never lost; he was at home. Jesus is God’s Son, and he is in his Father’s house.

SCRIPTURE READINGS

1 Samuel 1:20-22, 24-28: Hannah dedicates her son, Samuel, to the Lord.

1 John 3:1-2, 21-24: We are God’s children now.

Luke 2:41-52: The boy Jesus is found in the Temple.

A Pilgrim's Progress....

Those who have had the opportunity to make a pilgrimage to Rome may have gathered in St. Peter Square at noon on Sunday when from the balcony, the Holy Father will lead pilgrims in the Angelus, bless articles, and offer some remarks and announcements. Last Sunday Pope Francis spoke about the Gospel for Gaudete Sunday. His words help us to continue to prepare to welcome Christ in all the ways we encounter the Lord.

St. Luke tells us St. John's preaching had touched the hearts of his listeners and in their enthusiasm for the coming of the messiah asked the Baptist: "What should we do?" Pope Francis draws a parallel. If someone we love is coming to our home what should we do? Clean the house? Prepare the best meal possible? Perhaps offer a gift? How then should we prepare for the Lord's arrival? Christ elevates the question by challenging us: What should I be doing with my life? What am I called to? Who will I become?

Pope Francis continues: "life has a task for us. Life is not meaningless. It is not left to chance. It is God's gift to discover the Truth about ourselves and to work hard to accomplish our life's mission. We should never be afraid to ask Christ what should I do? As Peter asked Jesus at Capernaum: "Lord to whom shall we go? You have the words of eternal life!" How can I contribute to the good of Christ's risen body the church? To the good of society? None of God's gifts are given to us to grasp to ourselves but rather to be shared with others.

After St John the Baptist is asked what should we do the Gospel lists specific responses for each group. They all involved, as we remember, the corporal, spiritual works of mercy, and living God's commandments. This reminds us, Pope Francis teaches, that "faith is incarnated in concrete life." Our faith is not an abstract theory. Faith touches us personally and transforms each of our lives."

Pope Francis concludes: "what should we do concretely as we draw near to Christmas? Let's choose something concrete, even if it is small, that is adapted to our situation in life. For example: I can call a person who is alone, visit the elderly or the ill, serve someone in need." Even still: ask forgiveness, grant forgiveness, clarify a situation, pay a debt." Perhaps I have neglected prayer or to ask the Lord for his forgiveness."

As we continue to prepare to welcome the Lord anew at Christmas and in all the circumstances of our lives, let us keep this wisdom Pope Francis offers us close and keep it real.

COME on HOME for CHRISTMAS
Many will remember Bishop Joseph McNicholas of our diocese (1975-1983) who died in 1983. In Advent 1977 he created the Come on Home for Christmas initiative to welcome and reconcile those who were no longer practicing the Faith. At the entrance to church are some prayer cards Bishop McNicholas created with a prayer you can pray every day for those who we miss so much. It also has a prayer for those individuals to pray themselves. Please share them with those you know and want to encourage to return. If we continue to pray and sacrifice and encourage those we love to do so as well, I believe many more will Come On Home for Christmas.

NEW YEAR'S EVE AND DAY
IC EUCHARISTIC EXPOSTION

As we prepare to enter a new calendar year and celebrate the holy day of MARY, THE MOTHER OF GOD, our monthly 24 Hour Eucharistic Exposition leading to our First Saturday mass continues!

THANK YOU to those whose participation continues to make this opportunity the great font of Grace that it is for our parish and the world. We have an amazingly generous group of faithful who commit to keep watch with the Lord each month. I am especially awed by those who cover the "third shift" hours month after month. Every prayer and every sacrifice is received and makes a difference in the Providence of God.

It is the discipline of the Church that when the Blessed Sacrament is exposed in the monstrance someone must be present at all times. That is why the sign-up sheet is available near the Reconciliation Room all month long. It is preferable, of course, that we have multiple commitments for each hour. If you are present before the Lord and no one has come to replace you please call the # on the sign up sheet.

All are welcome to come and pray at every hour but unless someone has signed the COMMITMENT SHEET for a specific time Exposition cannot continue.

The church is typically locked on Exposition nights about 9 PM. There is a keypad at the NE door to allow admission. To obtain the code please call the parish during regular office hours.

All Knights of Columbus are encouraged to pray especially during the 7:00 – 8:00 PM hour on Friday evening.

Why not welcome the new calendar year by spending some Quality time with the Lord?
