SECOND SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

“Jesus did this as the beginning of his signs at Cana in Galilee.”

John 2:1-11

Prepare For Next Sunday’s Readings

In next Sunday’s Gospel, (January 23) as Jesus stands in the synagogue, he reads from the scroll handed to him; it contains the words of the prophet Isaiah. At this early moment in his ministry, Jesus announces his mission in continuity with Israel’s prophetic tradition. This reading from Isaiah defines Jesus’ ministry. Jesus’ ministry will include bringing glad tidings to the poor, liberty to captives, healing the sick, freedom to the oppressed, and proclaiming a year acceptable to the Lord. Through this text from Isaiah, Jesus announces God’s salvation. The “year acceptable to the Lord” is a reference to the Jewish tradition of Sabbath years and jubilee. The Sabbath year was observed every seventh year. It was a year of rest when land was left fallow and food stores were to be shared equally with all. A year of Jubilee was celebrated every fiftieth year, the conclusion of seven cycles of Sabbath years. It was a year of renewal in which debts were forgiven and slaves were freed. The Holy Spirit is Jesus’ gift to the Church. The Holy Spirit enables the Church to continue the mission of Jesus. When we do what Jesus did—bring glad tidings to the poor, liberty to captives, healing to the sick, and freedom to the oppressed—we serve the Kingdom of God.

SCRIPTURE READINGS

Luke 1:1-4; 4:14-21: In the synagogue Jesus reads aloud from the scroll of the prophet Isaiah and announces that this Scripture is now fulfilled.

A Pilgrim's Progress...

This Tuesday begins the Week of Prayer for Christian Unity. As Catholics we believe that unity is not something that we create. It is a reality that already exists in the life of the Holy Trinity. Our call is to more fully participate in that life and that unity by living a Sacramental life, growing in our knowledge of the fullness of Christian Truth, and putting the Truth into practice through a life of discipleship.

This week offers us opportunities to cooperate with other people of good will as we keep the Martin Luther King Jr. holiday on Monday and the Day of Prayer for the Legal Protection of Unborn Children on Saturday. In his "I Have a Dream" speech during the March on Washington on August 28th, 1963, Dr. King proclaimed, "I have a dream that my four children will one day live in a nation where they will not be judged by the color of their skin but by the content of their character." Dr. King's call for racial justice is echoed by the Catechism of the Catholic Church that all are "created in the image of the one God and equally endowed with rational souls, all men have the same nature and the same origin. Redeemed by the sacrifice of Christ, all are called to participate fully in the same divine beatitude: all therefore enjoy an equal dignity." (CCC1934)

Pope Francis noted that this message of equality is rooted in the Golden Rule. "Do unto others as you would have them do unto you," Mt.7:12. Pope Francis calls us to "seek for others the same possibilities that we seek for ourselves. If we want security, let us give security. If we want life, let us give life; if we want opportunities, let us provide opportunities. The Golden Rule reminds us of our responsibility to protect and defend life at every stage of its development."

Throughout history the struggle for justice often places us in conflict with laws that contradict the Gospel message. Dr. King in his famous "Letter from Birmingham Jail," in the tradition of St. Augustine and St. Thomas Aquinas, taught that "an unjust law is no law at all." A just law is a man-made code that squares with the moral law, the natural law, and the law of God. An unjust law is a human law that is out of harmony with the moral law. It is not rooted in the eternal and natural law. Laws that discriminate on the basis of race or deny the unborn the right to life are unjust laws. All people of good will can know this not as a matter of religious dogma but through the natural law and biological reality.

On Friday our parishes will be joining people of good will for the March for Life events in Springfield. Following mass at the Cathedral of the Immaculate Conception there will be a march to the state capitol. Details for participating are elsewhere in this bulletin. On Saturday morning at IC at 7 AM there will be special mass for the Legal Protection of Unborn Children. All are invited and encouraged to participate.

May our prayers this week bring us closer to the unity that Christ prayed for at the Last Supper, "that all may be one," John 17:21. May our common pursuit of justice for every child of God help us to live that unity more fully.

Sail On, Deo Vindice, fr john

Prayer for Christian Unity

Gracious Lord, we pray for all the members of your holy Church, that all may abide in you and you in them, that they may be one in your love and bear much fruit. We also pray for the world, that all may come to believe in your love for them by the fruit of our witness. We know that our divisions are a source of scandal to your world, and we know that in love we are called to unite as one in the vine and branches. The vine is our Lord Jesus Christ, your Son. We are meant to be his branches. Help us we pray, to love, to forgive, to seek justice and to be your prophetic voice in the world. May your grace effect growth of good fruit among us, that our world may realize peace. We ask all this in the name of Jesus, your Son and in the power of the Holy Spirit, One God, for ever and ever. Amen.

On Saturday, January 29th at 6:30pm, Our Lady of Lourdes Church in Decatur is hosting a healing service. Such an important part of Jesus' ministry was healing the sick. We often pray for healing privately or at a distance for someone, but there is a power when we gather together and pray for healing. The Night of Healing is a healing service that provides a much more powerful and intentional way to pray for healing. Prayer for healing will be prayed for in a large group, and there will also be an opportunity for prayer teams to pray over anyone wanting prayer for healing. If you or anyone needs prayers for healing, please feel free to come. Our prayer team members will be masked. Any questions can be emailed to Fr. Michael Trummer: mtrummer@dio.org
