Prepare For Next Sunday’s Readings

In next Sunday’s Gospel, (February 6) Jesus teaches from Simon’s boat. Jesus turns to Simon and instructs him about where to lower the fishing nets. Simon and others have been fishing throughout the night and have not caught anything. Simon protests, claiming that such an effort would be futile. Simon ultimately obeys Jesus and lowers his nets into the deeper water as directed. Notice here that Peter calls Jesus by the title “master.” He already recognizes Jesus as a person of authority. They catch so many fish that the nets begin to tear; Jesus’ presence has created abundance out of scarcity. Simon Peter becomes a follower of Jesus immediately. He calls Jesus “Lord”—the title given to Jesus after his Resurrection—and protests his worthiness to be in Jesus’ presence. Today’s Gospel, therefore, marks a turning point in the relationship between Jesus and Peter.

A Pilgrim's Progress....

This Wednesday, February 2nd, our parish masses at St. Columcille and Immaculate Conception will celebrate the Feast of the Presentation of the Lord. Mass begins with a candle light procession from the vestibule. It is the 40th day of Christmas and time (at last) to take down our Christmas decorations. It commemorates three events in the life of the Holy Family. It marks the day Mary and Joseph brought the Christ child to the temple for the first time in obedience to the Mosaic Law requiring the firstborn son to be consecrated to God. On the 40th day after childbirth mothers undergo a ritual purification which involved making a sacrificial offering. Mary and Joseph made the offering of the poor: "a pair of turtle doves or two young pigeons," (Luke 2:24). As the Immaculate Conception Mary was and remains always pure. Jesus, as God, did not need to be consecrated to God. Once again the Holy Family is keeping the law by way of example and out of respect for their Jewish faith.

We also commemorate the Holy Family's encounter in the temple with the righteous elders of Israel, Simeon and Anna. Christ's first epiphany was to the Hebrew shepherds and then to the Gentile magi. The next epiphany will be to the crowds at his baptism by John, thirty years later.

Another name for this feast is Candlemas because of Simeon's words proclaiming the Christ child "a light for revelation to the Gentiles and for glory to your people Israel," (Luke 2:32). With Simeon, we proclaim Jesus Christ to be the Light of the World and on this day we bless candle for use throughout the year. If you have candles you would like to be blessed for use at home please bring them to our Candlemas mass. Blessed candles may be used for family celebrations such as Sacramental anniversaries or a family rosary.

Long before there was a Punxsutawney Phil there was a Candlemas tradition that "if Candlemas Day is clear and bright, winter will have another bite. If Candlemas Day brings cloud and rain, winter is gone and will not come again."

The Presentation is also the World Day for Consecrated life. It is the day many religious orders of women and men make or renew their vows.

It is a wonderful day to spend some time giving thanks for and praying for the religious sisters, brothers, and priests who have over the years and continue to serve the Church in the religious life. IC and St C have been well served by Dominican, Ursuline, and Notre Dame sisters throughout our history. Please remember them in your prayers and all those God continues to call to generous service in the consecrated life.

Deo Vindice..... Sail On! fr john
