AN UPDATE FROM OUR MISSIONARY FAMILY
THE GLAFCKES

Dear Beloved St. James Parish Family,

On June 21st we left for a new mission in Nepal. We arrived safely in Kathmandu and felt surrounded and carried by a multitude of graces every step of the way! All glory to God!

We are being sent from Family Missions Company on a pastoral visit to another missionary family who has been serving in Kathmandu on their own since the Fall of 2020. We will also assist with a mission trip group that arrives in July.

Just as our family had been preparing for this transition to serve in Asia, we know that you all were preparing to welcome Fr. John Hemsing as your new pastor.

Be assured of our prayers for a healthy and holy transition for Deacon Sandy, Fr. John, parish staff as well as the parish at large.

Change is seldom easy, but God's grace is always sufficient. Let us be open to every grace The Lord desires for us to give us. And trust that the Lord is always working for our good.

We thank each and every one of you for your powerful prayers and financial support for our family. We are richly blessed by your faithfulness to us.

God willing, we hope to return to St. James this Fall. We look forward to resting, reconnecting with our home parish family and soaking up a glorious midwestern autumn.

Attached is a recent photo of our family from May 7, when our daughter Gloria received her First Holy Communion alongside her classmates.

Yours in Christ,
-- The Glafcke Family
