Catholic Q and A

Question: What is the difference between a "Saint" and a "Blessed"?

Answer: The process of proclaiming someone as a saint in the Catholic Church has evolved over the course of many centuries. In the beginning, those honored as saints were almost exclusively biblical figures or martyrs. However, after the legalization of Christianity in the fourth century, new holy women and men came to be honored as saints, and this was often done by popular acclaim or by the local bishop or abbot.

It was Pope Gregory IX (who was pope from 1227 to 1241) who officially proclaimed that only the pope had the authority to add someone to the official list (the "canon") of saints. This is the meaning of the word "canonization."

Today, the saint-making process includes several steps, including detailed studies of the person's life and a recognition that they died as a martyr or lived a life of "heroic virtue." Once someone is recognized as a martyr or if a miracle is attributed to their intercession, they will be beatified and honored as "Blessed." This means that they can be celebrated by Catholics in a particular country or region or by the members of certain religious community. If another miracle occurs and is approved, then the "Blessed" is canonized and honored with the title "Saint," meaning that they are now officially recognized as a universal model of holiness and an intercessor.

GOSPEL REFLECTION

“Remain in my love,” and, “I call you friends,” are powerful words that are found in John’s Gospel. Most of us probably have them committed to memory or have at least heard them proclaimed dozens of times. They are words that can easily become trite and quickly glossed over without fully pondering and digesting their profound beauty. When we take the time to immerse ourselves in them, they can radically change our lives and our relationships. They can open up new doors of adventure and hold countless possibilities for meaning. The essence of love and friendship are things that can easily be taken for granted. They have always been there and are a significant part of our lives. Many would say that they could not live without love and friendship, and they put a great deal of care into preserving, deepening and sustaining them. Love and friendship share a mutual relationship with each other that deserves more reflection.

Where does love come from? We can consider relationships that have not succeeded and conclude that they were somehow due to our “failures in love.” In doing so, we assume that human beings are the ones responsible for love, its success and also its failure. While our weakness, emotional composition and sinfulness can easily impact our ability to love, its origin is not human. God is love. God is love’s author and origin. When we love, it is God who loves in and through us. It is because of this divine closeness that Jesus is able to call us friends! It is not because of anything we have done but simply because of who we are. Realizing and contemplating this awesome reality becomes a game changer across the board. It gives us reason to clear the table of anything that can adversely affect the way we love so that we can open the door for its author to shine forth.

Coming upon this truth is what leads folks like St. Francis of Assisi to leave that which is comfortable and worldly and live a radical life. They relate with the love of God that radiates in and through all living things and appreciate their sacredness. It was having an intimate experience of God’s love and friendship that propelled St. Francis and others to embrace simplicity, act nonviolently, pursue humility, love enemies, care for the earth and open up avenues for true justice. Understanding this profound truth will also help us find peaceful solutions to world’s problems, restore relationships with our sisters and brothers, bring the grace of loving stewardship to creation and heal many wounds. Once we begin to see how wonderfully holy all of life really is, we discover joy. We lose our need for fear, develop a fierce fortitude, act prudently and seek justice. There is great power in love because it comes from God. It will never fail. It also enjoys the company of two other friends who are eager to become our friends as well: faith and hope. These are just as important to have and to share.

Keeping Current with
Queen of the Apostles
CATHOLIC PARISH & SCHOOL

Happy Easter! It seems spring is finally here, and with it the celebration of the sacraments of First Holy Communion and Confirmation. As you may have heard Monsignor mention, we are doing things a little differently this year. Rather than special Masses for all the first communicants and confirmands, they will receive the sacraments during regular Sunday Masses in May and June. Why are we doing it this way? Well, because these students are members of our parish family and we have all watched them grow in both age and in faith. Mass is an act of participation and we are now able to share in these most important moments with them and their families.

Now just a few words on these two sacraments which, with Baptism, make up the Sacraments of Initiation. As we know, the Eucharist is “the source and summit of the Christian life” (CCC 1324). To receive the Eucharist is to be united with Christ. It strengthens and renews the grace we received in Baptism, wipes away venial sins, and helps preserve us from future mortal sins. And unlike the other sacraments of initiation that we receive only once, we may continue to receive the Eucharist, even daily. In fact, while the First Eucharist is indeed a special occasion, perhaps more crucial are the second, third, fourth Eucharist, and so on. The Eucharist sustains us and our continued participation in it is vital to our faith.

The Sacrament of Confirmation is often misunderstood as a rite of passage into Catholic adulthood. A quick fact check with the Catechism exposes this as fake news. In the Eastern Rite, it is typical for infants to be confirmed immediately after Baptism. In the Latin (Roman) Rite, Confirmation is received between the “age of discretion” (about age seven) and around age 16, as determined by the bishop. So Confirmation has nothing to do with making an “adult” decision, but everything to do with the completion of baptismal grace, an increase of the gifts of the Holy Spirit, becoming more firmly united with Christ, perfecting our bond with the Church, and receiving special strength in the Holy Spirit.

As with all other sacraments, the Eucharist and Confirmation are gifts of grace that are not about what we choose to do for God, but what we allow him to do for us.
