Parish YouTube Channel

The Liturgy of the Word for each Sunday is aired on our parish YouTube channel. We are grateful to our producer, Bill Armstrong. You'll find the link to our channel at: https://www.youtube.com/channel/UCHmltjkUDOipNnDZqc43G_A.

Weekend Mass Protocols

The present safety protocols for weekend Masses (wearing of masks, social distance spacing, sign up for pre-registration) will remain in place. Fr. Michael Erwin will begin his assignment as the new pastor of St. Jude the Apostle Parish on June 15th. When Fr. Mike arrives, he will decide whatever changes he may wish to implement.

Work Continues on 2021 Guide Book/Directory

In order to help us all know more about our parish and to have an annually updated parish directory, we have contracted with Guide Book Publishing to produce a Guide Book and Directory. The book will be directly mailed to every household in our parish and is being provided at no cost to us.

This Guide Book and Directory is, and shall remain, the property of this congregation only. Use of this book by anyone for a business purpose or for telephone or mail solicitation is strictly forbidden. If you do not want your phone number and/or your address listed in this publication, please contact the parish office at 414-258-8821. Also please let us know of any changes in address or phone numbers.

Shady Lane Offers Donation to St. Jude

A wonderful opportunity has been brought to our attention. Shady Lane Greenhouse located at W172 N7388 Shady Lane in Menomonee Falls has offered to donate a full 25% of any flower/plant purchase back to St. Jude the Apostle School.

In order to take advantage of this offer, simply mention at the checkout that you are supporting St. Jude the Apostle School in Wauwatosa.

Shady Lane Greenhouse has been the provider to our annual spring flower sale in past years, and people have always been more than pleased with the quality of the flowers and plants. Taking advantage of this opportunity gives us the chance to support both St. Jude School and one of our local businesses. In advance, we thank you for considering this as you head out to buy your yearly supply of flowers for your yard. We also are most grateful to Shady Lane for their generosity.

Baptisms . . .

Let us welcome:

Eloise Mary Nellen

Parents interested in having their child baptized should register with Gary Heun, Pastoral Associate, at 414-258-8821.

Monday, May 31st—Memorial Day (Observed)

Please note that there will be only one Mass, at 9:00 AM, on Monday, May 31st, in celebration of the holiday.

Give the Gift of Prayer

Because more Masses have been added to each week, we are in need of intentions for them. Please note that Mass intentions are not only offered for the deceased, but can be offered for the living as well. How about having a Mass celebrated for a family member's or a friend's birthday or anniversary? Intentions may also be offered for those who are sick or are recovering from an illness or injury.

The offering for a Mass is $10.00. If you wish to schedule an intention, please contact the parish office at 414-258-8821.

Reflection on the Most Holy Trinity

Let God be who God is. This is often one of the hardest things to do. Rather than allowing the mystery of being created in the image and likeness of God unfold and take root in our lives, we change the dynamic. We want to be the creators who want to make God into the image and likeness we need God to be. We have a hard enough time letting the people in our lives be who they are. We struggle even more so with God. It is almost as if we want God to be our imaginary friend who is not only with us whenever we need but becomes the Being we need God to be. Who is it that we want God to be today? A protector, disciplinarian, champion for justice, healer, advocate for our cause, grantor of prayers, guardian of my life, or the avenger? Our prayers tell an interesting story. When you pray, what does God look like?

Recently, a young woman who was feeling invisible, overlooked, ignored, and misunderstood by her husband struggled to make her feelings known and get his attention. Finally, she screamed, "Listen to me!" Thus, birth was given to a renewed and healthier relationship. We spend so much time storming heaven with our agenda and trying to make God into a "god" of our desires that we do not hear God saying, "Listen to me!" God is desperately trying to get our attention. God is saying, I am here among you as not one but three: Father, Son, and Holy Spirit. Many people seldom notice

Parish Office Summer Hours

Memorial Day (5/31)—Labor Day (9/6)
(Closed all day on the observed holidays)

Monday—Thursday

Friday

8:00 AM—4:00 PM

8:00 AM—12:00 PM

God's presence because they are so caught up with other spiritual cares and concerns. And, when the "god" they fashion and create doesn't produce as they desire, they shake the dust from their feet and move on. "I tried," they exclaim, "but God didn't listen."

Healthy relationships aren't built on making someone be who we need them to be. Healthy relationships are built on encounters of persons and the development of an appreciation of someone solely for who they are. Deeper relationships can even be found with two people marveling at each other and almost experiencing a childlike joy and giddiness when they see the other coming. Do you ever have these feelings about God? Believe it or not, God does for you! There is a joyful laughter that gives rise to and connects all three members of the Holy Trinity. It is this laughter, flowing from the very depths of the Godhead that not only keeps the Trinity in joyful unity but spills over into the creation of all beings and things. It is an expression of Divine Delight! Have you ever taken time away from your agenda to experience the Divine Joyfulness of God?

We can reach a connection of Presence wherein even the smallest of creatures suddenly radiate the fullness of God: the wonderful creation of their being, the innocence and playfulness of their movements, and the sustaining life breath that flows through their veins. The same God who created the heavens and the earth is the same God who wants you to call him 'Dad' and the same God who preserves your life and has all things in His care. ©LPi
