TRUST HIM

Trust Him when dark doubts assail thee,
Trust Him, when thy strength is small;
Trust Him, when to simply trust Him,
Seems the hardest thing of all.

Trust Him. He is ever faithful,
Trust Him! for His will is best;
Trust Him! for the Heart of Jesus,
Is the only place of rest.

DEACON DAVE'S DESK

Today is Divine Mercy Sunday. It has only been a part of our liturgy for the last 20 years, so an old goat like me whose devotional life was formed many years ago still prefers my devotion to the Sacred Heart of Jesus. But many, many Catholics have found devotion to the Divine Mercy to be very meaningful and like my own devotion to the Sacred Heart of Jesus, the Divine Mercy devotion is rooted in God's great love for us all.

In the Jubilee Year 2000, St. John Paul II proclaimed that from that year forward the Second Sunday of Easter would be celebrated as Divine Mercy Sunday. This was proclaimed at the Canonization Mass of St. Faustina Kawalska, who worked throughout her life to make all aware of the merciful love of God. St. Faustina (1905-1938) was born and raised in Poland. As a member of the Sisters of Our Lady of Mercy, she worked as a cook, gardener, and porter. In her spiritual life, her contemplation on the Mercy of God led her to develop a childlike trust in God and deep love for her neighbor. St. Faustina promoted the Chaplet of Divine Mercy which consists of the recitation of prayers to the Eternal Father with the use of the rosary for the sake of Christ's sorrowful passion.

The Chaplet is prayed as follows:

1. Begin with the Sign of the Cross, one Our Father, one Hail Mary, and the Apostles' Creed.
2. On the Our Father beads, recite the following:
"Eternal Father, I offer you the Body and Blood, Soul and

THANK YOU!

Thank you to everyone who made Holy Week a time of true celebration at St. Paul. So many people did so much! I heard nothing but praise for the way the church looked and sounded. The worship of the Triduum gave many great joy in the Lord, and for that I am grateful.

Deacon Dave

Divinity of your dearly beloved Son, our Lord Jesus Christ, in atonement for our sins and those of the whole world."

3. On the ten Hail Mary beads, say the following:
"For the sake of His sorrowful Passion, have mercy on us and on the whole world."
4. Repeat step two and three for all five decades.
5. Conclude by reciting three times:
"Holy God, Holy Mighty One, Holy Immortal One, have mercy on us and on the whole world."

By reflecting more personally on the graces won through the life, death, and Resurrection of Jesus Christ, our hearts will be more fully aware of the mercy of God for us personally and for the sake of the world.

Bringing the Gospel Home: How can you help people experience the merciful love of God?

Corporal Works of Mercy

The Corporal Works of Mercy are these kind acts by which we help our neighbors with their material and physical needs: Feed the hungry --- shelter the homeless --- clothe the naked -- - visit the sick and imprisoned--- bury the dead --- give alms to the poor.

Spiritual Works of Mercy

The Spiritual Works of Mercy are acts of compassion, as listed below, by which we help our neighbors with their emotional and spiritual needs: Instruct --- advise --- console --- comfort -- - forgive --- bear wrongs patiently.

Beginning with the Easter Vigil, this paschal candle will be lit at all Masses until Pentecost. After Pentecost, the candle is used for Baptisms and Funeral Masses. This beautiful candle was selected and donated by Bob Stevenson, in memory of Peg Stevenson.

Many thanks to Jackie Fleisner and Pat Schmidt for heading up our Children's Liturgy of the Word! During the 8:30 a.m. Mass each week, little ones from preschool through second grade are invited to receive a special blessing and then head downstairs to the parish hall. Pictured here are the children learning about the day's Gospel through storytelling, crafts, and activities. They return to Church during the Sign of Peace. No pre-registration is needed; all kids are welcome! Are you interested in helping as a leader or assistant for Children's Liturgy of the Word? Please talk to Maggie. We would love more adults (or teens) to be on the team!

Thank you to everyone who contributed to Mary's Girls' collection for VIDA Medical Clinic and Support Services. The overflowing crib of wonderful items was loaded up and delivered. Thank you to Mary's Girls for organizing this project and to our generous parishioners who responded to the call for these much needed items for moms who need support during pregnancy.
