A Word From Our Pastoral Leader

The Wedding at Cana (John 2:1-11) is not only our Gospel today but is part of the Rosary as the Second Luminous Mystery in 2001. It must have been a big embarrassment in Cana when the wedding party ran out of wine. When we consider that at that time a wedding celebration lasted not just for a day like our celebrations but for a whole week the embarrassment would be even more acute. Because the wedding celebration was so long it is no wonder that Jesus changed so many gallons of water into wine. The bad situation began to turn right when Mary turned to Jesus and said, "They have no wine." (John 2:3) Mary interceded and pleaded before Jesus to turn the situation around. It was not just then that Mary intervened in Cana, she continues to plea before God on our behalf now.

Let us continue to pray and have Mary intercede on our behalf to Jesus

Greg

Knights of Columbus Family of the Month – Jeff and Ann Herman

Joe Uchytel

Jeff and Ann Herman were married 25 years ago at St. Gabriel Parish in Neenah. They were members of St. Mary's in Greenville for 12 years before becoming members of St. Peter and Paul Parish in Hortonville. They have three daughters: Sydney (21), Elise (18), and Paige (15).

Jeff is a 3rd degree knight that joined our council in 2019. Jeff is a co-coordinator for the Tootsie Roll drive, helps at the brat fries, pancake breakfasts and is our council Recorder. He has worked with charities VIDA, Harbor House, and Pillars. Jeff has served on the church finance committee for the past four years, and is currently in the role of trustee. While their children attended St. Mary's school, Jeff was on their Board of Education and served in many capacities, including chaperone and coach. Professionally, Jeff has worked in sales at Amcor for the past 30 years.

Ann also works at Amcor in Human Resources. She also served a term on St. Mary's school's Board of Education. Additionally, Ann became involved by chaperoning field trips, working hot lunch, coaching volleyball and organizing holiday events. Ann has provided recruiting support for Ss. Peter & Paul Parish, as needed.

Sydney, Elise and Paige have participated in many of the youth opportunities at Ss. Peter and Paul, including mission trips to Alabama, Tennessee, South Carolina and St. Louis, and the local Love Begins Here mission trip. Collectively, they have attended the March for Life in Indiana, served as Youth Leader on mission trips and taught Faith Formation classes. The girls have been active student participants in several extra-curricular activities including, Link Crew (upper classmen mentoring freshmen), theater programs, soccer, volleyball, golf, track, dance, ski club and National Honor Society. The girls routinely volunteer with various community organizations including The Salvation Army.

Thank you, Jeff, Ann, Sydney, Elise, and Paige for all you have done over the years.

Our council is proud to honor you as our Family of the Month!

St. Mary Catholic School

St. Mary School Celebrates the Epiphany

Father led a procession throughout the church and school, followed by the students and staff, blessing every doorway in the building. We prayed that we would be guided to recognize Jesus, to know Him in faith, to see Him in our daily lives and that He would make our school a place of peace and health.
