FROM THE DESK OF FR. JUSTIN...

"The beginning is a fragile time", is the first line of a favorite book of mine: Dune, by Frank Herbert. A very iconic quote from that series, and it happens to be true.

In this, the beginning of 2021, we all ought to have a renewed sense of hope in the "fresh start" sense of the word. As has been mentioned in the past, New Year's Eve is not a holiday I celebrate in any particular way. Staying up till midnight is a questionable ritual, once you've outgrown the thrill of staying up past your bedtime. There's very little spiritual quality to New Year's Eve, and I'll be honest and forthright: I've had a few bad experiences on December 31st.

But even so, New Year's Eve is not without its charms. Between Christmas and the start of a new calendar year, we really do have all the advantages we need to turn over a new leaf and affect a necessary and/or desired change within ourselves and our lives. Call it a New Year's Resolution if you like. Regardless of the label, January is a good month for setting new goals, letting past failures stay in the past, and otherwise planning for what the future may hold.

For 2021, we need that. As I said in my New Year's Eve/New Year's Day homily, most of us won't define 2020 as a year of pain and suffering. Some of us will, of course, and my heart goes out to them. However, for most of us, 2020 was a year of frustration, uncertainty, fear, and mania. If you share that attitude with me regarding the majority of last year, then surely you can also agree that it is important to look to 2021 as a year that will somehow be different than the one before. This coming year will surely bring its own challenges and misfortunes – every year comes that way. But we can still begin this new cycle of our lives with the intentionality that things can and will be different. Although change does not often happen overnight, change most certainly occurs in its own time.

Some things remain out of our hands: vaccine development, the state of the national economy, the weather, you name it. Other things are very much in our own hands, to shape as we will. We have total control about how much we chose to care about one another and the needs of our community. We are free to practice our faith (which we NEED, by the way), and we are free to use our time as wisely as possible – even if our options are a bit more limited than they were in 2019.

So whether you make a New Year's Resolution or not, allow me to conclude with another iconic quote. "This too shall pass." It has been said by many people over the years. The original Biblical reference is a tad longer and more difficult to memorize.

"For our light and momentary troubles are achieving for us an eternal glory that far outweighs them all. So we fix our eyes not on what is seen, but what is unseen, since what is seen is temporary, but what is unseen is eternal."
-2 Corinthians 4: 17-18

-Father Justin

Therefore, if anyone is in Christ, he is a new creation. The old has passed away; behold, the new has come.

—2 Cor 5:17 (ESV)

FEAST OF THE EPIPHANY

At Our Rising

God of glory,
at its rising, the star drew Magi
who traveled to Jerusalem bearing gifts for your Son.
At his rising, your Son appeared
to his followers,
who traveled to distant lands
bearing the gift of salvation for everyone.
At our rising each day may we, your people,

move forward in faith and hope.
May we become gifts for each other,
gifts that enrich, that guide, heal, console,
and uplift
so that at our rising from the dead
you may receive us into the light of your eternal glory.
We ask this through Christ our Lord. Amen.

Sunday, January 3, 2021
One God, One People

Today's Readings: Isaiah 60:1–6; Psalm 72:1–2, 7–8, 10–11, 12–13; Ephesians 3:2–3a, 5–6; Matthew 2:1–12. When God led his people out of Egypt, they believed in the existence of many gods. In the centuries that followed, they would come to know that there was only one God, the Lord of heaven and earth. The First Reading reveals that not only the Jews but all people come to believe in the Lord alone. People from all across the world bring gifts and sacrifices to Jerusalem to pay homage to the one true God.

The arrival of the Magi in Jerusalem fulfills Isaiah's prophecy. By undertaking the long journey to pay homage to the newborn king, these Gentiles venerate the God of Israel. They reveal that "the Gentiles are coheirs, members of the same body." In Christ, God invites all people to share in his divine life and glory.

The revelation we celebrate today is thus not only about who God is, it is also about the people God empowers us to become. The images in Isaiah's prophecy portray people acting in unity, in harmony, and with a common purpose. They praise God, which means they acknowledge all that God is and embrace all that God stands for: kindness, patience, compassion, truth, mercy, justice. As we pay homage to the newborn king and strive to imitate his selfless love, we become part of this epiphany, part of God's great love, and we help others who are lost in the darkness to find and follow the light.

This Week at Home

Still Shining

St. Elizabeth Ann Seton, whom we celebrate today, was the first person from the United States to be canonized. She also founded the first Catholic school for girls and the Sisters of Charity. St. Elizabeth found ways to participate in the ministry of Jesus, spread God’s kingdom, and keep the light of Christ shining. Learn more about St. Elizabeth. Ask for her intercession as you discern how you can more fully receive and share the light of Christ. Today’s Readings: 1 John 3:22–4:6; Psalm 2:7bc–8, 10–12a; Matthew 4:12–17, 23–25.

Tuesday, January 5

This Is Love

God’s love is boundless and tireless. God loved us into existence. God incarnated his love in Jesus, who revealed God’s love in every aspect of his ministry, from urging love for our enemies to healing and feeding people. Through Christ, God loves us into eternal life. If we have received this love, our lives will overflow with love for others. Share God’s love today by volunteering at a soup kitchen or visiting someone who is sick or homebound. Today’s Readings: 1 John 4:7–10; Psalm 72:1–2, 3–4, 7–8; Mark 6:34–44.

Wednesday, January 6

Perfecting Love

We’re told that “there is no fear in love,” and yet the disciples are terrified of Jesus as he strides toward them on the surface of the sea. We love God, and yet we are frightened of his power, his greatness, and even his love. The more we encounter God’s love, the more imperfect we feel. Our fears will fade only when we accept God’s love, when we welcome that love and remain in it every day, every hour, every moment of our lives. Meditate on a crucifix or other image of God’s love. Today’s Readings: 1 John 4:11–18; Psalm 72:1–2, 10, 12–13; Mark 6:45–52.

Thursday, January 7

Look Around

St. John insists that our love for God, whom we do not see, must overflow into love for others, whom we do see. Too often, however, we don’t see the people who most need our love. Jesus points them out in today’s Gospel passage: they are people in prisons, homeless shelters, treatment centers, orphanages, and nursing homes. They live in the poorest part of town, the places we never see, the places we won’t go. Look at a map of where you live. Who are all the “hidden” people in your area? Today’s Readings: 1 John 4:19–5:4; Psalm 72:1–2, 14 and 15bc, 17; Luke 4:14–22a.

Friday, January 8

Sharing in the Victory

Eternal life flows from God the Father through his Son to the world. The leper who met Jesus experienced this new life. All that he suffered—physical pain, loneliness, hunger, sorrow—was lifted from him at the word and gentle touch of Jesus. What in your life needs to be healed, cleansed, and restored? Pray Psalm 130, and imitate the leper by prostrating yourself before the Lord. Today’s Readings: 1 John 5:5–13; Psalm 147:12–13, 14–15, 19–20; Luke 5:12–16.

Saturday, January 9

Belong to God

As we conclude our reading of the First Letter of John, we are reminded that sin and evil persist in our world. God’s Son became human and shares his light and life with us, yet even we who are baptized in his name sometimes fall back into sin. We continue to need his light, his word, his Church. During the Sacrament of Reconciliation, celebrate all the ways God has incarnated his love in your life. Ask forgiveness for those times when you have failed to receive and to share this love. Today’s Readings: 1 John 5:14–21; Psalm 149:1–2, 3–4, 5 and 6a and 9b; John 3:22–30.

LITURGICAL LIFE

Inclement Weather Policy

Inclement weather may force our parish to cancel services and/or programs at times.

If inclement weather should cause cancellations of church services on weekends, our parish will put these announcements on the WBEV AM1430 & WXRO 95.3 FM radio stations. We will also typically post the closing on our parish website, www.sheart.org and our Facebook page, www.facebook.com/sheartparish.

If you have signed up for electronic communication you may also get an email or text alert. If you wish to sign up for electronic messages you can join at <https://sacredheartstmatthew.flocknote.com>. Please try the "Login" button first to see if your email or cell phone number are already in our system (not your name). If not, then join up and provide your information or contact the parish office (920) 485-0694 x221 during business hours to update your contact information.

Please Note: cancellation may not occur until within the hour prior to the service.

During the week, cancellations will occur if the Horicon School District has a late start, early release or is closing due to weather conditions. The Horicon School District will announce this information on local radio and TV.

* If school is canceled, all church programs & services will be canceled the entire day.

* If a late start is announced, the morning church programs & services will be canceled.

* If an early release is announced, all afternoon and evening church programs or services will be canceled.

Just before Advent we began using more of the automated features of our Liturgical Lay Minister scheduling program. Overall, I think things are going well, with only the occasional hiccup. This system allows the people to manage their own availability dates, service time preferences, and contact info. It also sends out automatic reminders when you are scheduled, and can help you request subs if you can't make a scheduled date.

At this time I want to go over the feature for requesting a sub. When you use the "request sub" link the system sends out an automated email to all other ministers of that kind. So if you are scheduled to Usher, it will email other Ushers. This is an automatic email and will go to each individual with their name on it. So other Ushers will receive an email like the following:

Dear Bob,
A sub has been requested by John Smith for the following position:
Saturday, Jan 23, 5:00 PM - Usher (volunteer now)
Sub requested by: John Smith; 920-555-5555; jsmith@aol.com

MINISTRY SCHEDULES

The next Lay Minister schedule will cover Lent and Easter, February 12 through April 12, 2021. Please use the Ministry Scheduler system to input any dates that you CANNOT serve. If you do not give us dates, we will assume you are available for all Masses. If you are not able to use the web terminal, please feel free to call in or email your date preferences the same as always, lit.ministers@gmail.com or (920) 485-0694 x221.

You can access the web terminal from a computer at <https://rotundasoftware.com/ministry/sheart>, and your login is typically your first initial and last name, for example "jsmith". Remember there is also an app for both Apple® and Android® phones that also allows you to set reminders of your upcoming schedule.

IF YOU DO NOT WISH TO SERVE AT THIS TIME due to Covid concerns, please use the app or let us know to mark all dates as unavailable to serve, otherwise you may be scheduled.

As always, once the schedule comes out, you will be responsible for finding your own subs.

PLEASE SUBMIT YOUR AVAILABILITY SCHEDULE BY JANUARY 24TH, 2021

This is an automatic email, and to the best of my knowledge, the person requesting the sub doesn't see any replies except the one from the computer that alerts them if someone took their spot.

- If you receive a sub request email you only need to click on the "volunteer now" link and the system will process the swap. If you can't take that sub request, then you do not need to reply. It's an automatic email, and the user will not see your reply.
- If you are the one that is asking for a sub, please remember to periodically check the web terminal to make sure your request is not still unanswered. You may need to make some phone calls if the automatic email isn't doing the trick.

Remember, if something is confusing or you just want help, you can always call the parish office (920) 485-0694 x221 and we will try to help you.
