Deacon Jeff's Corner

We have now reached the Fourth (and final) Sunday of Advent and next weekend, we will celebrate the great Solemnity of Christmas – God coming to earth as one of us. This is a really good time to reflect on if and how we have prepared our hearts to celebrate during this Advent season.

A couple of key items: Have you experienced the Sacrament of Reconciliation? If not, this would be a great time to experience Jesus' incredible forgiveness. If you cannot find a priest this week, please let me know; I will help you!

Second: Is your focus entirely on Christmas preparations? Is an Advent wreath part of your home? It should be visible until Christmas Eve as a reminder of the season we are still in. There are many wonderful readings available to prepare yourself for Jesus' coming. A few I recommend are Isaiah Chapter 40, and Luke 1:26-56; they are great, thought provoking readings to get ready!

I am sure in some people's eyes, all that I continue to say about Advent is my way to be a "Scrooge" in a season of joy. But in reality, the Christmas season begins next Saturday and continues all the way to Baptism of Jesus on January 9. I hope you won't lose the "Christmas spirit" during that entire time!

Deacon Jeff

The BE Attitudes: Ten Paths to Holiness

By Fr Albert Hasse OFN

Each week we will explore two or three of the ten important attitudes that will shape each one of us into the person God calls us to be.

Jan 10 @ 6:30 - Session 1: Be Relational and Be Loving
Jan 17 @ 6:30 - Session 2: Be Forgiving
Jan 24 @ 6:30 - Session 3: Be Compassionate, Be a Person of Surrender, and Be Contemplative
Jan 31 @ 6:30 - Session 4: Be in the Present Moment and Be a Person of Peace and Justice
Feb 7 @ 6:30 - Session 5: Be Grateful and Be Confident of Your Own Path to Holiness

The Discipleship Committee is offering this 5-week course on the Be Attitudes Monday nights @ 6:30 starting Jan 10th and running for 5 weeks.

Sign up after mass the weekends of Dec 11-12 & Dec 18-19

SCRIPTURE Reflections

Jesus is My Gift to You
by Deacon Dennis

The gospel reading for the 4th Sunday of Advent is one we are very familiar with. I would venture to say that some people could recite the scripture reading from memory. Both Mary and Elizabeth are with child and Mary sets out to visit her cousin. Elizabeth, advanced in years, was carrying in her womb, John the Baptist. He would be born several months before Jesus and would be "sent as a messenger to prepare a people fit for the Lord." How special to have the Mother of our Lord Jesus Christ come to visit and to bring Jesus along with her!

We can bring Jesus to others much the same, not only during the upcoming season of Christmas but throughout the year. The corporal works of mercy give us many opportunities to bring Jesus to others: Feed the hungry, give drink to the thirsty, shelter the homeless, clothe the naked, care for the sick, help the imprisoned and bury the dead. When we do these things, we are indeed bringing Jesus to others, especially the poor and the marginalized. Many of these works are easy to accomplish (Thanksgiving Food Drive, Christmas Giving Tree, Preble Hive.) But , we also bring Jesus to others when we participate and do things that sometimes do not make us think we are his missionaries. Assisting at Mass, being an altar server, lector, communion distributor or usher. Also, bringing a meal to our neighbor across the street when he just lost his spouse and is heartbroken. By joining Literacy Green Bay and helping immigrants acquire the reading, writing and math skills they need to function as community members. These are all less common ways that we can be the person who makes others feel loved by bringing Jesus into their lives.

Let's make 2022, the year of bringing Jesus to others. Let's make the Advent prayer of St. Francis of Assisi our objective as we help others "leap for joy" when Jesus comes into their lives!

Enlighten the darkness of my heart.
Give me right faith,
sure hope and perfect charity.
Fill me with understanding and knowledge,
that I may fulfill your commands.

In Sympathy

We extend our sympathy to the family and friends of Ralph Allen.
Please keep Ralph and his family in your prayers.

A POP Journey of Prayerful Patience

The fourth week of Advent is about PEACE.

With all the chaos in the world today, we are all searching for peace in some way. Jesus was born to help bring peace to the entire world, but sometimes we need to take a step back and allow Him to guide our journey. It can be hard to give up control, but wouldn't it be worth it to experience heavenly peace?

Heavenly Father, help me to be prayerfully patient so Jesus can show me the way to bring peace to my life

hope - love - joy - peace
