There was a wedding at Cana in Galilee, and the mother of Jesus was there. Jesus and his disciples were also invited to the wedding. When the wine ran short, the mother of Jesus said to him, "They have no wine." - Jn 2:1-3

Podcast Recommendation:

Pints with Aquinas

Episode: 10,000 Objections to Catholicism ANSWERED with Jimmy Akin

Released January 6, 2022

The Pints with Aquinas Podcast is created and hosted by Matt Fradd. He introduces the podcast by asking: "If you could sit down with St. Thomas Aquinas over a pint of beer and ask him one question, what would it be? Every episode of Pints with Aquinas revolves around questions that Saint Thomas would have answered in his most famous work, The Summa Theologica. So, pull up a barstool and grab a cold one."

I appreciate that the episodes are marked by an ease of understanding, even for profound topics, and humor. I was introduced to Matt Fradd as a part of youth and young adult conferences, where he was a regular guest speaker. I love his outlook on the church, praising the good things that are present, but charitably critiquing areas of disunity and ambiguity. His familiarity with English, Latin, and Eastern Catholic liturgy provide a well rounded perspective. His Australian accent may not give more credibility, but it certainly is fun to listen to. Episodes regularly go 2-3 hours long, so I recommend listening while on a drive, while working on chores, or while exercising.

Recently, the podcast has published longform interviews and discussions about a wide variety of topics in Catholicism. In the episode: 10,000 Objections to Catholicism ANSWERED w/ Jimmy Akin Released January 6, 2022, Matt and Jimmy discussed a bunch of objections to Catholicism. Topics included: papal authority and infallibility, The Assumption of Mary, Hell, purgatory, prayers to the Saints, contraception, masturbation, why women can't be priests, and calling priests 'father', among other topics. If you, or others you talk with, share questions about these or other topics, I recommend listening to this episode to give you a better background on these areas.

-Fr. Michael

Day of Prayer the Legal Protection of Unborn Children

Saturday, January 22

The over 56 million abortions since the 1973 decisions of Roe v. Wade and Doe v. Bolton reflect with heartbreaking magnitude what Pope Francis means by a "throwaway culture." However, we have great trust in God's providence. We are reminded time and again in Scripture to seek the Lord's help, and as people of faith, we believe that our prayers are heard.

Join us Saturday, January 22, to pray for the Unborn at 9 AM Mass at St. Patrick, followed by Adoration.

"A great prayer for life is urgently needed, a prayer which will rise up throughout the world. Through special initiatives and in daily prayer, may an impassioned plea rise to God, the Creator and lover of life, from every Christian community, from every group and association, from every family and from the heart of every believer." Evangelium vitae, 100
