Gospel MeditationAugust 16, 202020th Sunday in Ordinary Time

We are hardwired for wholeness and crave it. When something is broken, we want it fixed. If a part of our body is not working properly, we want it healed. How often do we find ourselves saying, "I'm tired of struggling with this cold, I can't wait for my surgery to heal, or I want my treatments to make me better." Wholeness and healing restore our relationships and make us free to love as we desire. We know very well how our limitations, imperfections, and brokenness really limit us. They can easily prevent us from being and doing what we want to do.

Our physical and emotional wounds and maladies are easier to identify. If my back hurts, I feel it and know what part of my body needs attention. If I am feeling intense anger, I can identify the emotion and take necessary steps to uncover its cause. Being persistent often brings greater and quicker results. But will pursuing and even achieving our physical and emotional healings really be enough? We forget that there is a deeper healing that we seek and desperately need. As we look around at humanity, there are some physical and emotional wounds and scars that cannot be made whole. They are limitations that must remain and, for one reason or another, cannot be rectified. Does this mean that the wholeness and healing that my being longs for is not possible for me? Must I settle with less than what God promises?

The answer is no. Ultimately, there is a desire that goes deeper than the physical and emotional. It is a desire that resides in our soul. What we really seek and thirst for is healing and wholeness for our soul. Inner strength, conviction, focus, grounding, love, hope, faith, courage, determination, peace, and connectedness are all words that center us on eternity. They direct us to a presence we discover in our core, which is none other than the presence of God. In God, we are healed. When we are persistent in reaching out to and establishing our relationship with God, real healing and wholeness begin to happen.

There are some limitations and some of our brokenness with which we may simply have to live. This does not mean that we have to abandon our journey to wholeness and healing. If we have done our inner soul work, we have worked toward and acquired what and who we ultimately need and desire.

School Supplies Needed

Blessed Sacrament School is requesting supply donations of any kind. The supplies can be turned in at the parish office Monday through Friday 8:00-3:30. If you have any questions, please call the school office at (414) 649-4730

Safety Guidelines Friendly Reminder

- Social distance (6' between non-family members) when sitting in the pews.
- Consider sitting toward the center of the pew if you are the first to enter in order to allow those arriving later a place to sit.
- Wearing a mask is required for entry into the Church.
- Please promptly exit the church after Mass to avoid gatherings and allow time for cleaning and disinfecting the church between Masses.
- Please do not leave bulletins, Orders of Worship or missalettes in the pews. They are yours to keep or feel free to dispose of them as they are intended for one time use only.

Weekly Marian Devotion

We have restarted praying the Holy Rosary beginning at 3:30 PM before the Saturday 4:00 PM Mass. Please join your fellow parishioners in the Marian chapel while maintaining social distance. We need to ask our Blessed Mother to intercede to her Son for ourselves, for our country, and for our world in this most difficult time. If you would like to join the team to lead the Rosary sometime in the future, please let me know.

Blessings,
Deacon Paul
