Daily Mass Tapings

We will be taping next Monday's Mass on WEDNESDAY January 12th, 2021 immediately following the 8:15 AM Mass. Please join us and be a member of the "TV" congregation.

The Creed

As we begin our study of the Creed, we consider the words, "I believe." What does it mean to say that you believe? What do you believe in? Is our belief in God ultimately rational or a wish fulfilling fantasy as many modern atheists would say?

Join Michael Federman, Director of Christian Formation, at 6:30 PM on Tuesday, January 12th in Turner Hall to explore these questions and what science can and cannot tell us about God.

To sign up for classes, please visit:

Bereavement Support Group Gathering

Experiencing loss, especially loss of a loved one, is the most difficult time in our lives. Knowing what to expect as we grieve the loss, and how to continue our journey toward healing can help us.

During this session, we will discuss how establishing grief rituals to honor our loved one can help us.

Our next gathering is scheduled for Wednesday, January 19th at 6:00 p.m. We will meet in the gathering space in the lower level of the rectory. Please enter the west door to the Church on South 41st Street at the Marian shrine and proceed downstairs. Please feel free to share this information with others who may benefit from attending.

If you have any questions or need additional information, please contact me at (414) 321-1611.

Peace and Blessings,
 Deacon Paul

Facility Maintenance Envelopes

We will no longer be taking up a second collection for the Facility Maintenance Fund on the third weekend of each month. Please include your green Maintenance Fund envelopes with your regular weekly envelopes during the Offertory collection.

The Baptism of the Lord

"We are called to live our baptism every day, as new creatures, clothed in Christ." -Pope Francis

What reference point do you use when making decisions? Many times, impulse takes control and decisions are made based solely on emotion and desire. We all know that these types of decisions can often get us into trouble. When a person has a confident sense of who they are and a real understanding of what is important and of value, the likelihood of kneejerk impulsive choices diminishes. Baptism gives us what we need to make well informed and purposeful decisions. By this simple gesture, God claims us as His own and provides us with the identity and purpose we need to properly live life.

It is tremendously reassuring, when we truly embrace this revelation and realize that we no longer have to wonder about the purpose of our lives or struggle to find our way. The answer of who we are in God has been given to us. We no longer have to fumble around, trip over ourselves or walk aimlessly about. Issues surrounding the sacredness of life, the meaning of death, the protection of those most vulnerable, care for the weak and the poor, offering hospitality to those in search of a home, the purpose and proper place of work, how to create a just social order, caring for creation, and understanding our roles as heralds and stewards are just a few of the wonderful gifts baptism brings. When we make decisions based on things such as these core Gospel truths we really act as Christ himself, revealing to others the new creations that we are. This is how we live our baptism.

It is difficult to walk against the tide. Yet, that is precisely what baptism calls us to do. Although we are sinners, in need of mercy and far from perfection we are called to order our life and make decisions based upon the wisdom and guidance of Almighty God. He alone is the one who can claim us as His sons and daughters. Standing up for our principles will not make us popular. But who ever said Christianity is a popularity contest? Baptism calls us to stand up for that which goes against the grain of secularism. Standing in line with other sinners, we have our anchor to steady us in the tempests of life and God is very pleased. Forge ahead. There is nothing to fear.
