From the desk of Fr. Angel.

Dear friends,

This is Fr. Angel, your new associate pastor. In an effort to respond to your spiritual needs, I will offer a “Retreat in Everyday Life” starting in the middle of September, day and time TBD.

What is a “Retreat in Everyday Life”? It is a kind of retreat instituted by St. Ignatius of Loyola, where the people attending do not leave their everyday life occupations, but commit themselves to take a daily time to pray and meditate, helped by a guideline of prayer (a booklet that will be provided in our weekly meeting).

We meet once a week for one hour, to share, encourage and clarify doubts related to spiritual life and prayer.

I hope you will take advantage of this opportunity to grow in your faith and strengthen our parish community.

ALL ARE WELCOME!

UNDERSTANDING THE MASS

Dear friends,

We all participate in Holy Mass every Sunday, some with different attitude and purpose. For some it is the most important source of their growth and spiritual support, for others it is one more thing that “has to be done” otherwise I am wrong with God.

Starting this Sunday, we are going to explain very briefly what happens at Mass, the reason why we say that it is “the center and highest point of worship and adoration that we can render to God.”

The origin of the mass dates back to the time of the apostles, who met on Sundays to “break the bread” that is, the bread of the Eucharist, of the body and blood of Jesus. It is called “Eucharist” because in Greek this word means “thanksgiving.”

This means that in the Eucharist, or at Mass, we come together as a church, as the body of Christ to praise, give thanks and ask for forgiveness, for our sins and those of the whole world. In addition, in it the living and true body of Jesus Christ is offered in a bloodless way (that is, without the shedding of blood), which is given to be our spiritual food. From this spiritual food we draw the strength to face the challenges of our daily life. The next time you go to Mass, don’t forget to thank God for this immense gift of his love.

ENTENDIENDO LA MISA

Queridos amigos,

Todos participamos en la Santa Misa cada domingo, algunos con diferente actitud y propósito. Para unos es la fuente más importante de su crecimiento y sostenimiento espiritual, para otros es una cosa más que “toca cumplir” de lo contrario ando mal con Dios.

Desde este domingo, vamos a explicar muy brevemente que es lo que pasa en la misa, la razón por la que decimos que es “el centro y punto más elevado del culto y adoración que podemos rendir a Dios.”

El origen de la misa se remonta al tiempo de los apóstoles, los cuales se reunían los domingos a “partir el pan” es decir, el pan de la Eucaristía, del cuerpo y la sangre de Jesús. Se le llama “Eucaristía” porque en griego esta palabra significa “acción de gracias.”

Esto significa que en la Eucaristía, o en la Misa, nos reunimos como iglesia, como cuerpo de Cristo para alabar, dar gracias y pedir perdón por nuestros pecados y los del mundo entero. Además, en el se ofrece de manera incruenta (o sea sin derramamiento de sangre) el cuerpo vivo y verdadero de Jesucristo que se entrega para ser nuestro alimento espiritual. De este alimento espiritual tomamos la fuerza para enfrentar los retos de nuestra vida diaria. La siguiente vez que vayas a Misa, no olvides agradecer a Dios este inmenso regalo de su amor.
