WORSHIP & MEDITATION

September 12, 2021
24th Sunday in Ordinary Time

Jesus addresses His disciples saying, "Whoever wishes to come after me must deny himself, take up his cross, and follow me." We are Jesus' disciples, and He is speaking those same words to us here and now.

Living a life of discipleship is not always easy. It requires us to be imitators of Christ — who suffered, died, and rose from the dead out of total love for each one of us. This means we are called to share in Christ's sufferings by taking up our cross and following Him daily. But what does this look like in our day-to-day lives?

We can start by making a firm resolution to follow Christ today, here and now, and renewing that resolution each day when we rise. This requires time with Him each day — speaking and listening.

We should also strive to pick up our crosses each day with Christ by our side. Our cross might be suffering from an illness, fighting an addiction, a day of screaming kids, or a period where things just don't seem to go our way. Instead of avoiding these sufferings or complaining about them, we are called to carry them with Christ, allowing Him to transform us through them.

If we live life constantly focused on us, we will ultimately lose ourselves, but if we surrender our lives for Christ and His mission, we will gain eternal life and become more alive than we could have ever imagined, "For whoever wishes to save his life will lose it, but whoever loses his life for my sake and that of the gospel will save it." This takes daily commitment and requires endurance in our faith, which can only be done through active discipleship.

LITURGICAL LIFE

EVERYDAY STEWARDSHIP

Isaiah 50:5-9a; Psalms 116:1-6, 8-9; James 2:14-18; Mark 8:27-35

Can You Walk the Walk

I've met and talked with enough people to feel confident that if you polled 100 fallen-away Catholics about why they didn't want anything to do with the Church, the term "accountability" would pop up in almost all of their answers.

And to be fair, a lack of accountability isn't just a Catholic problem. Talking the talk but not walking the walk has been a shortcoming handed down throughout the ages, across all creeds and nationalities.

Loving our neighbor, welcoming the stranger, clothing the naked, feeding the poor — it all sounds fantastic, especially when we're the ones saying it. But the doing — well, that's a different story, isn't it? We would do well to remember that Christ calls one of his best friends "Satan" when Peter tries to convince Jesus to stray from his destiny.

Have you ever been called Satan by one of your good buddies? I'll bet it's not a great feeling. But think about what Peter was doing. He had just said, "You are the Christ." And now, mere moments later, he's saying: "Don't say these things. Don't say you're going to suffer. Don't say you'll be killed."

He was telling Christ to squander what the Lord had given him. He was telling him that having faith was fine, but being faithful? It's just a little too hard. God has a destiny for you, too, and He's asking you to be open to it. Maybe it's not in your comfort zone. Maybe you don't think you can do it.

Lord, give us faith — but help us, also, to do the work.

~ Tracy Earl Welliver, MTS

REFLECT & RESPOND TO SCRIPTURE

*Isaiah 35:4-7a; Psalms 146:7-10;
James 2:1-5; Mark 7:31-37*

First Reading: Despite his suffering, the prophet Isaiah insisted "the Lord God is my help." In what way do you need the Lord's help today?

Second Reading: James sees faith alone as insufficient for Christians. He even asserts: "I will demonstrate my faith to you from my works." Could you do the same?

Gospel Reading: We hear today Jesus' definition of discipleship: "Whoever wishes to come after me must deny himself, take up his cross, and follow me." How well do you measure up to this definition of discipleship? ©LPI

They say, You say: A dialogue on Abortion

"Pro-Abortion" (PA) vs. Pro-Life (PL)

1) PA: A woman should be able to do what she wants with her own body – My Body, My choice.

PL: The baby (fetus) is not part of the mother's body. They are a separate human being with their own DNA.

2) PA: But a fetus isn't a human—it's just a lump of cells.

PL: Simple tissue doesn't have a beating heart or brain waves. 12 weeks after fertilization, every system of a child's body is in place and functioning.

3) PA: I wouldn't have one but I wouldn't take away someone else's right to have one.

PL: If the same reasoning applied to other areas of society what would the world look like? "I'm personally opposed to child abuse but I wouldn't take away someone else's right to beat their child."

4) PA: If abortion is legal, women won't die through unsafe, illegal abortions.

PL: Women still die in legal abortions. According to the CDC since it was legalized nearly 500 women have died in the U.S. alone.
