TODAY IS

WORLD MISSION SUNDAY

We celebrate this day by remembering our baptismal call – to bring the Gospel to all! The collection today for the Society for the Propagation of the Faith supports the work and witness of the Mission Church, as it provides for priests, religious and lay leaders who offer the Lord's mercy and concrete help to the most vulnerable communities in the Pope's missions. Thank you for your generosity.

PRAYER LIFE

October 24, 2021—30th Sunday in Ordinary Time

Isaiah 53:10-11; Psalms 33:4-5, 18-20, 22; Hebrews 4:14-16; Mark 10:35-45 or 10:42-45

"To fall in love with God is the greatest romance; to seek Him the greatest adventure; to find Him the greatest human achievement." These words of St. Augustine are timeless. Every human being would certainly profit with wisdom if they realized Who calls them and to Whom they belong. There is only one way to satisfy the deepest longing of the human heart and that is in relationship with our Creator. When we seek God with true sincerity of heart and God passes us along our way, we will cry out, "Jesus, Son of David, have pity on me!" We will instinctively know that it is only our Divine Master who can restore our sight and heal us. The blind man fell in love with Jesus, embarked upon this life-saving adventure to reach him and achieved a goal many have only remotely thought possible. This is mercy in action. No matter how far we stray or how blind we become God patiently waits to console us, guide us, and heal us. All we need to do is desire Him with all our heart.

First Reading: The prophet Jeremiah foreshadowed the joy that Israel would experience when the Lord delivers them from captivity in Babylon. What are some upcoming events you anticipate celebrating in the name of the Lord?

Second Reading: The author of Hebrews tells us that God glorified Christ by making him "high priest." What are some gifts that you have received from God?

Gospel Reading: Jesus heard and responded to the desperate pleas of the blind man, Bartimaeus. What worries or fears do you need to bring to the Lord? ©LPi

Adoration of the Blessed Sacrament

Friday, November 5
after the 8:00am Mass.

Come and pray three consecutive masses with us on Tuesday, November 2, All Souls Day, beginning at 8am here at St. Patrick Parish.

Why are three consecutive masses held on All Soul's Day?

Every day we pray for the deceased through Mass Intentions, lighting votive candles, praying the rosary, etc. One special way to pray for the deceased is practiced each year on November 2, All Souls Day with three consecutive masses.

In 1915, the pope, Supreme Pontiff Benedict XV extended the privilege to all priests to say 3 consecutive masses on All Souls Day. The first mass is applied for whomever the priest wishes, the second is applied for all the faithful departed and the third mass is applied to those who have died in war.

Mary Adoration Walk

On Sunday, October 31 immediately following the 10:30 mass, all are invited to walk around the block for the Mary Adoration Walk.

The Halloween Trunk or Treat will follow.

The Book of Remembrance: Remembering those who have died.

Loved ones who have died, especially this past year, will be remembered at masses during the month of November. The book will be put out for you to add a loved one's to the Book of Remembrance, or we can add their name/s by calling the Parish Office at 725-8381 x101or by sending their names to stpatmen@gmail.com.
