Welcome to the LaSalle Parishes!

We especially welcome all visitors to Mass and pray that you will be blessed through your participation at our liturgy today. In the Catholic Church the reception of Holy Communion is a mark of formal union with the Church. Catholics who are disposed and who have prepared themselves through regular sacramental confession, prayer, and fasting are permitted to present themselves for Communion. We encourage our other guests to use this time to make a spiritual communion in their heart and to join us in our prayers and hymns. Please feel free to ask questions before or after the Mass. We are glad to talk and pray with you!

New Year. New You. Be Renewed in Christ!

Make a New Year's resolution that will truly transform every area of your life. We are inviting every parish family to make a commitment to one hour of Eucharistic Adoration per week. Prayer and adoration of Jesus Christ, as He is truly present before us in the Blessed Sacrament, is available on Wednesday and Thursday every week at Queen of the Holy Rosary Memorial Shrine.

The night that Jesus gave his Apostles the Eucharist for the first time, he asked them: “Could you not stay awake with me even for an hour! Watch and pray!” Jesus invites us to pray with him, and there is no better place to do this than in the presence of the Sacrament of his Love. An hour of prayer spent before the Lord in the Eucharist is called a Holy Hour because it is spent with Christ, the One who alone is holy.

When we commit to a Holy Hour, we make a weekly appointment with the King of Heaven. Imagine what it would look like in your calendar to see in and among the doctor's appointment, the volleyball game, the oil change an appointment with God!

An hour is a short amount of time to spend on a shopping trip or at the movies. Yet, it might seem like a lot of time to spend in prayer. We might be intimidated by that amount of silent time before the Lord wondering, “What am I supposed to do?” Fortunately, the answer couldn't be simpler!

We don't have to do anything. This is about a relationship; it is about being, not doing. We simply need to be present, be faithful, and be open to the Lord - for it is Jesus himself who will teach us how to pray. The hour can be spent silently as the Lord softens, calms, and heals our hearts with his presence.

Other times, we might find ourselves drawn to holy reading in Sacred Scriptures or other spiritual books. We might meditate using other devotional prayers such as the Rosary, the Stations of the Cross, the Chaplet of Divine Mercy. Maybe our prayer is written in a prayer journal or spoken from our hearts. In the vestibule of Holy Rosary Shrine, you will find a growing collection of books and resources that you can use during your hour. Ask the Holy Spirit to guide you.

Sometimes it's hard to make time for the most important things. Greatness doesn't usually come easy. Committing to a Holy Hour frees us from temptation not to pray when we are weak. It helps us develop the habit or virtue of prayer. With that said, sometimes we won't always be able to make our scheduled hour. That's okay. Maybe we can pick an hour with a friend who can help us out when we need to be away. At the parish, we try to make sure each hour is shared by a number of people so there is always someone before the Lord during the period of adoration.

Archbishop Fulton Sheen made a Holy Hour before the Blessed Sacrament each day of his priesthood. When asked why, he responded: “We become like that which we gaze upon. Looking into a sunset, the face takes on a golden glow. Looking at the Eucharistic Lord for an hour transforms the heart.”

Midweek Eucharistic Adoration is available at Holy Rosary shrine on Wednesday and Thursday. Everyone is welcome to come pray during those times, but please consider becoming an official adorer for an hour. It is those who commit to an hour that allow us to keep Adoration available in our community.

Please contact the parish office with any questions regarding adoration and to sign up for your regular weekly appointment with the Lord! (815-223-0641)

Monstrance at Holy

Y el que está sentado en el trono dijo, “He aquí, yo hago nuevas todas las cosas.”

Año nuevo. Vida Nueva. ¡Renuevate en Cristo!

Haga una resolución de Año Nuevo que realmente transformará cada área de su vida. Invitamos a cada familia de la parroquia a comprometerse con una hora de Adoración Eucarística por semana. La oración y la adoración de Jesucristo es muy importante, ya que Él está verdaderamente presente ante nosotros en el Santísimo Sacramento, está disponible los miércoles y jueves todas las semanas en el Santuario de la Reina del Santuario del Rosario.

La noche en que Jesús dio a sus Apóstoles la Eucaristía por primera vez, les preguntó: “¿No podrían permanecer despiertos conmigo ni siquiera por una hora! ¡Mire y ore! Jesús nos invita a orar con él, y no hay mejor lugar para esto que en la presencia del Sacramento de su Amor. Una hora de oración dedicada al Señor en la Eucaristía se llama Hora Santa porque se pasa con Cristo, el Único que es santo.

Cuando nos comprometemos con una Hora Santa, hacemos una cita semanal con el Rey del Cielo. ¡Imagínese cómo se vería en su calendario ver la cita médica, el juego de voleibol, el cambio de aceite, una cita con Dios!

Una hora parece muy corta de tiempo para un viaje de compras o en el cine. Sin embargo, puede parecer mucho tiempo para pasar en oración. Podríamos sentirnos intimidados por esa cantidad de tiempo de silencio delante del Señor; preguntándose, “¿qué se supone que debo hacer?” Afortunadamente, ¡la respuesta no podría ser más simple!

No tenemos que hacer nada. Se trata de una relación, se trata de ser, no de hacer. Simplemente necesitamos estar presentes, ser fieles y estar abiertos al Señor, porque es el mismo Jesús el que nos enseñará a orar.

La hora se puede pasar en silencio mientras el Señor suaviza, calma y sana nuestros corazones con su presencia.

Otras veces, podríamos encontrarnos atraídos por la lectura sagrada en las Sagradas Escrituras u otros libros espirituales. Podríamos meditar utilizando otras oraciones devocionales como el Rosario, las Estaciones de la Cruz, la Coronilla de la Divina Misericordia. Tal vez nuestra oración está escrita en un diario de oración o pronunciada desde nuestros corazones. En el vestíbulo del Santuario, encontrarás una creciente colección de libros y recursos que puede usar durante su hora. Pídele al Espíritu Santo que te guíe.

A veces es difícil hacer tiempo para las cosas más importantes. La grandeza no suele ser fácil. Comprometerse con una Hora Santa nos libera de la tentación de no orar cuando somos débiles. Nos ayuda a desarrollar el hábito o la virtud de la oración. Dicho esto, a veces no siempre podremos hacer nuestra hora programada. Esta bien. Tal vez podamos elegir una hora con un amigo que nos pueda ayudar cuando necesitemos estar ausentes. En la parroquia, tratamos de asegurarnos de que cada hora sea compartida por varias personas, de modo que siempre haya alguien delante del Señor durante el período de adoración.

El arzobispo Fulton Sheen hacía una Hora Santa ante el Santísimo Sacramento cada día de su sacerdocio. Cuando se le preguntó por qué respondió: “Nos volvemos como eso que contemplamos. Mirando hacia un atardecer, la cara adquiere un brillo dorado. Mirar al Señor Eucarístico por una hora transforma el corazón”.

¡Comuníquese a la oficina parroquial si tiene preguntas sobre la adoración y regístrese para su cita semanal regular con el Señor! (815-223-0641)

Nativity Play/Pastorela

Pastorelas are plays that recreate the biblical passage where the shepherds follow the Star of Bethlehem to find the Christ Child.

In order to reach the birth place of the Redeemer, they have to experience a series of changes in fortune and confront the Devil, who will do everything possible to prevent them from completing their mission. It is at that moment that the Archangel Michael intervenes to defend the shepherds on their journey.

The play on December 23rd organized by the Hispanic community included praying the Rosary, singing Christmas carols, breaking piñatas, and enjoying great food!

Baptism and First Communion

Sofia Robles received the sacrament of Baptism, and Alexis Robles received the Sacrament of First Holy Communion at St. Patrick Church on December 19, 2021. They are the daughters of Oscar Robles and Eva Saucedo. Congratulations to Sophia and Alexis!
