

EASTER SUNDAY

The women who had come from Galilee with Jesus took the spices they had prepared and went to the tomb. They found the stone rolled away from the tomb; but when they entered, they did not find the body of the Lord Jesus.

EASTER SUNDAY

Alleluia, Christ is risen. As we celebrate Easter Sunday, we recall the words of St. Augustine, and we make them our own: "Sing Alleluia, not only with your lips, but with your life." This means that our way of living should also "rise with Christ." We have to live a new life, a life of the resurrection.

As Jesus told the women, He now tells us today "Do not be afraid, go and tell my brothers..." (Matthew 28:10), in other words, Jesus commands us to go and proclaim the resurrection to the others and to the world with our lives.

DIVINE MERCY SUNDAY: THE SUNDAY AFTER EASTER

According to the records, the third longest ruling pope was Blessed John Paul II. He was pope from 1978–2005: 26 years, 5 months and 18 days (9,665 days). Saint Peter is the longest reigning pope. He ruled the church for 36 years (AD 29 – 64? /67?), but the exact length is not reliably known. Then, the second longest was Pope Pius IX (1846–1878): 31 years, 7 months and 23 days (11,560 days). The Shortest-reigning pope was Urban VII (15–27 September 1590): reigned for 13 calendar days, and died before his coronation.

During his pontificate, John Paul II visited ALL the continents on the globe, making 104 trips outside Italy. John Paul II canonized more saints than all other popes combined. He established the Luminous Mysteries of the rosary and in 2000 officially established the Sunday following Easter to be the DIVINE MERCY SUNDAY. He was a great devotee and promoter of the rosary and devotion to the Blessed Virgin Mary.

To observe the Feast of Divine Mercy Sunday, we should do the following: (1) Celebrate the Feast on the Sunday after Easter; (2) Sincerely repent of all our sins; (3) Place our complete trust in Jesus; (4) Go to Confession, preferably before that Sunday (if not possible, then on the very day or following days); (5) Receive Holy Communion on the Feast day; (6) Venerate the image of Jesus of Divine Mercy (that is to make some gesture of a deep religious respect) of the Divine Mercy; and (7) Be merciful to others. In addition to these seven points, then to pray for the intentions of the pope by saying the Creed, Our Father, Hail Mary and Glory be...

Doing the above, one obtains an indulgence for oneself, or for others that you may intend to be beneficiaries of this, or for the souls in Purgatory. An indulgence is the remission in the eyes of God, of the temporal punishment due to sins whose culpable element has already been taken away. In order to obtain the indulgence, the person MUST be in a state of grace at least at the time the prescribed works are completed.

STEWARDSHIP CORNER

When the topic of stewardship comes up, most people think of only one area: money. But from a biblical point of view, stewardship is all-inclusive. It touches every area of life, including our time and talent as well as our treasure.

Just recently, a group of men from our Parish attended the annual Esto Vir conference at the National Shrine of Our Lady of Good Help. Esto Vir (translated Be a man). One of the items covered very positively at the conference related to stewardship. It was a message of sharing of your time and talents. It was stated “if you don’t share these with others, especially with your family, you are not using your gifts for the purpose God has given them to you.” So for all of us, men and women, the challenge is to share the gifts of the Holy Spirit with our families including our parish family through stewardship.
