Parish News and Words from Our Pastor

Noticias parroquiales y Mensaje de Nuestro Párroco

by Fr. Bart Timmerman

Third Sunday of Ordinary Time and MLK Day 2022

This past Monday we observed Martin Luther King, Jr. Day, 2022. Archbishop Gomez, President of the United States Conference of Catholic Bishops released a statement for this observance:

"We recall once again this year the witness and legacy of Rev. Dr. Martin Luther King, Jr. Let us remember not only the justice that he pursued, but how he pursued it. Rev. King was driven by the biblical vision of righteousness and truth, a vision that he understood to be reflected in our nation's founding documents. He believed in what he called the "American creed," the belief expressed by our founders that all men and women are created equal and endowed by God with a sacred dignity and undeniable rights to life, liberty, and equality.

More than a half-century after his death, America faces many challenges — this ongoing pandemic, issues of economic inequality and racial discrimination, violence in our communities, the struggle to welcome immigrants and refugees. In recent years, our nation has also become more polarized and our divisions angrier.

As we look to our future, let us continue to draw from Rev. King's wisdom, especially his commitment to the Beatitudes of Jesus, and the principles of nonviolence and love for our enemies.

In his Letter from a Birmingham Jail, Rev. King reminds us that we are brothers and sisters, part of a beautiful web of relationships of mutual care, each of us depending on others as others depend on us. "Injustice anywhere is a threat to justice everywhere," he wrote. "We are ... tied in a single garment of destiny. Whatever affects one directly, affects all indirectly."

Let us go forward in that same spirit of fraternity and solidarity, and let us carry on his work for equality and justice. As we remember Rev. King, let us continue to learn from him and imitate his example and prophetic witness."

Safe Seating in the Social Hall

If you would like to attend Mass but are concerned about COVID, extra seating is available in the Social Hall. The Mass will be live-streamed, and communion will be offered. Masks are still required!

Tercer Domingo del Tiempo Ordinario y Celebración del Día de Martin Luther King, Jr. 2022

Este pasado lunes celebramos el día de Martin Luther King, Jr. El Arzobispo Gómez, presidente de la Conferencia de Obispos Católicos de los Estados Unidos emitió una declaración con motivo de esta ocasión:

Recordamos una vez más este año el testimonio y el legado del Rev. Dr. Martin Luther King, Jr. Recordemos no solo la justicia que persiguió, sino cómo la persiguió.

El Rev. King fue inspirado en la visión bíblica de la justicia y la verdad, una visión que él entendió estaba reflejada en los documentos constitutivos de nuestra nación. Creía en lo que llamó el "credo estadounidense", la creencia expresada por nuestros fundadores que consiste en que todos los hombres y mujeres son creados iguales, y que Dios los dotó de una dignidad sagrada y derechos innegables a la vida, la libertad y la igualdad.

Más de medio siglo después de su muerte, Estados Unidos enfrenta muchos desafíos: la actual pandemia, los problemas de desigualdad económica y discriminación racial, la violencia en nuestras comunidades y la lucha por recibir dignamente a inmigrantes y refugiados. En los últimos años, nuestra nación también se ha vuelto más polarizada y nuestras divisiones más radicales.

Mientras miramos hacia nuestro futuro, sigamos aprovechando la sabiduría del Rev. King, especialmente su compromiso con las Bienaventuranzas de Jesús y los principios de la antiviolencia y el amor por nuestros enemigos.

En su Carta desde la cárcel de Birmingham (Letter from a Birmingham Jail), el Rev. King nos recuerda que somos hermanos y hermanas, parte de una hermosa red de relaciones de cuidado mutuo, cada uno dependiendo de los demás como los demás dependen de nosotros. "La injusticia en cualquier lugar es una amenaza para la justicia en todas partes", escribió. "Estamos... atados en una sola prenda de destino. Lo que afecta a uno directamente, afecta a todos indirectamente".

Avancemos con ese mismo espíritu de fraternidad y solidaridad, y llevemos adelante su obra por la igualdad y la justicia. Mientras recordamos al Rev. King, sigamos aprendiendo de él e imitando su ejemplo y testimonio profético.

Asientos Adicionales en el Salón Social

Si le gustaría asistir a una de nuestras Misa pero está preocupado por el Covid-19, tenemos asientos adicionales en el Salón Social. La Misa será transmitida en vivo, a través de una pantalla y la Comunión será ofrecida. Mascarillas requeridas!

Continuemos rezando los unos por los otros y por nuestra querida familia parroquial de Santo Tomás de Aquino. Gracias por todo lo que hacen para apoyar nuestra misión de amar a Dios, amar a los demás y hacer discípulos!

One of the most famous members of the Dominican Order, St. Thomas Aquinas (1225 – 1274) is well-known by many for his theological work, "The Summa Theologiae." Born in Italy, his mother wanted him to become a Benedictine and had high hopes that he would eventually become abbot of Monte Cassino, where he spent much of his youth. To change his vocation, she had him kidnapped by his brothers on his way to Paris at the age of 19. He spent two years in their captivity. Despite this, nothing could shake him from his vocation to become a Dominican priest and he was eventually released. Once free, he went to Paris and then to Cologne, where he finished his studies with Albert the Great.

His greatest contribution to the Catholic Church is his writings. The unity, harmony, and continuity of faith and reason, of revealed and natural human knowledge, encompasses his writings. The Summa Theologiae, his last and, unfortunately, uncompleted work, deals with the whole of Catholic theology.

The patron saint of teachers, theologians and students, St. Thomas Aquinas died in 1274. His life and the impact he had on the whole Church, however, remains alive today.

Day of Prayer for the Legal Protection of Unborn Children

Día de Oración por la Protección Legal de los Niños por Nacer

by Fr. Bart Timmerman

January 22nd is the Day of Prayer for the Legal Protection of Unborn Children. Encouraged by the oral arguments before the U.S. Supreme Court in the Mississippi abortion case, Dobbs v. Jackson Women's Health Organization, yet in somber recognition of the over 62 million lives lost to abortion in Catholic dioceses in the U.S., January 22 is observed annually as a Day of Prayer for the Legal Protection of Unborn Children.

The Catholic Church stands emphatically and unreservedly for the rights of the unborn. We look forward with the hope that God will soon bring our nation to a profound awareness of the dignity of human life and a recognition that all lives deserve protection under the law. Even while we recommit to highlighting the great good in embracing life so that abortion is unthinkable, may the Lord continually renew our collective passion to advocate for the protection of unborn children from harm.

We thank our STA Respect Life Committee and their leadership in helping our parish promote the dignity of human life from conception to natural death and continue to work together to protect the unborn.

22 de Enero es el Día de Oración por la Protección Legal de los Niños por Nacer . Motivados por los argumentos orales ante la Corte Suprema de los Estados Unidos en el caso sobre acceso al aborto, Dobbs v. Jackson Women's Health Organization, y en un sobrio reconocimiento a las mas de 62 millones de vidas que se han perdido por el aborto, en las Diócesis Católicas en los Estados Unidos se observa anualmente el 22 de Enero como el Día de Oración por la Protección Legal del los Niños por Nacer.

La Iglesia Católica defiende enfáticamente y sin reservaciones los derechos de los niños por nacer. Miramos hacia el futuro con la esperanza que Dios pronto traerá una sensibilización profunda sobre la dignidad de la vida humana y el reconocimiento que todas las vidas merecen protección ante la ley. Y mientras nos volvemos a comprometer en resaltar lo grandioso que es abrazarse a la vida para que el aborto sea algo impensable, dejemos que el Señor renueve continuamente nuestra pasión colectiva para abogar por la protección de los niños por nacer y defenderlos de cualquier mal.

Le damos las gracias al Comité de Respeto de la Vida de STA y a su liderato por ayudar a nuestra parroquia a promover la dignidad de la vida humana desde la concepción hasta la muerte natural y continúan trabajando juntos para proteger a los niños por nacer.

Gospel Reflection/Reflexión del Evangelio

by Dcn. Jerome Buhman

Lk 1:1-4, 4:14-21

Welcome to Year C of the Sunday Gospel cycle. Although we began the new liturgical year back in November, because of the seasonal readings and various feasts, today is the day we get to hear the beginning of Luke's Gospel. We actually get to hear two "introductions" to the Gospel, because we hear a snippet from the very beginning, then we jump to chapter 4, where in a sense, we are introduced by Jesus to his ministry.

The first introduction is Luke writing to Theophilus, who could have been a real person, perhaps Luke's patron – or perhaps was a fictional person made up to be a stand-in for all of us (Theophilus in Greek means Lover of God). Luke then mentions that Jesus preached in Galilee but sets his first actual "scene" in Nazareth, Jesus' hometown. There, Jesus enters the synagogue, reads from the prophet Isaiah (who often prophesied about the coming Messiah) -- The Spirit of the Lord is upon me, because he has anointed me to bring glad tidings to the poor. He has sent me to proclaim liberty to captives and recovery of sight to the blind, to let the oppressed go free, and to proclaim a year acceptable to the Lord, and ends by saying that the passage is fulfilled. In a sense, this is a microcosm of Luke's Gospel: Jesus is the Anointed one sent by God to his own people; it contains Luke's particular emphasis on Christ's mission to the poor and oppressed, and clearly claims that Jesus is the Messiah.

This links back to my article for the Baptism of the Lord reflecting on our own baptisms. At baptism, we too are anointed like Christ was, to be "priest, prophet and king" in our lives in imitation of Him. Therefore, it is up to us to continue to work in His name to pursue the good works Isaiah speaks about in this reading.

I mentioned this reading is perhaps a microcosm of Luke's Gospel – but we are not done with this story yet. Next week we hear the continuation of this story – and it's a real cliff-hanger (almost literally).

Lc 1:1-4, 4:14-21

Bienvenido al año C del ciclo de evangelio de los domingos. Aunque comenzamos el nuevo año litúrgico en noviembre, debido a las lecturas de la temporada y a varias festividades, hoy es el día en el que escuchamos el comienzo del evangelio de Lucas. Realmente escuchamos dos "introducciones" al evangelio, porque escuchamos un fragmento del comienzo y después saltamos al capítulo 4, donde en cierto sentido, Jesús nos introduce a su ministerio.

La primera introducción es Lucas escribiéndole a Theophilus, quien pudo haber sido una persona real, quizás el patrón de Lucas, o quizás una persona ficticia creada para representarnos e incluirnos a todos (Theophilus en griego significa amante de Dios). Lucas después menciona que Jesús predicó en Galilea, pero realmente la primera "escena" es en Nazaret, el pueblo de Jesús. Allí, Jesús entra a la sinagoga, lee del profeta Isaías (quien frecuentemente profetizaba sobre la venida del Mesías) El Espíritu del Señor está sobre mí, porque me ha ungido para anunciar el evangelio a los pobres. Me ha enviado para proclamar libertad a los cautivos, y la recuperación de la vista a los ciegos; para poner en libertad a los oprimidos; para proclamar el año favorable del Señor, y termina diciendo que este pasaje ha sido cumplido. En cierto sentido, es el mensaje del evangelio de Lucas, es el "microcosm": Jesús es el escogido, el ungido por Dios para su propia gente; contiene el énfasis que Lucas da a la misión de Jesús hacia los pobres y oprimidos y claramente anuncia y proclama que Jesús es el Mesías.

Esto tiene conexión con mi artículo sobre el bautismo del Señor cuando reflexionamos sobre nuestros propios bautismos. Durante el bautizo, nosotros también somos elegidos y ungidos como Cristo fue, para ser "padre, profeta y rey" en nuestras vidas imitándolo a Él. Por lo tanto, depende de nosotros continuar trabajando en su nombre en la búsqueda de los buenos trabajos a los que Isaías se refiere en esta lectura.

Yo mencione que esta lectura es quizás un "microcosm" del evangelio de Lucas – pero no hemos terminado con esta historia todavía. La próxima semana escucharemos la continuación – y es realmente como estar en el borde de un barranco (casi literalmente).

Pope Francis's 2022 World Day of Peace Message

"All can work together to build a more peaceful world, starting from the hearts of individuals and relationships in the family, then within society and with the environment, and all the way up to relationships between peoples and nations." In his Message for the 55th Annual World Day of Peace celebration on New Year's Day, Pope Francis encourages us all to work toward a more peaceful world. His focus this year is to encourage greater dialogue between generations, bolster investment in educating our youth, and provide good jobs for all. We share a few quotes from the document which can be found on the Vatican website by searching for "Pope Francis 2022 World Day of Peace Message".

Generational Dialogue

"Dialogue entails listening to one another, sharing different views, coming to agreement and walking together. Promoting such dialogue between generations involves breaking up the hard and barren soil of conflict and indifference in order to sow the seeds of a lasting and shared peace... Young people need the wisdom and experience of the elderly, while those who are older need the support, affection, creativity and dynamism of the young."

Education

"...teaching and education are the foundations of a cohesive civil society capable of generating hope, prosperity and progress... It is high time...that governments develop economic policies aimed at inverting the proportion of public funds spent on education and on weaponry. The pursuit of a genuine process of international disarmament can only prove beneficial for the development of peoples and nations, freeing up financial resources better used for health care, schools, infrastructure, care of the land and so forth."

Labor

"Labour is an indispensable factor in building and keeping peace... Labour...is the foundation on which to build justice and solidarity in every community... We need to combine our ideas and efforts in order to create the solutions and conditions that can provide everyone of working age with the opportunity, through their work, to contribute to the lives of their families and of society as a whole... It is more urgent than ever to promote, throughout our world, decent and dignified working conditions, oriented to the common good and to the safeguarding of creation."

Lord God of peace, hear our prayer!

We have tried so many times and over so many years to resolve our conflicts by our own powers and by the force of our arms.

How many moments of hostility and darkness have we experienced;
how much blood has been shed;
how many lives have been shattered;
how many hopes have been buried...
But our efforts have been in vain...

Keep alive within us the flame of hope, so that with patience and perseverance we may opt for dialogue and reconciliation.

In this way may peace triumph at last,
and may the words "division", "hatred" and "war" be banished from the heart of every man and woman.

Lord, defuse the violence of our tongues and our hands.

Renew our hearts and minds, so that the word which always brings us together will be "brother", and our way of life will always be that of:
Shalom, Peace, Salaam!

Amen.

¡Señor Dios de Paz, escucha nuestras oraciones!

Hemos tratado muchas veces y por mucho tiempo de resolver nuestros conflictos por medio de nuestros propios medios y con la fuerza de nuestros brazos.

Cuantos momentos de hostilidad y oscuridad hemos experimentado;
cuanta sangre ha sido derramada;
cuantas vidas hemos perdido;
cuantas esperanzas han sido enterradas..
pero nuestros esfuerzos han sido en vano.

Mantén vivo en nosotros la llama de esperanza, que con paciencia y perseverancia nosotros optemos por dialogo y reconciliación.

Que de esta manera triunfe la paz,
y que las palabras "división" "odio" y "guerra" sean erradicadas de los corazones de cada hombre y mujer.

Señor, remueva la violencia de nuestras palabras y de nuestras manos.

Renueva nuestros corazones y nuestras mentes, para que la palabra que siempre nos une se "hermano",
y que nuestra forma de vivir siempre sea:
Shalom, Peace, Salaam!

Amen

--Excerpts from Pope Francis's Prayer for Peace found on the USCCB website

Mensaje de Papa Francisco en el Dia Mundial de la Paz

“Todos pueden trabajar juntos para construir un mundo de paz, comenzando con los corazones de los individuos y relaciones en familia, después con la sociedad y el ambiente, y seguir ascendiendo hasta relaciones entre poblaciones y naciones.” En su mensaje de la celebración anual del 55 Dia Mundial de la Paz, en el día del Año Nuevo, Papa Francisco nos motiva a todos a trabajar hacia un mundo de paz. Su foco este año es motivar más diálogos entre generaciones, reforzar e invertir en la educación de nuestros jóvenes, y proveer buenos trabajos para todos. Compartimos algunas citas de este documento que puede ser encontrado en la pagina web del vaticano, buscando “Pope Francis 2022 World Day of Peace Message.”

Dialogo entre generaciones

Dialogo implica escuchar a cada uno, compartir diferentes puntos de vista, llegar a un acuerdo y caminar juntos. Promover este tipo de dialogo entre generaciones requiere romper suelos duros y estériles de conflicto e indiferencias para sembrar semillas de paz compartida y duradera... Gente joven necesita la sabiduría y experiencia de los ancianos, mientras que los de más edad necesitan el apoyo, afección, creatividad y dinamismo de la gente joven.

Educación

“... Enseñar y educación son las bases de una sociedad civil cohesiva y capaz de generar esperanza, prosperidad y progreso...Es tiempo alto...que gobiernos desarrollen políticas económicas enfocadas para invertir la proporción de fondos públicos usados en educación y en armas. La búsqueda de un proceso genuino de desarmamiento internacional puede solo probar beneficios para el desarrollo de gente y naciones, liberando recursos financieros para ser usados mejor en salud, educación, infraestructura, cuidado de la tierra y demás.”

Trabajo

“Trabajo es un factor indispensable en construir y mantener paz... trabajo...es la base para construir justicia y solidaridad en cada comunidad...necesitamos combinar nuestras ideas y esfuerzos para crear las soluciones y condiciones que puedan proveer a todos con edad para trabajar la oportunidad, por medio de su trabajo, a contribuir a las vidas de sus familiares y de la sociedad...es más urgente ahora que nunca promover, en todo el mundo, condiciones de trabajo decentes y dignas orientadas al bien general y a conservar y cuidar la creación.”

A Prayer to St. Joseph, Defender of Life

Dear Joseph,

at the word of an angel,

you lovingly took Mary into your home.

As God's humble servant, you guided the Holy Family on the road to Bethlehem, welcomed Jesus as your own son

in the shelter of a manger, and fled far from your homeland

for the safety of both Mother and Child.

We praise God that as their faithful protector, you never hesitated to sacrifice for those entrusted to you.

May your example inspire us also to welcome, cherish, and safeguard God's most precious gift of life.

Help us to faithfully commit ourselves to the service and defense of human life —especially where it is vulnerable or threatened.

Obtain for us the grace to do the will of God in all things.
Amen.

Oración a San José. Defensor de Vida

Querido José,

Con la palabra de un ángel,

Tu amorosamente tomaste a María en tu hogar.

Como humilde servidor de Dios, tu guiaste
La Familia Sagrada en el camino a Belén,

Recibiste a Jesús como tu propio hijo

Bajo el amparo de un pesebre,

Y huiste de tu tierra

Para proteger a los dos, madre e hijo.

Nosotros alabamos a Dios para que tu como su fiel protector, nunca dudes de tomar sacrificios para proteger aquellos que han sido puestos bajo tu confianza.

Que tu ejemplo también nos inspire

A dar la bienvenida, a apreciar y a proteger
El regalo más precioso de Dios, la vida.

Ayúdanos a comprometernos fielmente al servicio y defensa de la vida humana, especialmente donde es vulnerable y amenazada.

Obtén para nosotros la gracia de hacer la voluntad de Dios en todas las cosas.

Amen.

Afghan Refugee Update

Good news from Shawn Carney, Executive Director of Madison Catholic Charities, regarding the Afghan refugee community housed at Ft. McCoy. On a call last week, the ground team at Ft. McCoy said they expect all refugees to be permanently housed by 2/15, or the end of February at the latest. This matches the military's timetable and certainly exceeded the expectations of the USCCB team. Catholic Charities of LaCrosse has posted a thank-you message and has asked anyone wishing to donate to redirect those donations elsewhere.

Actualización del Refugio Afganistán

Shawn Carney, Director Ejecutivo de las Caridades Católicas de Madison, nos comparte buenas noticias sobre la comunidad afganistán refugiada en Ft. McCoy. En una llamada la semana pasada el equipo de Ft. McCoy comunicó que todos los refugiados serán permanentemente ubicados para Febrero 15 a más tardar. Este logro cumple con las expectativas militares y ciertamente sobrepasa las expectativas del equipo de USCCB. Caridades Católicas de LaCrosse ha publicado un mensaje de agradecimiento y anuncia que cualquier donación puede hacerse a otra parte.
