Parish News and Words from Our Pastor

Noticias parroquiales y Mensaje de Nuestro Párroco

by Fr. Bart Timmerman

Third Sunday of Lent

We are strongly encouraged to repent from our sins in the Scriptures proclaimed this Sunday. Psalm 103 reminds us that “The Lord is kind and merciful!” For Catholics, the best way to repent of our sins is by making a good confession. I invite all of our faithful to experience the healing mercy of Jesus in the Sacrament of Reconciliation. If you cannot make it to one of our scheduled times, then please email me to make an appointment: fr.bart@stamadison.org.

National Catholic Sisters Week March 8-14, 2022

The theme this year for National Sisters Week was, “Celebrating Traditions, Changing the World.” This shines light on the spirituality, mission, and community building of women religious. Fifty-two weeks a year women religious stand with the poor and immigrants, teach children, fight injustice, heal the sick, share spirituality, empower women, defend the planet, promote peace, create community, offer hope ...But for one week, March 8-14, we shine the spotlight on women religious and encourage a wide range of campaigns and events that invite all who follow Jesus to:

- expand and support their gospel witness
- grow the service networks they have seeded
- share their spirituality, charisms, and community
- encourage young women to consider a vocation to religious life (If interested in religious life, please contact me at 833-2600 or Theresa Klinkhammer at theresa.klinkhammer@gmail.com.)
- support their pastoral, teaching and prophetic works and focus on the new world they call into being

We remember in our prayers all of the religious women who have offered their lives in service to our Church. We appreciate their leadership and contribution to building up God’s kingdom. May they continue in their mission with courage!

Tercer Domingo de Cuaresma

Las escrituras de este domingo nos animan fuertemente a arrepentirnos de nuestros pecados. Salmo 103 nos recuerda que “El Señor es amable y piadoso” Para los católicos, la mejor manera de arrepentirnos de nuestros pecados es haciendo una buena confesión. Yo invito a todos los feligreses a experimentar la sanación de la misericordia de Jesús en el sacramento de la Reconciliación. Si usted no puede asistir a uno de nuestros tiempos programados, entonces envíeme un email para hacer una cita: fr.bart@stamadison.org

Semana Nacional de Hermanas Católicas Marzo 8 – 14, 2022

El tema este año para la semana nacional de hermanas católicas es, “Celebrando tradiciones, cambiando el mundo”. Esta semana brilla luz en la espiritualidad, misión y comunidad de mujeres religiosas. Cincuenta y dos semanas del año las mujeres religiosas apoyan a los pobres e inmigrantes, enseñan a los niños, luchan en contra de injusticias, curan a los enfermos, comparten espiritualidad, empoderan a mujeres, defienden el planeta, promueven paz, crean comunidad, ofrecen esperanza...pero por una semana, marzo 8 – 14, nosotros damos el foco en las mujeres religiosas y motivamos una variedad de campañas y eventos que invitan a todos a seguir a Jesús a:

- Ampliar y apoyar los testigos del evangelio
- Crecer el servicio a otros grupos donde han sido plantadas semillas
- Compartir espiritualidad, carisma y comunidad
- Animar mujeres jóvenes a considerar la vocación a la vida religiosa (Si estas interesado/a en la vida religiosa, por favor contactame al 608-833-2600 o a Theresa Klinkhammer a theresa.klinkhammer@gmail.com.)
- Apoyar su trabajo pastoral, sus enseñanzas, y trabajos proféticos. Enfocarse en el nuevo mundo al que han sido llamadas

Nosotros recordamos en nuestras oraciones a todas las mujeres religiosas que han ofrecido sus vidas en el servicio a la iglesia. Nosotros apreciamos su liderazgo y contribución para construir el reino de Dios. ¡Que sigan ellas su misión con valor!

Focusing on Lent

Care for Creation during Lent

Carbon Fast for Lent

Our Care for Creation Team offers a couple of resources that you may glean from as you prepare for your Lenten journey. The “Carbon Fast for Lent” calendar prepared by the UK School Sisters of Notre Dame in 2021 provides daily opportunities to act on our commitment of caring for God’s gift of creation.

3/20-Reflect and ask yourself, “What does it mean to be a guardian of creation?” How can you take actions in the long term to rise to that role?

3/21-Consider making a donation to help farmers living in poverty to farm more sustainably. Check out the JustGiving page: www.justgiving.com/fundraising/penny-evans5

3/22-Allow yourself to wonder at the abundant, diverse and beautiful creatures in the world, even in your garden if you have one. Create a habitat to encourage insects. Simple bug box ideas abound on the internet, <https://supersimple.com/article/bug-hotel/>.

3/23-In Genesis, Adam is formed “from the dust of the ground.” Human beings and the earth are closely linked. We are an integral part of the community of creation. Make a list of actions you could take to make your garden more attractive to wildlife.

3/24-However light and sunny it is today, take a walk. Think about how you could make more sustainable travel choices in the future—less flying, less driving, more cycling, more public transport.

3/25-Capture your joy in creation. Start a daily or weekly diary to reflect on how the natural world strengthens your spirit. What steps could you take to strengthen that bond with nature?

Spend more time with Jesus this Lent.

PREPARE

- ◆ Begin with the sign of the cross.
- ◆ Take a moment to be quiet and still.
- ◆ Ask the Holy Spirit to guide you in this prayer time.

READ

- ◆ Read a Scripture selection slowly and attentively.
- ◆ Note any word, phrase, or image that catches your attention.
- ◆ Consider reading more than once, and/or out loud.

REFLECT

- ◆ Think about the meaning of whatever caught your attention.
- ◆ Possibly imagine yourself in the scene.
- ◆ What is the Lord saying to you through this text?

RESPOND

- ◆ Talk to God about the passage or anything else on your heart.
- ◆ Thank God for blessings received; ask Him for what you and others need.
- ◆ Note any changes or actions you are drawn to live out.

REST

- ◆ Spend a few minutes in restful silence with God.
- ◆ “Be still and know that I am God.” (Psalm 46:11)

TCDSB Prayer for Peace

(adapted from: Pope JPII's Prayer for Peace, 2001)

God of infinite mercy and goodness, with grateful hearts we pray to you today for peace. You offer us your peace continually (Jn.14:27) and constantly remind us that peacemakers are blessed, "for they shall be called children of God" (Mt.5:9). May your voice resound in the hearts of all, as you call us to follow the path of reconciliation and peace, and to be merciful as you are merciful.

We pray to you for the people of Ukraine who are experiencing conflicts and deaths. Bless the leaders with wisdom, vision and perseverance needed to build together a world of justice and solidarity, and to break down walls of hostility and division.

To you we entrust all families and pray that they may never yield to discouragement and despair, but become heralds of new hope to one another in this challenging time.

May you continue to inspire all of us to oneness of heart and mind, to work generously for the common good, to respect the dignity of every person and the fundamental rights which have their origin in the image and likeness of God impressed upon every human being.

Grant eternal rest to the dead and quick recovery to the wounded, we pray through Christ our Lord, Amen!

Let us now ask our mother Mary to intercede for the people of Ukraine by praying together: Hail Mary....

Lk 13:1-9

“If you do not repent, you will all perish.” Jesus uses this line twice in our Gospel today, speaking, not only to the crowd around him, but also to us. There are a couple of things to note in this short sentence. First, the word ‘repent.’ We sometimes use the words ‘repent’ and ‘regret’ somewhat interchangeably, but they are not quite the same in nuance. Regret is to feel sad, sorrowful or disappointed about something that has happened or has been done. The word ‘repent’ has those same feelings, but also adds the element of change. When we repent of our sins, it is not enough to be sorry – that would just be regret – we must also make that inward conversion toward God and make a change in the way we conduct our lives to try to sin no more. Second, is the word ‘perish.’ Notice Jesus does not say that God will punish us; he says we will perish. The word ‘perish,’ at its etymological root, means ‘to be lost.’ If we do not repent of our sins, we have wandered from God and are lost. Repentance is turning from our sins and finding God again. True repentance is a form of sacrifice, a way of making ourselves more holy. And the very end of our Gospel today gives us hope. In Jesus’ parable of the fig tree, the fig is not producing fruit, and yet the gardener argues for patience to give the tree time to bear fruit. God is patient with us as we struggle with sin and strive for repentance. So this Lent, let us cultivate the soil of our soils, so that they will bear fruit as we repent and turn to God.

Seven Sisters Apostolate

Did you know that there is a quiet, beautiful ministry of prayer at the parish, that specifically prays for an hour each day for Fr. Bart? For nearly three years, The Seven Sisters Apostolate, has prayed for Fr. Bart every day. We are seeking a few more women who would be willing to join in this ministry, either as substitutes for days others can't do their Holy Hour, or to take a specific day of the week.

Here are a couple comments from the “Sisters”:

- I feel closer to both Fr. Bart and to Jesus.
- It is beautiful. I have grown in my own prayer life and discipline because of this ministry.
- Quiet time is such a gift – to just sit and be with Jesus, to be still.

Mental Health Ministry: A Ministry of Accompaniment

March 22 from 9:30am-2pm

St. Thomas Aquinas Parish
602 Everglade Dr, Madison

People with mental health issues are often socially isolated and can even feel isolated from God. As parishes, and within our parish ministries, how can we help persons with mental health issues to experience the love of God and of their sisters and brothers in Christ? Deacon Tom Lambert, from the Archdiocese of Chicago, will talk about how to cultivate awareness, acceptance, and the skill of accompaniment so that we can walk with those struggling with mental health issues. During Lent, as we grow in holiness and recognize our own need for healing, let us be witnesses of God's love and agents of His healing for people with mental health issues within our parish and communities.

All are welcome. Thanks to the incredible generosity of the Diocesan Apostolate to Persons with Disabilities, there is no cost. RSVP by March 18th either online at <https://madisondiocese.org/mdreo> or by calling Jennifer Ludtke, Dir. of Evangelization and Outreach at St. Thomas Aquinas, at 608-833-2606.
