Parish News and Words from Our Pastor

by Fr. Bart Timmerman

Solemnity of the Most Holy Body and Blood of Christ

This Sunday's feast honors Jesus Christ, really, truly and substantially present under the appearances of bread and wine. This presence happens through the change which the Church calls transubstantiation (change of substance), when at the Consecration of the Mass, the priest says the words which Christ Himself pronounced over bread and wine, "This is My Body," "This is the chalice of My Blood," "Do this in remembrance of Me."

This Solemnity is important because the Eucharist is the "source and summit of the Christian life" (Second Vatican Council, Lumen gentium, no. 11). In the Eucharist, Jesus Himself re-presents for our benefit His sacrifice on Calvary (Luke 22:19-20; 1 Cor. 11:26-29), gives Himself to us in Holy Communion (Exodus 16:4, 35; John 6:1-14, 48-51), and remains among us until the end of the age (Luke 24:13-35; Mt. 28:18-20). He comes to us in this humble form, making Himself vulnerable, out of love for each one of us. Yet, as God Himself, the Body and Blood of Christ deserves our utmost respect and love, as well as our adoration. St. Thomas Aquinas wrote this Hymn "Tantum Ergo," to honor Jesus in the Eucharist:

"Down in adoration falling, Lo! the sacred Host we hail;
Lo! o'er ancient forms departing, Newer rites of grace prevail;
Faith for all defects supplying, Where the feeble senses fail."

St. Francis of Assisi said, "...In this world I cannot see the Most High Son of God with my own eyes, except for His Most Holy Body and Blood."

Happy Father's Day!

We give thanks and praise to God for fathers, today, young and old as we celebrate Father's Day. We pray for young fathers, newly embracing their vocation. May they find courage and perseverance to balance work, family and faith in joy and sacrifice. We pray for our own Fathers who have done so much for us by the sacrifices they made for us and especially how they have helped us grow in our faith. We pray also for fathers around the world whose children are lost or suffering. May they know that the God of compassion walks with them in their sorrow.

We remember in prayer today also men who are not fathers but still mentor and guide us with fatherly love and advice.

In a special way we remember fathers, grandfathers, and great-grandfathers who are no longer with us but who live forever in our memory and nourish us with their love.

We thank all the men of our St. Thomas Aquinas Parish for all they have done and all that they continue to do for our parish family. Their example of faithfulness has helped us to grow into who we are today. Happy Father's Day!

Prayer to St. Joseph for Fathers

Saint Joseph, guardian of Jesus and chaste husband of Mary,
you passed your life in loving fulfillment of duty.

You supported the holy family of Nazareth with the work of your hands.

Kindly protect those who trustingly come to you.

You know their aspirations,
their hardships, and their hopes.

They look to you because they know you will understand and protect them.

You too knew trial, labor and weariness.

But amid the worries of material life,
your soul was full of deep peace
and sang out in true joy through intimacy with God's Son entrusted to you and with Mary, his tender Mother.

Assure those you protect that they do not labor alone.

Teach them to find Jesus near them and to watch over Him faithfully
as you have done.

Pope John XXIII

Solemnidad del Santísimo Cuerpo y Sangre de Cristo

La fiesta de este domingo honra a Jesucristo, Real, Verdadera y Sustancialmente Presente bajo las apariencias de pan y vino. Esta Presencia se produce por el cambio que la Iglesia llama transustanciación (“cambio de sustancia”), cuando en la Consagración de la Misa el sacerdote pronuncia las palabras que el mismo Cristo pronunció sobre el pan y el vino: “Esto es Mi Cuerpo”, “Este es el cáliz de Mi Sangre”, “Haced esto en memoria de Mí”

Esta solemnidad es importante porque la Eucaristía es “fuente y cumbre de la vida cristiana” (Concilio Vaticano II, Lumen gentium, n. 11). En la Eucaristía, Jesús mismo re-presenta para nuestro beneficio Su Sacrificio en el Calvario (Lc 22, 19-20; 1 Cor 11, 26-29), se entrega a nosotros en la Sagrada Comunión (Éxodo 16, 4, 35; Jn 6,1-14, 48-51), y permanece entre nosotros hasta el fin de los tiempos (Lc 24,13-35; Mt 28,18-20). Él viene a nosotros en esta forma humilde, haciéndose vulnerable, por amor a cada uno de nosotros. Sin embargo, como Dios mismo, el Cuerpo y la Sangre de Cristo merecen nuestro mayor respeto y amor, así como nuestra adoración.

Santo Tomás de Aquino escribió este Himno “Tantum Ergo”, para honrar a Jesús en la Eucaristía:

“A tan alto Sacramento veneremos reverentes y el antiguo orden litúrgico ceda el paso al nuevo Rito. La fe añada lo que falta al defecto de los sentidos.”

San Francisco de Asís dijo: "... En este mundo no puedo ver al Hijo Altísimo de Dios con mis propios ojos, excepto Su Santísimo Cuerpo y Sangre".

¡Feliz Día de los Padres!

Damos gracias y alabamos a Dios por los padres jóvenes y mayores mientras celebramos el Día del Padre. Oramos por los padres jóvenes, que abrazan nuevamente su vocación para que encuentren valor y perseverancia y así equilibrar el trabajo, la familia y la fe en la alegría y el sacrificio. Oramos por nuestros propios Padres que han hecho tanto por nosotros, por los sacrificios que hicieron por nosotros y especialmente por cómo nos han ayudado a crecer en nuestra fe. Oramos también por los padres de todo el mundo cuyos hijos están perdidos o sufren; Que sepan que el Dios de compasión camina con ellos en su dolor.

Recordamos en la oración de hoy también a los hombres que no son padres pero que aún así nos guían con amor y consejo paternal.

De manera especial recordamos a los padres, abuelos y bisabuelos que ya no están con nosotros pero que viven para siempre en nuestra memoria y nos nutren con su amor.

Agradecemos a todos los hombres de nuestra Parroquia Santo Tomás de Aquino por todo lo que han hecho y todo lo que continúan haciendo por nuestra familia parroquial. Su ejemplo de fidelidad nos ha ayudado a crecer en lo que somos hoy: ¡Feliz Día de los Padres!

Oración a San José por los Padres

San José, custodio de Jesús
y casto esposo de María, pasaste tu vida en amoroso cumplimiento del deber.

Tú sustentaste a la sagrada familia de Nazaret con el trabajo de tus manos.

Amablemente protege a aquellos que confiadamente vienen a ti.

Conoces sus aspiraciones, sus dificultades, sus esperanzas.

Te miran porque saben que los comprenderás
y protegerás.

Tú también conociste la prueba,
el trabajo y el cansancio.

Pero en medio de las preocupaciones
de la vida material vuestra alma estaba llena de profunda paz y cantaba con verdadera alegría por la intimidad con el Hijo de Dios que os ha sido confiado y con María, su tierna Madre.

Asegúrales a aquellos a quienes proteges que no trabajan solos.

Enséñales a encontrar a Jesús cerca de ellos
y a velar por él fielmente como tú lo has hecho.

Papa Juan XXIII

Gospel Reflection

by Dcn. Jerome Buhman

The Most Holy Body & Blood of Christ

Today is the Solemnity of the Most Holy Body and Blood of Christ and a key day in the launch of the National Eucharistic Revival by the United States Catholic Bishops. One of the major themes of the revival is to underscore the real presence of Christ in the Eucharist. Belief in the real presence means that we believe that at the Eucharist, the bread and wine become the body and blood of Christ. It is a mystery how this happens, but, in faith, we do believe it. While we cannot understand it fully, we do try to explain it through the process of transubstantiation. Using terminology from philosophy, we can describe things as having both substance and accidents. Accidents are those things we can perceive with the senses – touch, taste, smell, etc. Substance is that eternally existing of something in and of itself. In rough terms, think of a dog – its accidents would be whether it is big or small, long-haired or short, fuzzy or bristly, smelly or odor-free; its substance would be its dog-ness which makes it, well, a dog. So, in transubstantiation, we believe that in the bread and wine at the Eucharist, the accidents remain the same – the sight, smell, taste and feel of bread and wine; however, the substance changes – no longer bread and wine but the body and blood of Christ.

Peace & Justice Summer Reading

“The Warmth of Other Suns”

In their Pastoral Letter Against Racism, “Open Wide Our Hearts”, the USCCB prays “that the reader will join us in striving for the end of racism in all its forms...For there is no place for racism in the heart of any person: it is a perversion of the Lord’s will for men and women, all of whom were made in God’s image and likeness.”

To better understand the history of racism in our country, consider reading some books on the topic this summer. Parishioner John Heim recommends Isabel Wilkerson’s first book, The Warmth of Other Suns, as eye-opening, insightful and enlightening. He was astonished that he, growing up in Madison, was so oblivious to the subtle and systemic racism that Blacks faced upon migrating to the North.

Read Wikipedia’s review at:

https://en.wikipedia.org/wiki/The_Warmth_of_Other_Suns

The Justice and Peace Committee recommends reading this or another book on Black history this summer. Share with others how it inspired you and pray for an end to racism. If you would like to give us your thoughts on a book you read and how it opened your eyes to the sin of racism, contact Trudi Jenny at trudijenny@yahoo.com.
