¡Felix 4 de Julio!

by Fr. Bart Timmerman

14th Sunday of Ordinary Time

This week we learn more about what it means to be a disciple of Christ. Jesus sends out his followers to all of the towns he intends to visit on His way to Jerusalem and tells them to bring good news about the harvest, referring to both the crop planted and Himself, the Bread of Life. Jesus delegates. He sends out a number of teams, not individuals, to bring peace on behalf of Himself. No one goes alone. Partnership is valued, and when Jesus gives instructions, he trusts that his disciples will follow them. What a blessing to be partnered with all of you here at STA as Jesus' disciples! I am so grateful we are together in this journey!

14^o Domingo del Tiempo Ordinario

Esta semana aprenderemos más acerca de lo que significa ser un discípulo de Cristo. Jesús envía a sus seguidores a todos los pueblos que él tenía la intención de visitar en su camino hacia Jerusalén y les dijo que llevaran la buena noticia sobre la cosecha, refiriéndose a los cultivos y a El mismo, el Pan de Vida. Jesús delega. Él envía un número suficiente de equipos, no individuos, a llevar paz en su Nombre. Ninguno fue solo. La colaboración es valorada, y cuando Jesús da instrucciones, él confía que sus discípulos las seguirán. Que bendición es tener esta colaboración como discípulos de Jesús con todos ustedes aquí en STA! Estoy muy agradecido que estamos juntos en esta travesía.

Statement Regarding the SCOTUS Roe v. Wade Decision

The Bishops of Wisconsin have released a statement regarding the Roe v. Wade Supreme Court decision last Friday, and I want to quote it: "While relieved that an inhumane and unjust right to abortion has been struck down, we know well that many of Wisconsin's pregnant and parenting women face grave challenges. It is for this reason that our prayers and our work to protect every human life must increase...Now is the time to come together to heal our social divisions and ensure that every human being is treated with the utmost tenderness, dignity, and respect."

They are telling us that with the overturning of Roe vs. Wade, Catholics will play a pivotal role in creating a culture of life. Let us pray about our role in this mission and act on behalf of babies and moms. To support our local pregnancy resource centers, please check out Women's Care Center (womenscarecenter.org) and CareNet Pregnancy Center (CareNetdane.org). We all have a role to play in the pro-life movement! To learn more about the St. Thomas Aquinas Respect Life Team, contact Greg Chesmore at gchesmore@yahoo.com. To learn more about our St. Vincent De Paul Conference, please contact Jan Tuccinardi at jtuccinardi@gmail.com.

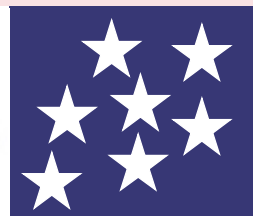

Declaración Sobre la Decisión de la Corte Suprema de Estados Unidos respecto a Roe v. Wade

Los Obispos de Wisconsin emitieron una declaración respecto a la decisión de la Corte Suprema sobre Roe v. Wade el pasado Viernes y quiero citarla: "A pesar de que estamos aliviados que el derecho inhumano e injusto del aborto ha sido anulado, estamos conscientes que muchas mujeres embarazadas en Wisconsin y madres enfrenta muchas dificultades. Es por esta razón que nuestras oraciones y nuestros esfuerzos para proteger todas las vidas humanas deben incrementarse...Ahora es el tiempo de unirnos para sanar juntos las divisiones sociales y asegurarnos que todo ser humano es tratado con la mayor sensibilidad, dignidad y respeto.

Ellos nos están diciendo que con la anulación de Roe v. Wade, los Católicos jugaran un rol crucial en crear una cultura de vida. Recemos sobre nuestro rol en esta misión y actuemos en nombre de los bebés y las madres. Para apoyar los centros locales de recurso para embarazadas, por favor visite las siguientes páginas: Women's Care Center (womenscarecenter.org) y CareNet Pregnancy Center (carenetdane.org). Todos tenemos un rol en el movimiento Pro-Vida! Para más información sobre El Equipo de Respeto a la Vida de Santo Tomas de Aquino, contacte a Greg Chesmore a gchesmore@yahoo.com. Happy Independence Day!

Monday, July 4th, we celebrate our glorious national holiday- Independence Day! This occasion gives us time to thank God for the birth of our nation, and give thanks for the gift of life and liberty! It is a great time of year for picnics, parades, fireworks, and community festivals and spending time with family and friends. John Adams, one of the Founding Fathers of our country, wrote this about how to celebrate the Fourth of July:

"It ought to be commemorated as the Day of Deliverance by solemn Acts of Devotion to God Almighty. It ought to be solemnized with Pomp and Parade, with shews, games, Sports...Bells, Bonfires and illuminations from one End of this Continent to the other from this Time forward forever more."

I hope we can all enjoy a safe, fun, and relaxing holiday weekend and summertime festivities! I will be spending the Fourth of July, as I do every year, in my hometown of Kieler, WI at our Immaculate Conception Parish Fourth of July Picnic. I pray for every good blessing for our country and for God's guidance as we continue to face the many challenges of this world. We must always remember that God is the source of our freedom:

"We hold these truths to be self-evident, that all men are created equal, that they are endowed by their Creator with certain unalienable rights, that among these are life, liberty, and the pursuit of happiness." Thomas Jefferson

We are so blessed to live in a country with so much freedom. Let us pray this simple prayer for our nation.

"Almighty God,
who has given us this good land for our heritage:
We humbly beseech you that we may always prove ourselves a people mindful of your favor and glad to do your will.
Bless our land with honorable industry,
sound learning, and pure manners.
Save us from violence, discord, and confusion;
from pride and arrogance, and from every evil way.
Defend our liberties, and fashion into one united people the multitudes brought hither
out of many kindreds and tongues.
Endue with the spirit of wisdom those to whom your Name we entrust the authority of government,
that there may be justice and peace at home,
and that, through obedience to your law,
we may show forth your praise
among the nations of the earth.
In the time of prosperity,
fill our hearts with thankfulness
and in the day of trouble,
do not allow our trust in you to fall;
all this we ask through Jesus Christ our Lord."
AMEN!

Feliz Día de la Independencia

Lunes, 4 de julio, celebramos nuestro glorioso feriado nacional-Día de la Independencia! Esta ocasión nos da la oportunidad de agradecer a Dios por el nacimiento de nuestra nación, y damos gracias por el regalo de la vida y la Libertad! Es una gran época del año para picnics, paradas, fuegos artificiales, festivales comunitarios pasar tiempo con familia y amigos. John Adams, uno de los Padres Fundadores de nuestro país, escribió sobre cómo debemos celebrar el 4 de julio:

"Debe ser conmemorado como el día de la liberación, mediante solemnes actos de devoción al Dios Todopoderoso. Debería solemnizarse con pompa y desfile, con espectáculos, juegos, deportes, ..., campanas, fogatas e iluminaciones, de un extremo a otro de este continente, a partir de este momento para siempre."

Espero que este fin de semana festivo sea uno seguro, divertido y relajado para todos y que disfruten de todas las festividades del verano! Yo estaré pasando el 4 de julio, como hago todos los años en mi pueblo Kieler, WI en el picnic del 4 de julio de la Parroquia de la Inmaculada Concepción. Rezo por todas las bendiciones para nuestro país y Dios nos guíe mientras continuamos enfrentando los numerosos retos de este mundo. Nosotros debemos recordar siempre que Dios es nuestra fuente de libertad:

"Sostenemos que estas verdades son evidentes por sí mismas: que todos los hombres son creados iguales; que están dotados por su Creador de ciertos derechos inalienables; que entre estos se encuentran la vida, la libertad y la búsqueda de la felicidad." Thomas Jefferson Somos bendecidos de vivir en un país con mucha libertad. Recemos esta simple oración por nuestra nación:

"Dios todopoderoso,
que nos has dado esta tierra buena
para nuestra herencia:
Te suplicamos humildemente que siempre
demostramos ser personas consientes de tu favor
y felices de hacer tu voluntad.
Bendice nuestra tierra con una industria honorable,
aprendizaje eficaz y buenos modales.
Sálvanos de violencia, discordia y confusión;
de orgullo y arrogancia, y de todo mal.
Defiende nuestras libertades,
y que las multitudes se unan en una sola voz.
Arropa con el espíritu de sabiduría a aquellos
que en tu Nombre, nosotros encomendamos la autoridad del gobierno, que haya justicia y paz en el hogar,
y que a través de la obediencia de la ley,
demostramos tu alabanza
entre todas las naciones de la Tierra.
En tiempo de prosperidad,
llena nuestros corazones de agradecimiento
y en tiempos de dificultades,
no dejes que nuestra confianza en ti falle;
todo esto te lo pedimos por Jesucristo Nuestro Señor."
AMEN!

Gospel Reflection

by Dcn. Jerome Buhman

Luke 10:1-12, 17-20

A little over 200 years ago, Paul Revere and many other riders departed Boston to warn the countryside that the British were on the move. While many know of Paul Revere (thanks to a poem by Longfellow), there were dozens of riders who remain nameless. It is believed that among the riders that night were men and women of all walks of life as well as children as young as nine years old who persevered to spread the word. Their work on that (and many other) occasions led to the successful achievement of independence that we celebrate this weekend.

A little over 2000 years ago other messengers were sent out into the countryside to spread the word. In our Gospel today, we hear that Jesus sent 72 disciples to preach the Good News. We have no poems to celebrate these workers. We know none of their names or even know exactly where they went. We do know that they were sent as sheep among wolves. We know they risked much to spread the word of salvation. And we know their work on that (and probably many other) occasions led to the successful spread of the Church, for they returned to Jesus rejoicing.

But today's dual celebration of freedom and salvation isn't really about the past. The freedom the patriots declared in 1776 has persisted down through the years only because of the efforts of everyday people working to maintain that freedom.

And more importantly, the knowledge of the salvation obtained through Jesus and preached by His disciples has been spread by the power of the Holy Spirit working through the efforts of many people, men women and children. Some of these people we know as saints who performed great acts of holiness. But much of the work of promoting God's kingdom and spreading His word has been by anonymous individuals in everyday life. By praying, serving in Church ministries, speaking out for those in need, volunteering in community missionary work, and donating to charity has the word and work of Christ been spread.

And this is what we celebrate today. Like the 72 disciples, we are being sent out to preach the good news through our thoughts, words, and actions. Through the generosity of this parish, the good works that you do, your spirit and vitality, the evangelizing work of the church is being accomplished, and that is something in which to rejoice.

Thank You!

Prayer for men and women being deployed

Lord God, Almighty Father,
creator of mankind and author of peace,
as we are ever mindful of the cost paid
for the liberty we possess,
we ask You to bless the members of our armed forces.
Give them courage, hope and strength.
May they ever experience Your firm support,
gentle love and compassionate healing.
Be their power and protector,
leading them from darkness to light.
To You be all glory, honor praise,
now and forever.
Amen.
