Parish News and Words from Our Pastor

Noticias Parroquiales y Mensaje de Nuestro Párroco

by Fr. Bart Timmerman

15th Sunday of Ordinary Time

This Sunday we are presented with the Gospel episode of the Good Samaritan. Which character in the Gospel do you identify with the most?

Is it the scholar questioning Jesus?
The man of faith who walks past the man in need?
The Good Samaritan?

This is good for us to reflect on and ask ourselves why we feel drawn to that character. We are inspired by the Good Samaritan to love the people around us, and to love God most of all. Do good, love others, and let ourselves be renewed and animated by the Eucharist. "And who is my neighbor?" Everyone!

Update on Phase III of Our Make Disciples Capital Campaign

Beginning in May, Phase III construction began in the Education Wing of our campus. The goal of the construction is to transform the small classrooms into an Evangelization Center, creating meeting spaces, classrooms, and other spaces where people of all ages in any stage of discipleship can encounter Jesus in a way that changes how they live. The new renovated space will be called "The Enrichment Center." In the new space we will have a conference room, an outdoor patio, a youth room, 3 permanent classrooms called Atriums for Catechesis of the Good Shepherd, a child care room, a permanent classroom for Adaptive Catechesis, more bathrooms, updated bathrooms, multi-purpose use rooms for classes and meetings, a renovated music room, and offices for staff. So far, the construction is going well and is on schedule to be complete by the beginning of September.

Thanks to all of our parish families who have contributed to our MDCC Campaign. It is so exciting to see the third and final phase of the construction nearing completion. I am grateful for your patience as we make these improvements. The construction certainly has caused upheaval on our campus, but the end is in sight!

We are making plans for a Grand Opening of our new Enrichment Center and are planning Enrichment Events so our parishioners can experience the space for themselves and enjoy the opportunities for growing in our faith together.

15^o Domingo del Tiempo Ordinario

Este domingo se nos presenta en el Evangelio la parábola del Buen Samaritano. Con cuál personaje del Evangelio te identificas?

Es el erudito que cuestiona a Jesús?
El hombre de fe que ignora al hombre necesitado?
El Buen Samaritano?

Es bueno para nosotros reflexionar y preguntarnos porque nos identificamos con ese personaje. El Buen Samaritano nos inspira a amar a todas las personas alrededor de nosotros y a amar a Dios sobre todas las cosas. Haz el bien, ama a los demás y déjate renovar y animar por la Eucaristía. "Y quien es mi prójimo?" Todos!

Actualización sobre la Fase III de Nuestra Campaña Capital Ve y Haz Discípulos

Empezando en mayo, la Fase III de construcción comenzó en la Ala Educativa de nuestro campus. La meta de la construcción es transformar los salones pequeños en un Centro de Evangelización, creando espacios para reuniones, salones y otros espacios donde personas de todas las edades y en cualquier etapa de discipulado puedan encontrar a Jesús de manera que cambien como viven. El nuevo espacio renovado se llamara "El Centro de Enriquecimiento". En el nuevo espacio tendremos salones de conferencia, un patio exterior, un salón para jóvenes, 3 salones de clases permanentes, que serán llamados Atrios para la Catequesis del Buen Pastor, un salón para cuidado infantil, un salón permanente para la Catequesis Adaptable, más baños, baños renovados, salones multi-usos para clases y reuniones, un salón de música renovado y oficinas para el personal. Hasta ahora la construcción ha ido bastante bien y está a tiempo para ser completada a principios de septiembre.

Gracias a todas las familias parroquiales que han contribuido para nuestra Campaña Capital Ve y Haz Discípulos. Es bien emocionante ver la tercera y última fase de construcción a punto de completarse. Estoy agradecido con su paciencia mientras hacemos estas mejoras, la construcción ha causado conmoción en nuestro campus, pero el final está a la vista!

Estamos haciendo planes para la Gran Apertura de nuestro nuevo Centro de Enriquecimiento y estamos planificando Eventos de Enriquecimiento para que nuestros feligreses puedan experimentar el espacio por ellos mismo y disfrutar de las oportunidades para crecer juntos nuestra fe.

Gospel Reflection

by Dcn. Jerome Buhman

Luke 10:25-37

An interesting, and very human, moment happens in today's Gospel when Jesus tells the lawyer to love God and his neighbor – the lawyer asks "Who is my neighbor?" The lawyer would like Jesus to define for him just who he is responsible to help. Jesus then responds with the parable of the Good Samaritan. What Jesus does in this parable is to show that the lawyer should not be asking "who is my neighbor?" but "who can I be a neighbor to?" Instead of an answer that limits the pool of possible neighbors, it is an answer that widens the pool to anyone. It is also an answer that shows that we may not know in advance who our neighbor in need might be, but that we should be prepared to extend love and mercy when we least expect and to whomever is in need. God's love and mercy are boundless, and we are called to emulate that as his followers here on Earth.

First Responders

There is a reason I am not in the medical profession. Medical emergencies scare me!

The Medical and Security Committee decided to have a reserved pew available for First Responders so they are easily accessible. If you are a First Responder and would be available to help at your convenience, please contact:

Care for Creation

Reflect, Renew and Act

“There is an urgent need to develop policies so that...the emission of carbon dioxide... can be drastically reduced...”

--Pope Francis, Laudato Si', 26

Archbishop Coakley of Oklahoma City, Chair of the Committee on Domestic Justice & Human Development, sent an important letter to Congress about the passing of climate change provisions (USCCB/Resources/Letter to Congress on Budget Reconciliation and Climate Change). Catholic Climate Covenant is working hard to get as many Catholics as possible to contact their Senators as soon as possible as the Senate is working to finalize a bill by the end of July. We have updated the link we provided last week to the current Catholic Climate Covenant: catholicclimatecovenant.salsalabs.org/encountercampaignactionalert-a.

This is a quick and easy fill-in form, and this small action goes a long way. Please consider participating and encourage others to do the same.

St. Kateri Tekakwitha

Saint Kateri, Lily of the Mohawks

Written by Matthew and Margaret Bunson

Kateri Tekakwitha was born in 1656 in what is now Auriesville, New York. She was the child of a Mohawk father and a Roman Catholic Algonquin mother. At age 4 she was the only member of her family to survive smallpox, which affected her all her life. Kateri was inspired by the lives and words of the visiting Jesuit missionaries, who instructed her in the Catholic faith. At age 20 she was baptized Catherine, rendered Kateri in Mohawk. She was harassed and persecuted in her home village and fled 200 miles to a Christian Indian mission near Montreal. She died at age 24. Kateri was beloved and revered as a holy person while she lived and after her death. Kateri's short but holy life is an inspiration to all.

She was canonized in 2012 by Pope Benedict XVI, and her feast day is July 14.

This beautiful book gives readers a thorough account of the life of Saint Kateri, Lily of the Mohawks. This and other material on St. Kateri are available in the St. Thomas Aquinas Library.

Job & Volunteer Opportunities
