Parish News and Words from Our Pastor

Noticias Parroquiales y Mensaje de Nuestro Párroco

by Fr. Bart Timmerman

19th Sunday of Ordinary Time

The Gospel and the readings today call us to keep our focus on things unseen. The Book of Wisdom describes the Israelites waiting for the first Passover. In the Gospel, Jesus tells us to place our treasure in heaven and stay vigilant here on earth. St. Paul tells the Hebrews, "Faith is the realization of what is hoped for and the evidence of things not seen." All of these words are urging us to look forward and plan our lives according to salvation, not earthly satisfaction, so that we may "desire a better homeland, a heavenly one." Think about your long-term goals and how you are preparing for them. Are you more excited for retirement or salvation?

Thank You to Msgr. Duane and Fr. Mick

Thank you to Msgr. Duane Moellenberndt and Fr. Mick Moon for helping with the Masses this weekend. I am visiting some priest-friends of mine with whom I attended Mundelein Seminary. I have not seen them in a few years, since before the pandemic and it will be a blessing to catch up with them and have some vacation time. If you need a priest while I am away, please contact Erik at the Parish Office and he will arrange it for you (833-2600).

Ministry to Migrant Workers in Cambria

This summer I continue to be involved in our Diocesan Ministry serving migrant workers in Cambria, WI. Each Sunday evening throughout the summer and into the fall at the tiny chapel of Our Lady of the Americas at 6:45 p.m. Mass in Spanish is celebrated for the workers at the Seneca Foods plant. The chapel is hot and uncomfortable and there is no running water. But the people's faith is strong and beautiful. A few volunteers from Randolph, WI, provide the guitar music and a small choir of three women. Some of the workers have been coming to Wisconsin for almost 40 years, working in the heat, forming a strong community supporting one another, and growing in their faith. I was there last weekend and plan to return the last weekend of August. Bishop Hying volunteers to be on the schedule, too. I mentioned to them how nice it is that Jesus speaks to us in parables and uses examples of crops, seeds, farming, harvesting, and working on the land to teach us about the Kingdom of Heaven. We can relate to this! Pope Francis encourages us to go out to the peripheries and the margins and bring the Good News of the Gospel. When I am there I am reminded of so many hard working people who help to feed the world and I appreciate their labor and sacrifice. Let us pray for all farmers, farm workers, and migrants who work hard to provide food for us.

19° Domingo del Tiempo Ordinario

El Evangelio y las lecturas de hoy nos llama a mantener nuestro enfoque en las cosas intangibles. El Libro de la Sabiduría describe a los Israelitas esperando la primera pascua judía. En el Evangelio, Jesús nos dice que coloquemos nuestros tesoros en el cielo y que nos mantengamos vigilantes aquí en la tierra. San Pablo le dice a los Hebreos, "Fe es la realización de lo que se ha esperado y la evidencia de las cosas que no se pueden ver." Todas estas palabras nos exhortan a mirar hacia delante y planear nuestras vidas de acuerdo con la salvación, no la satisfacción terrenal, para que entonces nosotros "deseemos una patria mejor, una patria celestial." Piensa en tus metas a largo plazo y como te estas preparando para ellas. Estas más entusiasmado con tu jubilación que con tu salvación?

Gracias Msgr. Duane y Padre Mick

Gracias a Msgr. Duane Moellenberndt y Padre. Mick Moon por ayudar con las Misas este fin de semana. Yo estoy visitando algunos amigos-sacerdotes míos, con los cuales estude en el Seminario Mundelein. Yo no los he visto en los pasados años, desde antes de la pandemia y será una bendición compartir con ellos, ponernos al día y también tener un tiempo de vacaciones. Si usted necesita un sacerdote mientras yo estoy de vacaciones, por favor contacte a Erik en la Oficina Parroquial y el hará arreglos para usted (608-833-2600).

Ministerio de Trabajadores Inmigrantes en Cambria

Este verano yo sigo envuelto en el Ministerio Diocesano que sirve a trabajadores inmigrantes en Cambria, WI. Todos los domingo en la noche durante el verano y en el otoño en la pequeña capilla de Nuestra Señora de las Américas a las 6:45pm Misa en español es celebrada para los trabajadores de la planta Seneca Foods. La capilla es calurosa e incómoda y no hay agua potable. Pero la fe de las personas es fuerte y hermosa. Algunos voluntarios de Randolph, WI proveen la música con guitarra y un pequeño coro de tres mujeres. Algunos de los trabajadores han estado viniendo a Wisconsin por casi 40 años, trabajando en el calor, formando una comunidad fuerte que se apoyan los unos a los otros y creciendo en su fe. Yo estuve allí el fin de semana pasado y tengo planes de regresar el último fin de semana de agosto. El Obispo Hying está de voluntario en el itinerario también. Yo les mencione a ellos que bonito es que Jesús nos habla a nosotros en parábolas y usa ejemplos de cultivos, semillas, agricultura, cosecha y trabajar en la tierra para enseñarnos acerca del Reino de los Cielos. Nos podemos identificar con esto! El Papa Francisco nos exhorta a ir a la periferia y los márgenes y llevar la Buena Nueva del Evangelio. Estar allí para mí es un recordatorio de todas las personas que trabajan arduamente para ayudar a alimentar el mundo y yo aprecio su labor y sacrificio. Oremos por todos los agricultores, trabajadores agrícolas e inmigrantes que trabajan duro para proveer alimentos para todos nosotros.

Gospel Reflection

by Dcn. Jerome Buhman

Luke 12:32-48

Constancy in faith is evident in our readings today. In the first reading, the Israelites' knowledge of the coming Passover allowed them to persevere in the face of hardships. God's promise of the coming salvation of his people provided them with a framework with which to live their lives in holiness. Their faith in the coming Passover infused their daily life. Perseverance of faith is even more evident in the second reading. Abraham's faith in God is apparent on two levels. First, he believes all that God relays to him, even if what he hears seems to contradict common sense and man's knowledge. Second, Abraham allows his faith to guide his actions because with Abraham's faith came a responsibility to live that faith day to day. Abraham ventures into a foreign land, begins a family at an advanced age, and is even prepared to sacrifice his son, all based on his faith in the goodness of God. We can see plainly how Abraham's faith in God's promises manifests itself in the way he lived his life.

In the Gospel, this theme is reiterated. Jesus speaks of the vigilant, watchful faith required of his followers. But he also speaks of the responsibilities which adhere to that faith. We are here, not just as individual believers, but also as a community of stewards of God's love and grace. As stewards, we must not only have faith, but we must live faith. We must carry out God's will amid the doubts and diversions of our lives. The key is to keep in mind the promise of the coming of the kingdom and work to ready ourselves for that day, by working for God's earthly kingdom this day.

Care for Creation

Reflect, Renew and Act

“...There is a nobility in the duty to care for creation through little daily actions, and it is wonderful how education can bring about real changes in lifestyle. Education in environmental responsibility can encourage ways of action which directly and significantly affect the world around us, such as avoiding the use of plastic and paper, reducing water consumption, separating refuse, cooking only what can reasonably be consumed, showing care for other living beings, using public transport or carpooling, planting trees, turning off unnecessary lights, [etc.]...All of these reflect a generous and worthy creativity which brings out the best in human beings. Reusing something instead of immediately discarding it, when done for the right reasons, can be an act of love which expresses our own dignity.

We must not think that these efforts are not going to change the world. They benefit society, often unbeknown to us, for they call forth a goodness which, albeit unseen, inevitably tends to spread. Furthermore, such actions can restore our sense of self-esteem; they can enable us to live more fully and to feel that life on earth is worthwhile.”

Pope Francis, Laudato Si' 211-212

VOTE

YOUR VOTE COUNTS! Tuesday, August 9

"We need to participate for the common good. Sometimes we hear: a good Catholic is not interested in politics. This is not true: good Catholics immerse themselves in politics by offering the best of themselves so that the leader can govern." - Pope Francis, 9/16/13

On Tuesday, August 9, voice your support for candidates that best represent the principals of Catholic Social Teaching--affirming the dignity of the human person and the common good of all. The Justice and Peace Committee encourages everyone to vote their conscience in the partisan primaries leading up to the November election. We are deciding who will be the best candidates to run for many state, national and county positions, including Governor, US Senate and House, and County Sheriff.

Please check the website MyVote.wi.gov for information on where to vote, hours the polls are open, confirm that you are registered, view a sample ballot, locations for early voting, etc. If you have not yet mailed your absentee ballot, please allow a week for delivery, or drop it off at your city clerk's office or at your polling place on the day of the election. All ballots must be received by 8:00 pm on August 9.

To evaluate candidates, check out the League of Women Voters of Dane County (lwvdanecounty.org) for their Candidates' Answers.

Thank you for taking advantage of our right and responsibility to vote and for answering our calling to be faithful citizens.

PRAYER

Merciful Father,

Thank you for inviting each of us to join in your work of building the kingdom of love, justice, and peace.

Draw us close to you in prayer as we discern your call in our families and communities.

Send us forth to encounter all whom you love:
those not yet born, those in poverty,
those in need of welcome.

Inspire us to respond to the call to faithful citizenship, during election season and beyond.

Help us to imitate your charity and compassion and to serve as models of loving dialogue.

Teach us to treat others with respect,
even when we disagree,
and seek to share your love and mercy.

We ask this through Jesus Christ our Lord,
who lives and reigns with you,
in the unity of the Holy Spirit,
one God forever and ever. Amen
