Parish News and Words from Our Pastor

by Fr. Bart Timmerman

29th Sunday of Ordinary Time—Into the Deep Future Planning

Beginning this Sunday, we will begin to share important information with all parishioners about the future planning process the Diocese of Madison is undergoing and is scheduled to enact this coming summer of 2023. Besides articles in the Catholic Herald, our parish will be sending out flocknote emails, publishing information in the Sunday bulletin, and making announcements. We are planning a Town Hall Meeting for the parish in early December. I am including an important media release in my column to bring us up to date with the planning process. This new realigning of resources will affect every parish in the diocese and the new model going forward will form 30 total parishes from our current model that has 102 parishes. During our time together at our annual conference with the Bishop, the priests were invited to offer feedback on the proposed model. Now the committee is considering the priests' recommendation and making updates to the model, which they will then share with parish staffs and parishioners for their input. It seems like there will be major changes coming this summer and we are asked to remain positive and hopeful to support this transition for the good of all.

The Current Reality & Future of the Local Church

The Diocese of Madison takes next step in the “daunting, necessary, but hope-filled task of recalibrating our resources to [better] match the mission of Jesus.” After spending several months collecting and analyzing thousands of data points, the Diocese of Madison has released its Current Reality Report and is sharing it with the priests, leaders, and faithful of the diocese as the next step of the Into the Deep strategic planning process. Into the Deep, launched in late April, is aimed at reimagining diocesan structures and realigning resources for the sake of mission. The Current Reality Report spells out with great clarity and insight the challenges, strengths, and opportunities the diocese faces both now and into the future. In particular, there are 8 key takeaways from the Current Reality Report:

- The total population across the Diocese of Madison is growing;
- People are leaving the practice of the faith, especially younger people, and the Catholic population is aging;
- Fewer and fewer people are attending Mass;
- Significantly fewer people are receiving Sacraments;
- Faith Formation enrollment is significantly declining, while Catholic School enrollment is holding relatively steady;
- There are significantly fewer priests than in the past, but this number projects to be relatively stable into the future;
- Donors to the Church give about 2% of their income, with fewer older people giving more these days;
- At present, the diocese and its institutions are facing financial challenges impacting both mission and employees.

Given all of this, the question before the entire Diocese is what to do to disrupt and reverse these troubling trends? Or, as Bishop Hying has phrased it, what is an appropriate bold new model which will help us to accomplish “this daunting, necessary, but hope-filled task of recalibrating our resources to [better] match the mission of Jesus Christ?” The next phase of Into the Deep will be to develop a new model of parish structures and life – through collaboration and consultation with both clergy and laity – that helps us to build a brighter future and to accomplish the goals set forth by Bishop Hying at the outset of this initiative, including:

- Coming together to follow Jesus Christ as a community of missionary disciples;
- Renewing the local church/Diocese to make it more vibrant and healthy;
- Reclaiming Sunday, so as to increase Mass attendance and participation in the other sacraments;
- Evangelizing others and helping them come to know the infinite love of Jesus Christ;
- Engaging young people and forming them as followers of Jesus;
- Equipping leaders to better live and share the life-changing good news of Jesus with others;
- Serving those in need more effectively through the practice of the works of mercy;
- Freeing up time, energy, and resources for our ongoing evangelization efforts throughout the Diocese

Into the Deep

by Fr. Bart Timmerman

An initial outline or sketch of this new model

- Our current 102 parishes (and their 135 churches + school buildings, rectories, other buildings, etc.) will be reorganized/reconfigured into approximately 30 “pastorates” or groupings of parishes – each under the leadership of a single Pastor and other priests collaborating with him and serving as Parochial Vicars (or priests in residence, if retired).
 - ♦ Note: The number “~30” is driven by our data and projects to provide for a stable and sustainable model into the future.
 - ♦ Note: Public feedback will be sought about these proposed groupings sometime in November, after which the model will be refined.
- After a period of public feedback and refinement, these ~30 pastorates/groupings of parishes will be finalized and approved by Bishop Hying sometime in January or February (2023). Parishes will officially start working together as pastorates in July (2023).
- Starting in July (2023) and over the course of a year or so, the parishes within each of the ~30 pastorates will merge into a single canonical parish (which is like a marriage where previously separate entities become one with a shared life together), giving us ~30 parishes with 135 churches + school buildings, rectories, other buildings, etc. by sometime in 2024.
 - ♦ Note: how this will affect our Catholic schools is still to be determined. Presently, the focus of initial modeling has been on developing a draft of the ~30 pastorates. Once school-related questions about how to strengthen Catholic education within the diocese come into play, appropriate stakeholders will be consulted.
 - ♦ Following these mergers and the formation of ~30 new canonical parishes, each will have to prayerfully and prudently discern at the local level which of their church buildings and/or other facilities are needed and/or helpful in their proclaiming and living out the Gospel and the mission of the Church.
 - ♦ If it is determined at a particular parish (i.e., by the pastor in consultation with his parish leadership and after considering available options) that one or more of their buildings would be a grave burden and should no longer be used (without causing harm to the good of souls), then they will receive guidance from the diocese about how to properly close/sell the respective building(s). Following church law, any money received from the sale of a building will remain locally with the parish to be used at their discretion and in the service of evangelization, ministry, and mission.
 - * Note: despite what people often think, the diocese does not receive this money, but it remains at the parish for local needs.

Overall, then, this new model (which is still being developed and which will be refined following a public feedback period over the next few months) is about reorganizing and realigning our parishes and other resources so that all of us in the Diocese of Madison are better positioned to “go make disciples” and contribute to the building up of God’s kingdom. Furthermore, we are embarking upon this bold journey together with gratitude for the past but with an eye towards the present and the future. But above all, we are looking towards Heaven – our true homeland and the source of all spiritual grace!

St. Thérèse of Lisieux, Patroness of the Missions, pray for us!

Our Lady, Mother of the Church, pray for us!

Next weekend, October 22–23, the International Combined Collection will be conducted in our parish. This collection is combining the following individual collections:

*World Mission Support • Catholic Relief Services
Church in Central & Eastern Europe
Church in Latin America • Peter’s Pence
Pastoral Solidarity for the Church in Africa*

Your help in supporting these collections is critical. Please take this week to pray about the support you can provide. A brochure and envelope are inserted into this bulletin. Please return it for the collection next weekend.

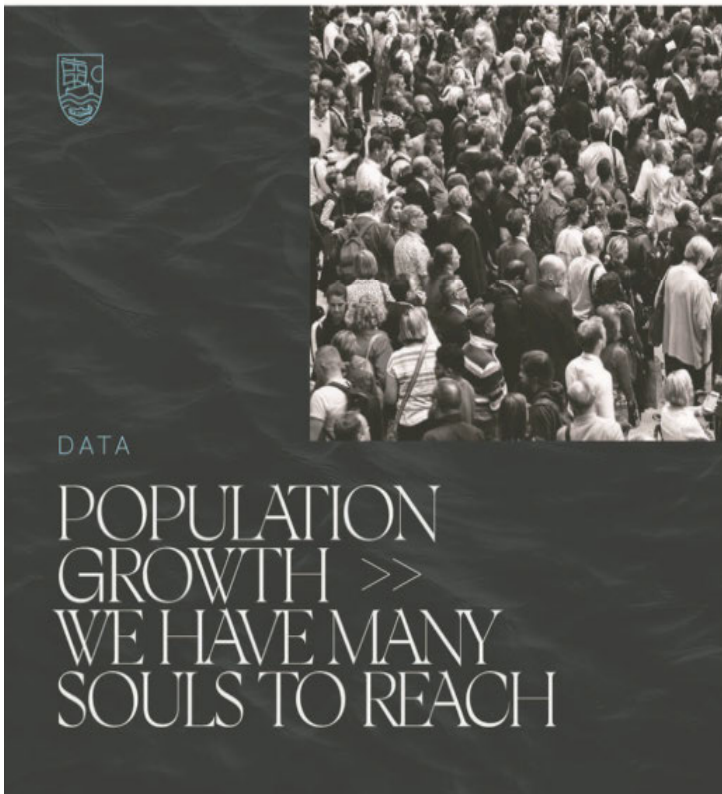

Into the Deep Data Assessment & Demographic Trends

What Does The Data Assessment Tell Us?

For several months, our Diocese has engaged PartnersEdge to gather Catholic analytics and insights from within our own Diocese. This data will inform a strategic road map which will move us from maintenance to mission in all that we do. Over the next few weeks, we'll share 8 key takeaways from the data assessment.

>> Catholic Demographic Trends

The number of practicing Catholics is decreasing, especially among younger generations. Parishioners over 65 comprise 21% of the Catholic population. This age category is the only segment growing, and it's growing only slightly.

Stay connected:

www.intothedeepmadison.org/stay-connected

>> General Demographic Trends

The population in the Diocese of Madison will continue to grow in the next 5 years with stagnation or decline in many rural areas. Generation Z (born 1997 - 2012) will be the largest generational group (24.1%) in 5 years.

Update from Fr. Jablonski, Chairman of Into the Deep Strategic Planning Committee

On September 29th, we presented the Into the Deep Current Reality Report two times to various groups of diocesan leaders, including permanent deacons and religious, school principals, parish staff members, council members, trustees, diocesan staff members, etc. At both of these presentations the vast, vast majority of people in attendance soberly accepted our challenging current reality but also seemingly embraced with hope and enthusiasm the initial outlines of our plan for the future. In fact, after the presentations, I received many comments and emails about how this is the right path forward even if it might be difficult. Many people rightly understood that "we face significant challenges, which require a significant and bold solution!"

Reflect, Renew and Act

Living our vocation to be protectors of God's handiwork is essential to a life of virtue; it is not an optional or a secondary aspect of our Christian experience.

Care for Creation Team

Our small actions to protect God's handiwork DO make a difference. Sharing examples of how you have changed habits to better care for God's creation with others will inspire them to do the same and may even lead to an invitation to join you at Mass some Sunday.

Outreach Funding Review Board

Truly I tell you, whatever you did for one of the least of these brothers and sisters of mine, you did for me. - Matthew 25:40

Do you volunteer for a nonprofit group?

St. Thomas Aquinas strives to be a parish that keeps Jesus' words in mind in all we do. Every year, our budget includes funding for groups that help people in need. The groups might benefit young children, families, the elderly, or the poor, and each has a parish member that volunteers for the organization. The Outreach Funding Review Board looks at applications from these deserving groups and helps decide which we should support.

If you are a member of a nonprofit that would like to apply for funding, please contact Jenny Ludtke at 833-2600 or jennifer@stamadison.org.

Looking for new members!

Would you like to help recommend where the parish's outreach money goes? Our board has openings and would love to have new voices at our table. There are 2-3 meetings a year, review the request applications, and come to an agreement about how much and to whom we recommend the parish should give. This is a low commitment, feel-good committee!

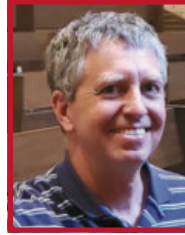

If you are interested in learning more,
please contact Jenny Ludtke:

Dcn. Dick & Dcn. Jerome at the Pet Blessing - Oct. 14th

Gospel Reflection

by Dcn. Jerome Buhman

Luke 18:1-8

In our Gospel today, Jesus tells his disciples, and us, to "pray always." Wow. That seems like a tall order. How do we do that?

I'll let a legend about St. Francis of Assisi help us answer this. St. Francis was a great preacher and was asked by another friar, Brother Juniper, how to preach eloquently. So, Francis told Brother Juniper to meet him the next day. The two met early in the morning and Francis led Brother Juniper through the marketplace, chatting with workers and villagers, playing with children, giving some food to lepers, helping an elderly woman with her wash. Finally, Brother Juniper, exasperated, asks Francis; "When are you going to teach me how to preach?" Francis merely replied, "Brother Juniper, we have been preaching!" We can replace the word 'preaching' with 'praying' and the lesson would remain the same.

If we live our everyday lives in a prayerful fashion, we are praying. If we persistently worship our God in word and in deed, if we keep Him in mind both as we celebrate the holy sacraments as well as when we are running errands, or closing a deal, or playing at recess or on a sports team, then we are praying and proclaiming the Gospel. If we pray and preach through the way we live, we are well on our way to fulfilling Christ's command to pray always.

The Conversational Ministry Informational Team—COMIT

This team functions to gather information from parish members about:

- their life of faith
- their needs and hopes for the future of our parish
- input on ongoing opportunities
- feedback regarding the parish's focus on evangelization.

This will be accomplished by the team and additional individuals through phone interviews and/or surveys with parish groups including, but not limited to:

- young adults
- families with young children
- newly married couples,
- those who have experienced RCIA
- newly registered STA members
- longtime parish members of STA.
