Gospel Reflection

by Dcn. Jerome Buhman

John 11:1-45

This is the Necker cube, an optical illusion that can be seen either as a cube with the front face being oriented to the lower left, or to the upper right, depending on your focus. It is the same cube, and yet it is two different cubes. The trick is we can only focus on one at a time. We choose how we want this cube to look.

now see, but they would not testify how this had come about. The reading implies they knew that Christ healed their son, but they were afraid of the Pharisees and thus refused to give further information saying, “Ask my son.” The parents were afraid of being kicked out of the synagogue, so they passed the buck.

In today’s Gospel, we have the healing of a blind man which occurs on the Sabbath and which infuriates the Pharisees. They believe any work, including healing, done on a Sabbath is a sin. They have a particular blindness when they focus on the letter of the law and not the spirit. They focus on Christ’s healing action in only one way.

And what about the blind man’s parents? The Pharisees bring them into court to testify about their son. The parents testify that indeed their son was blind, but could

The parents could see the cube, and they could see two different faces of the cube. On the one hand, they could acknowledge that Christ healed their son and then be expelled from the synagogue, or they could profess ignorance and let the matter slide. We know how they decided.

In the same way we are faced with these sort of cubes in everyday life, and we have a choice as to which face of the cube to focus on. Are we sometimes afraid to admit to truths we believe? Where does our focus lie?

Tributes to Timmerman

As Fr. Bart has shared, this July he will be moving on to serve a new pastorate and bring joy, laughter and wisdom to his new community in Beloit. The news is bittersweet, but we know he’s destined to touch the lives of many! Each week, please enjoy an article from a member of the STA staff- a fun memory, a letter of thanks or an example of one of the many ways Fr. Bart has positively impacted their own lives. Enjoy!

Fr. Bart Is My ‘Birthday Buddy’

by Jenny Ludtke, Director of Evangelization & Parish Outreach

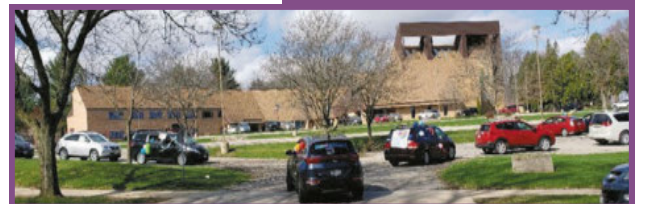

As soon as he arrived at St. Thomas Aquinas as the new pastor, we discovered that we shared the same birth date. From that moment on, I knew he was one of the good ones!

Each year we did our best to make it over to Nitty Gritty to get our free birthday mugs, and toast another year. Once, when I was in Italy over the special day, we lifted our glasses separately, and sent selfies, toasting each other across the ocean. The year that Fr. Bart turned 40, my husband and I joined his family and closest 100 friends in a birthday tailgate and Brewer’s game. It was so fun to see his school friends laughing, reminiscing, and teasing him about getting older...they even had can koozies made with some of their favorite “blast from the past” phrases from way back in high school. It’s a beautiful sign of who he is that he stayed close to so many friends over the years, and, to this day, remains a priest who can genuinely and fully embrace all the joy and fun of life.

In 2020, our birthdays arrived only a month after everything shut down due to the pandemic. That was such a difficult time, and Fr. Bart was devastated by his inability to be with his people. Plus (on a less serious note), he was pretty sure that his birthday was going to be awful. Unbeknownst to him, several parishioners were organizing a drive-by birthday parade. It took a little sneakiness, but once we were out in front of the church, it was awesome! We saw car after car after car for nearly 45 minutes, filled with parishioners who honked, and cheered, and gave Fr. Bart the most memorable birthday ever. It was an amazing gift for MY birthday to see this huge outpouring of love, and to recognize how lucky I am to have this priest as my boss. And yes, I cried (although so did Fr. Bart – imagine that!)

It has been a great privilege to work with Fr. Bart for these past ten years. We have shared laughter, tears, joys and struggles as we served our wonderful parish family. Fr. Bart is a genuine, joyful, and deeply faithful priest. He has been a blessing to all of us, and will be a blessing to those in his new parish family in Beloit. He and I will just have to share a few more birthday selfies and toast each other across the miles!

Lenten Fast for Creation Care-Week 5

This Lent, consider a sacrifice focused on Care for God's Creation. Why a Lenten Creation Care Fast? Things we buy impact our environment, take time from our life and often control us.

Constant consumerism exhausts workers and resources and distracts us spiritually. Pope Francis urges us to seek a simpler, less materialistic life. Observing the Sabbath encourages detachment from temporal goods by putting aside time for God.

“STUFF” FAST: Try designating days this week for a more contemplative state. Pre-purchase necessary essentials and buy nothing on those days. If you are planning an Easter meal, avoid disposables and decorations that will end up in the trash. Watch “The Story of Stuff” (YouTube) to reinforce your fast. Instead of shopping, reflect on the day's readings and give thanks to God for the beauty of His Creation.

A prayer of gratitude for creation

*God of the universe,
We thank You for Your many good gifts —
For the beauty of Creation
and its rich and varied fruits,
For clean water and fresh air,
for food and shelter, animals and plants.
Forgive us for the times
we have taken the earth's resources for granted
And wasted what You have given us.
Transform our hearts and minds
So that we would learn to care and share,
To touch the earth with gentleness and with love,
Respecting all living things.
We pray for all those who suffer
as a result of our waste, greed and indifference,
And we pray that the day would come when everyone has enough food and clean water.
Help us to respect the rights of all people
and all species
And help us to willingly share your gifts
Today and always. Amen.*

— Fiona Murdoch, Eco-Congregation Ireland

Sharing Sunday Bring in items March 18-19

Sharing Sunday - Personal Care Items Collection Drive: March 18-19

In addition to food, our neighbors who visit the food pantry are often in need of personal care items for their health and hygiene. Many of these items are in short supply on the pantry shelves. Our Sharing Sunday focus for the month of March will be on Personal Care Items.

Later this month, as a part of their Lenten practice of learning to be intentional about service, our STA MIDDLE SCHOOL YOUTH MINISTRY students will be partnering with the STA St Vincent de Paul Conference to assemble these items into Personal Care Kits for the Lussier Community Education Center Pantry. Please help provide our parish youth the opportunity to make their efforts matter knowing that they have helped to fill the pantry shelves with an abundance of products that provide dignity and confidence to our neighbors.

The following items have been identified by the pantry staff as some of the most needed items, but all donations are always welcome. Thank you so much for your generosity!

*Toilet paper • toothpaste • shampoo/conditioner soap/body wash • deodorant • combs (wide tooth)
laundry soap/detergent (smaller sizes for care pkg.)
first aide supplies (bandages, antibiotic cream, etc.)*
