From Fr. Brian Wilk, Parochial Administrator

Dear Friends:

This past Wednesday we celebrated the great Solemnity of All Saints. Like the cloud of holy witnesses in heaven, we are all called to holiness and through God's mercy, we have the ability to achieve it. St. Francis de Sales said it so beautifully. "All of us can attain to Christian virtue and holiness, no matter in what condition of life we live and no matter what our life work may be." Likewise, St. Therese of Lisieux wrote, "Holiness consists simply in doing God's will, and being just what God wants us to be."

A share in the divine life is our purpose; it is why we have been created. Being a child of God, being part of the Church's mission and having an eternal future with Christ are the truths that linked the saints. For us, living these truths will link us to them. The saints teach us that holiness, heroic holiness, is possible for anyone with the grace of God. As St. Francis of Assisi said, "Sanctify yourself and you will sanctify society."

Have a blessed and saintly week.

Fr. Brian

Words from Dcn. Jerome

Gospel Reflection—Matthew 22:34-40

by Dcn. Jerome

As this year's session of the Synod on Synodality came to a close, Pope Francis recently spoke to the Synod members about the dangers of clericalism, saying "Clericalism is a thorn, it is a scourge, it is a form of worldliness that defiles and damages the face of the Lord's bride; it enslaves the holy, faithful people of God." But what is clericalism? Bishop Thomas Zinkula offers a simple definition of clericalism: "Clericalism is an exaggeration of the role of the clergy to the detriment of the laity." Father Donald Cozzens describes clericalism as "an attitude found in many clergy who put their status as priests and bishops [ed. note: and deacons!] above their status as baptized disciples of Jesus Christ. In doing so, a sense of privilege and entitlement emerges in their individual and collective psyche. This, in turn, breeds a corps of ecclesiastical elites who think they're unlike the rest of the faithful."

Today's readings are a warning to those of us in the clergy that we are to be servants and have a servant's heart. Clericalism is nothing new, it is on display in today's first reading from Malachi and in our Gospel regarding the scribes and Pharisees widening their phylacteries, lengthening their tassels and seeking places of honor. But clericalism isn't just an issue for clergy; it also affects laity when they abrogate their authority and voice as baptized members of the priesthood of the faithful. As Fr. Michael Papesh puts it, "the laity have the right and duty to express their opinions in the ordering of the Church." Over the next year, the participants from the synod will be returning to their dioceses, orders, and parishes to engage the faithful in fruitful discussion before next October's synodal session – a perfect time to make one's voice heard.

To combat clericalism, clergy and laity need to recognize, embrace and promote our common identity through baptism, and our mission as disciples of Christ. If we can prayerfully recognize our common purpose in spreading the Gospel and recognize our equal partnership in the Church's work, that will go a long way to eradicating clericalization. As Jesus tells us in our Gospel today, we have but one teacher and we are all brothers and sisters.

Baptism Preparation Classes

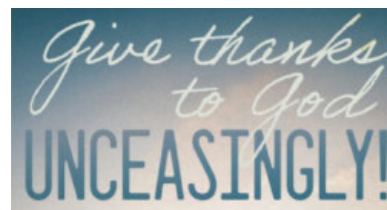

Interested in having your child baptized? Classes are offered on the 2nd Saturday of the month. Contact Dcn. Jerome for classes in English at dcn.jerome@stamadison.org or 608.833.2606. For classes in Spanish, contact Maira Rivera at maira@stamadison.org or 608.833.2606.

Rite of Acceptance and Welcoming

On November 19 at the 10 AM Mass, the St. Thomas Aquinas family will be celebrating the Rite of Acceptance and the Rite of Welcoming. . . what in the world are those? These are the rites in the OCIA (Order of Christian Initiation of Adults) in which the catechumens and the candidates for full communion in the Church are accepted and welcomed by the parish family as they begin the catechetical sessions of the OCIA process. The Order of Christian Initiation tells us that the Rite of Acceptance (for unbaptized adults) is "of utmost importance. . . the candidates declare their intention to the Church and the Church in turn, carrying out its apostolic mission, accepts them as persons who intend to become its members." The Rite of Welcoming "welcomes baptized but previously uncatechized adults who are seeking to complete their Christian initiation through the sacraments of confirmation and eucharist or to be received into the full communion of the Catholic Church."

We welcome all interested parishioners to join us in the Gathering Space at the beginning of Mass to celebrate these rites. Particularly powerful is the Signing of the Senses in which the sponsors sign the forehead, ears, eyes, lips, heart, shoulders, hands, and feet of the candidates. After the rite, the celebrant invites the catechumens and candidates to enter the church to celebrate with the community to which they have just been ritually accepted and welcomed.

I would like to thank the entire community for your warm welcome of these candidates and your ongoing participation in their preparation as they continue their journey of faith.

GIVING TUESDAY

Giving Tuesday is November 28.

Justice & Peace and Evangelization

Reflect and Act

Pope Francis applauds all efforts to care for creation in Laudate Deum, his Apostolic Exhortation released on October 4th, when he says:

Care for God's Creation Team

"Efforts by households to reduce pollution and waste, and to consume with prudence, are creating a new culture...Let us realize, then, that even though this does not immediately produce a notable effect from the quantitative standpoint, we are helping to bring about large processes of transformation rising from deep within society." (paragraph 71)

The Care for God's Creation Team thanks you for all you do to create a new culture that protects God's gift of creation. Consider joining us on Sunday, November 5, at 8:30 am in the St. Thomas Aquinas Upper Conference Room to help us plan for next year's activities. All are welcome. If you plan to attend and are not a current member, email Trudi Jenny at trudijenny@yahoo.com for the agenda. The meeting ends at 9:45 AM so all can attend the 10:00 AM Mass.

To read Laudate Deum, search Vatican.va in English, select Apostolic Exhortations, and click on Laudate Deum.

"The devotion to the Eucharist is the most noble, because it has God as its object;
it is the most profitable for salvation,
because it gives us the Author of Grace;
it is the sweetest,
because the Lord is Sweetness Itself."
- Pope St. Pius X

7 Sisters Ministry

Do you pray for our priests?
Would you like to join a dedicated group of women who regularly pray for our priests?

The 7 Sisters Ministry is dedicated to regular, daily prayer for our priests. Come and learn more about the how and why of this beautiful ministry on Nov 19, 6:00 PM, St. Thomas Aquinas Parish library. For more information, please reach out to Linda Galang at lg9906968@gmail.com

Time to Order Your Resurrection Cemetery Wreath

Purchase your wreath online at madisondiocese.org/wreath before November 10. We'll place them on a stand, graveside. We make every effort to place them all before Thanksgiving, and we'll take them down in the spring.

Eucharistic Revival Invite

Do you have a devotion to the Eucharist? Would you like to encourage that devotion in others? Do you long for others to experience Jesus as deeply through the Eucharist as you do?

Our world is hurting. We all need healing, yet many of us are separated from the very source of our strength. Jesus Christ invites us to return to the source and summit of our faith: his Real Presence in the Eucharist. The National Eucharistic Revival is a movement to restore understanding and devotion to this great mystery. (Source: <https://www.eucharisticrevival.org>)

We at St. Thomas Aquinas have responded to the invitation to incorporate the Eucharistic Revival into our parish life and, in the spirit of Into the Deep, are looking to grow our team by partnering with Our Lady Queen of Peace. Will you consider joining us? You are invited to learn more about the Eucharistic Revival by joining us for an informational session on Monday, November 6th, from 6:30-8:00 PM in the QP Gathering Area. Please come to learn more and see if the Holy Spirit is calling you to help bring an appreciation of the Eucharist to others in new ways. Refreshments will be provided.

Questions? Contact Jennifer Ludtke at 608-833-2606 or jennifer@stamadison.org.

Scam Alerts—Reminder!

As we approach the holiday season, please remember that Fr. Brian Wilk (or any clergy) will not call, text, or email you with gift card or money transfer solicitation requests. Please feel free to call the parish office if you want to double check on a request you may receive.

What Does an Email/Text Scam Look Like?

The bogus emails/texts often include the pastor's name or a staff member's name and a legitimate-looking email address. But a closer look should raise some red flags. For example, the email address isn't the one normally used by the pastor or the parish, and the service provider is different, too (ex. @gmail.com). The text message may come from an international phone number. The message may begin with a simple "Hi," but doesn't include a recipients' name. There also may be spelling errors, including the pastor's name.

How Does the Scam Work?

The imposter asks you to buy a popular gift card — frequently, iTunes, Google Play, or Amazon — and then asks for the gift card number and PIN on the back of the card. Those numbers let the scammer immediately get the money you loaded onto the card. And once that's done, the scammer and your money are gone, usually without a trace.

What Should I Do if I receive a message like this?

- Do not open the email
- Do not respond to the email.
- Do not click any links or open any message attachments.
- Block the contact if you are able.
- Just HIT DELETE.

If you or someone you know paid a scammer with a gift card, report it as soon as possible. Call the store/company and tell them the gift card was used in a scam. Then, tell the Federal Trade Commission about it. Your reports may help law enforcement agencies launch investigations that could stop imposters and other fraudsters in their tracks.

Tips on Recognizing a Scam

Here are a few tips on how to protect yourself from these types of scams:

- Never give out or confirm personal information over the phone, via email or on a website until you've checked out who is asking you for it.
- Do not trust a name, phone number, or email address just because it seems to be familiar. Con artists use official-sounding titles and may fake a caller ID or email address to gain your trust.
- If the email phone call, or text message seems fishy, it probably is. Contact the parish office to verify their request.
- Never click on any attachment from a suspicious sounding email or emails from people you are not familiar with.
- Our parish official projects, fundraisers, and appeals are accompanied by mailed letters, bulletin articles, posters, announcements, etc. Random e-mails and texts asking for money in ANY form is usually a scam.

As always, please feel free to call the parish office if you want to verify a message: 608.833.2600
