Words from Fr. Brian Wilk Parochial Administrator

An Easter Reflection

As we go through life,
we all experience little deaths.

We get a foretaste of death when we live in bitterness, loneliness, sadness and despair.
In times like these the world closes in on us,
and we seem to have one foot in the grave.

But we also experience little resurrections.
When we know love, acceptance, and forgiveness,
when we open our hearts to others and to life,
the world opens up and we emerge from the tomb.

Lord, may the splendor of your resurrection scatter the shadows of death, and enable us to walk in radiant hope towards the kingdom where there are no more shattered hopes and broken dreams.

On behalf of Fr. Brian, Msgr. Jim, and Fr. Jay, and the staffs of Our Lady Queen of Peace and St. Thomas Aquinas Parishes, may you have a joyful and hope-filled Easter.

He is Risen! Alleluia!

Easter Reflection by Dcn. Jerome

Alleluia! He is risen! Happy Easter! Like so many things, we can learn a bit about something by looking at its name. Most of the western world uses some form of the Latin word “pascha” (Passover) as the name for this holiday; for example, Pascua (de Resurrección) in Spanish. This certainly has biblical roots, linking Christ’s “Passover” to the Passover in the book of Exodus, with its many associated connections, such as the sacrificial lamb, the blood on the doorposts, and the movement from slavery to salvation. It is a most appropriate word for the mystery we celebrate today, connecting the resurrection with previous events in salvation history.

So where did the Anglo-Saxons come up with “Easter?” Well, according to etymologists, it comes from a proto-Germanic word “austron,” which meant “dawn,” also, a very accurate word to describe this holy day, especially if you use the alternate term “sunrise” (‘son-rise’). Sun(son)rise also marks the beginning of a new day, with the bright daylight defeating the dark night. There is yet another meaning to the word “Easter” – it is also linked to the name of an old English goddess, “Eostre,” who was the goddess of sunrise, spring and fertility and so, the goddess of new life, the goddess of spring rebirth after the death of winter. Christianity took this element of meaning, “new life after death” and connected it with the sacrificial death and glorious resurrection of Jesus on Easter.

So, whether you call it Pascua or Easter, new Passover or Sunrise, we rejoice in the same miracle on this most holy day! Celebrate!

Music & Liturgy Corner

Easter Vigil

The celebration of Easter begins at dusk on Holy Saturday with the celebration of the Easter Vigil. This most holy night celebrates the resurrection of Jesus Christ. Our journey with Christ through Lent ends with a celebration of new life. Christ triumphs over death and we share in His great triumph. As we bless the Easter fire and Easter candle, we will also celebrate the gift of Baptism, and through it, our own entrance into the Christian family. We celebrate the great Sacraments of Initiation as we welcome the newest members of our church: we celebrate with our Elect, the Sacraments of Baptism, Confirmation, and First Holy Communion, and we welcome our OCIA candidates into full Communion with the Roman Catholic Church.

Easter Season

The fifty days from Easter Sunday to Pentecost are celebrated in joyful exultation as one feast day, or better, as one “great Sunday.” These above all others are the days for the singing of the Alleluia. (General Norms, 22)

The first eight days of the Easter Season make up the octave of Easter and are celebrated as Solemnities of the Lord. At Mass on Easter Sunday, a double alleluia is added to the dismissal and its response. The sequence, Victimae Paschali, is mandatory on Easter Sunday, and is sung following the second reading, before the singing of the Alleluia! We renew our Baptismal Promises, confirming our commitment to Christ and His Church, and are sprinkled with Holy Water, celebrating our new birth made possible through Christ’s victory over sin and death! During the Easter Season, the Sprinkling Rite may take the place of the Penitential Rite at Mass as a continuing reminder of our new birth in Christ.

A Season of Thanks

During Lent, the Sacred Triduum (Holy Thursday, Good Friday, Easter Vigil), and the Easter Season, many people offer their time, talent, and treasure to support the prayer and work of our parish community. I would like to offer my most sincere thanks to our Parish Choir, Spanish Choir, Parish Cantors, Accompanists (Will Preston & Katrina Welborn), and the Brian Whitty Brass Ensemble; our Sacristans, Art & Environment Team, Flower Arrangers, and all those who help to create a beautiful and inspiring space for us as we gather for prayer; our Live-Stream Team, Liturgical Ministers, STA Parish Staff Members, and all who work behind the scenes to bring us together; and to our faithful and wonderful priests, Fr. Brian Wilk, Fr. Jay Poster, Msgr. Jim Gunn, and Fr. Brian Dulli. All these folks have given much of their time and talent to help us to pray so well during these celebrations. A word of thanks to all of you, our family members and friends, for joining us today in prayer, and for your support of our beloved St. Thomas Aquinas Parish. Please know that you are always welcome here at St. Thomas Aquinas and we look forward to seeing you here again for prayer, reflection, and fellowship. May we always be a place where people can experience Jesus Christ in a way that changes how they live! Love God. Love Others. Make Disciples. Easter Blessings.

Easter Flowers

In this quarter’s giving envelope packets you will find an envelope for Easter Flowers Offering. Donations from these envelopes go toward the beautiful Easter flowers and décor in the church, which we will use to decorate the sanctuary this Easter season. Help make our worship space beautiful for our celebration of the resurrection of Jesus and throughout the Easter season!

The back of the envelope has a place where you can fill in the name of a loved one to honor in remembrance of your gift. Names shared on these envelopes will be memorialized in the bulletin in April. If you would like to make a donation and include an honoree in the bulletin, please turn in your envelope, or cut out the form below, and drop it in the offertory by April 7th. Thank you for your generosity!

Fr. Pat Norris, OP, longtime priest chaplain and medical ethicist for St. Mary Hospital, and former pastor of Blessed Sacrament Parish, will offer an overview of the Diocese of Madison Norms for the Use of Extraordinary Ministers of Holy Communion. We will then explore the specific considerations of visiting patients in the hospital and hospice residential facilities. This training workshop is designed to equip EMHC with the confidence and skills needed to navigate these unique settings.

The faithful who are ill are deprived of their rightful and accustomed place in the Eucharistic community. In bringing Communion to them the Extraordinary Minister of Communion [EMHC] represents Christ and manifests faith and charity on behalf of the whole community toward those who cannot be present at the Eucharist. For the sick, the reception of Communion is not only a privilege but also a sign of support and concern shown by the Christian community for its members who are ill. Pastoral Care for the Sick

Deepen Your Love for God's Creation

During this Easter Season, consider joining us for the acclaimed JustFaith series, "Sacred Land: Food and Farming," and deepen your love for God and His Creation.

A graduate of the program says: "Participating in the JustFaith Sacred Land program will color the way I live and steward God's creation for the rest of my life."

We will learn how food and farming practices affect the climate crisis, marginalized communities, and our own health and spiritual wellbeing. We will discover practical ways to implement sustainable food and farming practices in the communities and institutions of which we are a part.

We will read and discuss Robin Wall Kimmerer's (Potawatomi) Braiding Sweetgrass: Indigenous Wisdom, Scientific Knowledge, and the Teachings of Plants; Pope Francis' Laudato Si': On Care for Our Common Home, and use Elizabeth Roberts' and Elias Amidon's Earth Prayers as a resource.

What better way to celebrate the Easter Season! We will offer this 8-session series at St. Thomas Aquinas Church weekly on Monday nights from 6-8 pm, starting on April 8. St. Thomas will cover the registration fee. Participants are responsible for purchasing or borrowing the books. If you are interested in joining us, contact Trudi Jenny, trudijenny@yahoo.com. Deadline for registration is April 3.

Care for God's Creation Rejoice!

We rejoice in Christ's Resurrection and pray that although we may not have accomplished all that we promised during our Lenten journey we drew closer to Jesus. May our experience of Easter joy be enhanced by the beauty of spring and all of God's creation.

"As persons of faith, this time of year is stunning. If we allow ourselves even a moment of contemplation, we can be humbled and overwhelmed by the beautiful mystery of the reawakening of creation. Our hearts lift with joy as the harbingers of sun and warmth work their springtime magic in us once again, leading us to thank and praise the Holy Mystery – whose love and power should never cease to amaze us, and never be taken for granted." --Catholic Health Association

We encourage you to talk a walk, marvel at God's presence among His gifts of creation, and renew your commitment to taking better care of these gifts.

Letters from STA's St. Vincent de Paul Conference

Our St. Vincent de Paul conference receives all types of requests for assistance from our neighbors. Many of the poor, including those working, spend a large portion of their income on rent leaving little money left for other essentials. Here is the story of one of our neighbors in need.

Last month our parish SVDP conference received a request from an 83 year old man who lives alone in an apartment on Regent Street. He asked if we could pay for shoes that he needed. His sole income is from Social Security, and over 70% of it goes towards his monthly rent. He has been wearing the same pair of shoes for 12 years, and they were in very bad shape. Because of arthritis, his shoe size is unusual, and our thrift stores had nothing that would fit him. After accompanying him to several shoe stores, we found one that had shoes that fit. The next day, he texted us "You can't imagine how good it feels to be wearing shoes that don't need to be repaired!" The financial support that our parish family provides to us allows us to help our elderly neighbors with needs such as this. Thank you!

QP & STA Support the Jesuit Mission in Mexico

Bats'il Maya Coffee and Crafts Available at STA the Second Sundays of the Month

In January of 1996, the Social Action Committee of Our Lady Queen of Peace developed a "sister parish" relationship with the Jesuit Mission in Bachajon, Chapas, Mexico. The goals of this relationship are:

- 1) To enrich the faith lives of the QP parishioners through close contact with our brothers and sisters of another culture and economic reality and a strong faith.
- 2) To support the clergy of the Jesuit mission in their work for the development of the spiritual and physical well-being in the members of their parishioners.

One of the ways through which Queen of Peace provides enrichment is through the selling of the coffee that the people in the mission grow and prepare for sale. There is also a group of artisans who produce beautiful, colorful needlework crafts that are offered for sale on the same weekends as when coffee is sold.

Bats'il Maya Coffee and craft items will soon be available for sale at St. Thomas Aquinas on the second Sunday of the month after Masses. It will also be available for sale at Our Lady Queen of Peace's hospitality weekends, the third Sunday of the month. Please stay tuned for more information on this exciting ministry!!

Above: 1) The final certified organic product available in beans or ground coffee; 2) Drying the coffee beans before they are shelled and roasted; 3) Fr. Bill Nolan blessing rosaries made by his parishioners and brought to Chiapas by a group of visitors from Our Lady Queen of Peace.
