THE HOLY FAMILY

He went down with them and came to Nazareth, and was obedient to them; and his mother kept all these things in her heart. And Jesus advanced in wisdom and age and favor before God and man.

- Lk 2:51-52

LA SAGRADA FAMILIA

Entonces volvió con ellos a Nazaret y siguió sujeto a su autoridad. Su madre conservaba en su corazón todas aquellas cosas. Jesús iba creciendo en saber, en estatura y en el favor de Dios y de los hombres.

- Lc 2, 51-52

Mission

Inspired by the Holy Spirit, we follow the footsteps of Jesus, through love for the Eucharist and outreach to those in need. As one Body of Christ, we are a diverse community journeying toward our common goal of the Kingdom of God.

Inspirados por el Espíritu Santo, nosotros caminamos en los pasos de Jesús, a través del amor a la Eucaristía y de la ayuda a los necesitados. Como un Cuerpo de Cristo, somos una comunidad diversa viajando hacia nuestro objetivo común del Reino de Dios.

The Holy Family of Jesus, Mary and Joseph, December 26, 2021

Vision

As a community we will act through:

- * Living out corporal and spiritual works of mercy,
- * Committing to individual and communal prayer,
  - * Growing in knowledge and faith,
  - * Communicating for Unity.

Como comunidad actuaremos a través de:

- * Vivir las obras corporales y espirituales de misericordia,
- * Comprometernos con la oración individual y comunitaria,
  - * Crecer en conocimiento y fe,
  - * Comunicar para la Unidad.

Evangelization Craftsmanship Missionary
Music Writing Healing Discernment of Spirits

As we begin the fourth week in Advent, have you gotten all your Christmas gifts bought?

The final countdown to Christmas brings a rush of things to do, and if we aren't prepared, it's sad how stressful and anxious this time of year can become. Wouldn't it be nice to have some help? When I need help, I go to God, remembering these words of scripture, “Ask and it will be given to you.”

Next time you ask God for help, also ask, “Do You need any help, my God? Is there anything I can do for You?” There is no need to doubt yourself as to whether or not you are prepared to help God. God has prepared each of us to be his helping presence to others. When we were baptized, God graced each of us with a special gift called a charism, a gift given to us by the Holy Spirit that allows us to help others. It's time to unwrap our charisms and put them to good use. Unwrap your gifts and share them with St. Katharine Drexel Parish and our ministries by becoming involved in Human Concerns, Building and Grounds, Parish and Finance Council, Choir, Hospitality, Eucharistic Ministers and Altar Serves, School Advisory Board, Children and Youth Ministry, Catholic Women, Art and Environment, to name just a few on our parish gift list. We'll be having a ministry info and sign-up weekend in February. We'd love for you to join us!

Finding God in All Things

“What do I desire in my life?”

“How can I make good decisions in an uncertain world?”

“Where is God in my life?”

The Ignatian Spirituality study group, Finding God in All Things, is based on the Spiritual Exercises of St. Ignatius of Loyola. We meet monthly on the last Wednesday of each month, at 7 p.m., to reflect together on the presence of God in our daily life, to ask questions, and to learn from each other.

Weekly emails are sent out to everyone in the group and include daily prayers, scripture reading, and reflections. Please contact Janice at the parish office at 920.887.2082 ext. 301 or email Janice at tischlerj@stkatharinedrexelbd.org to sign up.

To Those Who Struggle this Christmas

I want to speak to you whose heart is heavy. For whom this season is not merry and bright and who do not feel at all the singing.

You each lost cherished ones you loved, and due to this, many of your life’s dreams seem to have dissolved.

You find yourself no longer half of the whole you once felt securely part of.

I reach out to each of you who feel alone now, who have been broken by this past year by life’s cruelty, anger, and grief.

Ultimately, you now may find a million different reasons to find peace difficult to come by in a time when it’s supposed to be plentiful.

I’m sorry I don’t have any magic words to fix what is broken with you. I wish I could give you comfort, peace, and contentment.

I can’t say anything in this small amount of time that would mend what is severed in your life.

I just want to hopefully remind you of two things.

The FIRST is that you are truly not alone, that even though you’re uniquely suffering in the special sadness you’re inhabiting right now.

The SECOND thing I want to remind you is that this is your painful story right now, it is not the end of your story.

The way you feel now will not last forever. As difficult as it is to imagine in these painful moments – there will be holidays when lightness returns to you; days when you will cultivate new dreams again. When you once more feel secured in a place where you belong.

But right now, don’t feel any guilt for the sadness within you. Don’t beat yourself up for not wanting to sing now. Don’t feel pressured to have it all together.

Just receive this Christmas as it is, as you are – with all the struggle and uncertainty and grieving it brings.

With prayers of hope and peace,
The Bereavement Ministry

Please consider joining our next Bereavement Meeting on January 11th at 10:00 am.

If you have any questions, please contact Judy Vessey at 920-344-2761.

Words from Father Will

Dear friends,

Merry Christmas!

In recent decades we've seen the culture rapidly change the way that we celebrate the holidays. The season of Advent was probably always as busy as it is now, but there was a deeper and more thoughtful understanding for what we're preparing.

Due to secularism, Black Friday has become a sort of "official" beginning of the Christmas season. Rather than spend the Thanksgiving holiday with loved ones, the day might include a brief respite with others that involves a meal, but, for many, it ends in a long line at a big box store on a cold night. Perhaps this has been less common for the past couple of years. Still, the advertisements and sales come earlier and earlier, distracting us and drawing our attention away from the beauty of the season – the anticipation and preparation for the coming of Jesus Christ the King.

Now, Christ is here! In Psalm 97 we pray: The Lord is king; let the earth rejoice! Indeed, Jesus is our Lord and king and we presently enter into the actual liturgical season of Christmas. In these days of celebration we go to visit the newborn king in his humble place of birth. It is in Bethlehem, a place of the utmost simplicity, where the greatest event in human history happened. It is there that the Incarnation took place. Further, it is to an unassuming young woman from Nazareth that the Christ Child was born. His foster-father was not a wealthy businessman, but a plain carpenter. Christ was born into a family. He entered not into a world unknown or unfamiliar to us, but into the most basic unit or building block of society.

For us, that God took on flesh in the person of Jesus Christ and lived on this earth within a family is so important. The sanctification of our souls and our spiritual lives is not limited to the church building or Sunday Mass, but rather, we find ourselves seeking holiness of life and battling against forces of evil in the ordinariness of our lives – in our homes and families. As individual families and as the family of God we turn to the Holy Family as that most perfect example so each one of our families serve as a seedbed of virtue and holiness. May this season of Christmas and the celebration of the Feast of the Holy Family be a reminder that God humbled himself to bring our hearts to the joys of heaven!

Christmas Blessings!

Fr. Will

Queridos amigos,

¡Feliz Navidad!

En las últimas décadas, hemos visto cómo la cultura ha cambiado rápidamente la forma en que celebramos las fiestas. La temporada de Adviento probablemente siempre estuvo tan ocupada como ahora, pero había una comprensión más profunda y reflexiva de lo que estamos preparando.

Debido al secularismo, el Black Friday se ha convertido en una especie de comienzo "oficial" de la temporada navideña. En lugar de pasar las vacaciones de Acción de Gracias con los seres queridos, el día puede incluir un breve respiro con otros que implica una comida, pero, para muchos, termina en una larga fila en una gran tienda en una noche fría. Quizás esto ha sido menos común durante los últimos años. Aun así, los anuncios y las ventas llegan cada vez más temprano, distrayéndonos y alejando nuestra atención de la belleza de la temporada: la anticipación y preparación para la venida de Jesucristo el Rey.

¡Ahora, Cristo está aquí! En el Salmo 97 oramos: "El Señor es Rey; ¡Regocíjese la tierra!" De hecho, Jesús es nuestro Señor y Rey y así entramos en el tiempo litúrgico actual de la Navidad. En estos días de celebración vamos a visitar al rey recién nacido en su humilde lugar de nacimiento. Es en Belén, un lugar de la máxima sencillez, donde ocurrió el mayor acontecimiento de la historia de la humanidad. Allí tuvo lugar la Encarnación. Además, el Niño Jesús nació de una joven sin pretensiones de Nazaret. Su padre adoptivo no era un rico hombre de negocios, sino un simple carpintero. Cristo nació en una familia. No entró en un mundo desconocido o desconocido para nosotros, sino en la unidad o componente más básico de la sociedad.

Para nosotros, que Dios se haya encarnado en la persona de Jesucristo y haya vivido en esta tierra dentro de una familia es muy importante. La santificación de nuestras almas y nuestra vida espiritual no se limita al edificio de la iglesia o la misa dominical, sino que nos encontramos buscando la santidad de vida y luchando contra las fuerzas del mal en la vida ordinaria, en nuestros hogares y familias. Como familias individuales y como la familia de Dios, nos dirigimos a la Sagrada Familia como el ejemplo más perfecto para que cada una de nuestras familias sirva como semillero de virtud y santidad. ¡Que este tiempo de Navidad y la celebración de la Fiesta de la Sagrada Familia sean un recordatorio de que Dios se humilló para llevar nuestros corazones a las alegrías del cielo!

¡Bendiciones de Navidad!

P. Will

Merry Christmas from Lifelong Faith!

May you and your family enjoy all of your holiday traditions and cherish the time you have together. We hope you can take the time to reflect with your children how much a gift Jesus is to us through His example while here on earth. Take some time to pause by the manger as a family and think about what you do to serve others as a family in the same way Jesus served us. Celebrate the joy of Mass and enjoy the gift of the Eucharist. The Eucharist gives us life spiritually and certainly provides strength in times of struggle.

We had a pretty eventful Advent and encourage you to seek out some of beautiful ministries in the next year! Here are some pictures from Advent by Candlelight and our Parish Mission to name just a few:

Communion Distribution Guidelines

The presider's line will allow people to receive in the hand or on the tongue without discrimination of order. Going forward there will be an Extraordinary Eucharistic minister assigned to distribute communion on the hand only so that those who are concerned about receiving Communion after someone who might have received on the tongue can be at ease. There will not be an additional minister at daily Masses. In the event that there is someone at daily Mass concerned about this, they are encouraged to step forward and receive first. There are no servers at daily Mass, so they would be the first. Fr. Will
