Grieving In The New Year

The new year always brings on opportunity for renewal and a fresh start, except when you’re grieving. When you’ve lost someone you love-recently, or even years ago. The new year can bring on a tidal wave of emotions and expectations. The idea of the starting over in the new year can feel unwanted or even just overwhelming.

If you have a New Year’s resolution to be less sad on your list, strike it out right now. I’ve heard people say they are going to quit grieving at the beginning of the year only to have this resolution fall flat on its face.

New Year’s simply looks different for those who are grieving. You may find yourself more alone than ever as you watch your friends and loved ones carry on celebrating and making resolutions to embrace the year ahead.

When you’re grieving there is a sad feeling that comes with the passing of time, and nothing feels like more of a reminder of this than the new year.

Allow grief to be part of our new year. Be kind to yourself. Whether this is your first year without your loved one or whether it’s been many years since your loss it’s important to honor your feelings and give yourself the time you need to grieve. There will be other years when you feel like celebrating again, but this year be gentle with yourself. So many of us are afraid to feel all the big emotions that come after a loss. These feelings can be overwhelming and make you feel like you’re not functioning like everyone else around you, but let that be okay for now. Use the new year to take a deep breath, remember you will not always be in this space. There is an identity shift that comes with losing someone close. The absence of the one who is no longer with us will force change within us. When we can let the loss shape us and change us we will grow with experience rather than against it.

Please consider joining our next Bereavement Meeting on January 11th at 10:00 am.

If you have any questions, please contact Judy Vessey at 920-344-2761.

Words from Father Will

Dear friends,

Happy New Year!

As we celebrate the Baptism of the Lord this Sunday we conclude the Christmas season and re-enter Ordinary Time. Although Ordinary Time means “numbered,” it does feel rather ordinary or regular. With the conclusion of the holidays there may not be much excitement in our lives during these long, cold winter days. Yet, that ordinariness with a regular schedule is good for us. It keeps us focused on where God wants us.

With the beginning of a new year there is an opportunity in refocusing on where we are and where God wants us to be. Perhaps some of you have resolutions for 2022. The start of a new year and new season is a chance to grow in the spiritual life. Dial into your faith with some new prayers: add a couple of minutes of prayer a day or incorporate some Scripture or theological study into your week. I’ve personally found Fr. Mike Schmitz’ Bible in a Year podcast to be an extraordinary tool. It, among many programs, keeps a person accountable and is also convenient for anyone with a lot of driving.

Of course, with a fresh start we also want to leave behind anything hindering us from growing in the spiritual life. Take advantage of the Sacrament of Confession regularly to maintain that momentum throughout the year. God is always calling us to go deeper and each day is another chance to do so.

On the topic of new beginnings, I would like to introduce Fr. Onildo, our new associate pastor for St. Katharine Drexel, St. John the Baptist, Holy Family, and St. Columbkille parishes. We welcome his presence and willingness to spread the Gospel and love for Christ. Thank you, Fr. Onildo for coming to Dodge County! God bless your ministry here!

In Christ,

Fr. Will

Queridos amigos,

¡Feliz año nuevo!

Al celebrar el Bautismo del Señor este domingo, concluimos la temporada navideña y volvemos a entrar en el Tiempo Ordinario. Aunque Ordinary Time significa "numerado", se siente bastante ordinario o regular. Con la conclusión de las vacaciones puede que no haya mucha emoción en nuestras vidas durante estos largos y fríos días de invierno. Sin embargo, esa normalidad con un horario regular es buena para nosotros. Nos mantiene enfocados en donde Dios nos quiere.

Con el comienzo de un nuevo año, existe la oportunidad de reenfoarnos en dónde estamos y dónde Dios quiere que estemos. Quizás algunos de ustedes tengan propósitos para el 2022. El comienzo de un nuevo año y una nueva temporada es una oportunidad para crecer en la vida espiritual. Marque su fe con algunas oraciones nuevas: agregue un par de minutos de oración al día o incorpore un poco de estudio bíblico o teológico en su semana. Encontré personalmente al P. El podcast Biblia en un año de Mike Schmitz será una herramienta extraordinaria. Entre muchos programas, mantiene a una persona responsable y también es conveniente para cualquier persona que maneje mucho.

Por supuesto, con un nuevo comienzo también queremos dejar atrás todo aquello que nos impida crecer en la vida espiritual. Aproveche el Sacramento de la Confesión con regularidad para mantener ese impulso durante todo el año. Dios siempre nos está llamando a profundizar y cada día es otra oportunidad para hacerlo.

Sobre el tema de los nuevos comienzos, me gustaría presentar al P. Onildo, nuestro nuevo pastor asociado de las parroquias St. Katharine Drexel, St. John the Baptist, Holy Family y St. Columbkille. Damos la bienvenida a su presencia y disposición para difundir el Evangelio y el amor a Cristo. Gracias, p. ¡Onildo por venir al condado de Dodge! ¡Dios bendiga su ministerio aquí!

En Cristo,

P. Will

Communion Distribution Guidelines

The presider's line will allow people to receive in the hand or on the tongue without discrimination of order. Going forward there will be an Extraordinary Eucharistic minister assigned to distribute communion on the hand only so that those who are concerned about receiving Communion after someone who might have received on the tongue can be at ease. There will not be an additional minister at daily Masses. In the event that there is someone at daily Mass concerned about this, they are encouraged to step forward and receive first. There are no servers at daily Mass, so they would be the first. Fr. Will

MISSION

Find out what makes God happy. As a family, read John 15:9-12.

GOSPEL

Your Dad says, "Wash your hands, please. It is almost time to eat." After you wash your hands really well, your Dad smiles. He says, "That's my boy. You did a good job!" In today's Gospel, it was time for Jesus to be baptized. After his baptism, Jesus talked to God his Father in prayer. Jesus did everything his Father asked. God was happy with his Son and said, "I'm pleased with you."

PRAYER

God, I want to make you and my parents happy.

Make a list of what you can do to make God and your parents happy.
