Thanks to All Rummage Sale Workers

You really came together as a parish once again. I can't thank you enough! The many people who come to help year after year, and all the new faces this year, it was so wonderful to see. You marked over 1000 items, folded many, many clothes, came on the 3 day sale to work, and shop. Thank you to the shoppers. We even had someone who baked for us and brought the baked goods warm. Thank you also, to the ladies who placed the ad on the internet. We tried going without ads in the newspaper and I think it worked out very well. For packing and loading the truck we had the most people ever to help. We cleaned up in record time! So I appreciate all of you, and from the bottom of my heart I say thank you! There are still a few pieces of furniture we are going to try to sell, but because of you we broke $9,000! ~ Kathy Zarling
P.S. Thanks much to you, too, Kathy!

Today we welcome Brooke Ashley Sullivan and initiate her into the Mystery of Christ as lived here in our St. Luke Community. We congratulate their parents: Jeff and Beth; and her Godparents, Matthew and Jessie Sullivan.

Music Ministry Update:

As far as I know, unless things change, I am hoping that we can resume a "normal" rehearsal schedule for the year beginning after Labor Day for all of our adult Music Ministry ensembles. We will need to incorporate whatever safety practices are recommended at that time. I am not even going to pretend to guess what they might be at this time.

I am proposing the following schedule:
Singing Choir Rehearsals beginning on Tuesday, Sept 7 at 7:00pm
Handbell Choir rehearsals beginning on Monday, Sept. 13 at 7:00pm.
Please contact me after any Mass, or in the parish office, with any questions, or to come forward to join us.
New singers and ringers welcome! ~ Shawn Rochon

Miracles of Distribution

More than three billion people suffer "food insecurity" which means they go hungry each day or are at risk of going hungry. Today's scriptures remind us that God wants all people to share the gifts of God's bounty. Both the Old Testament and New Testament readings highlight the fact that everyone had more than enough to eat.

Sadly, the food distribution systems in our world cause hunger. Food is abundant and wasted in the developed world while it is scarce in the developing world. As Christians, we are called to mitigate the effects of unjust distribution and waste.

Many Catholic churches and organizations support food pantries, soup kitchens, and provide food for hungry people around the world. However, we are also called to address the root causes of hunger like monetary policy, trade rules, sweatshops, the rights of farm workers, the role of large corporations and governments in food policies.

Visit www.bread.org to learn how you can work to end the root causes of hunger.

In the Gospel, Jesus supersedes both the apostles' and the crowds' expectations: with little he feeds many...Jesus is the sign of God's lavish presence and love. Your donation to the Society of St. Vincent de Paul is indeed a sign of God's extravagant love to the lonely and the poor.

This month, through your gifts, the St. Luke Society of St. Vincent de Paul was able to assist families and individuals with food and rent. We also were able to provide milk and desserts as we served dinner at the Hope Center in Waukesha.

Social Gathering of Reconnection
Saturday, July 31 - 2:30—4:30 PM

Please remember to sign up on our website stlukebrookfield.org or by contacting Jane in the parish office 262-782-0032

Blest Art will be visiting St. Luke Parish on behalf of the Christian families in Bethlehem, Palestine. Their mission is to support those families in the Holy Land. When Blest Art visits, they will have hand-carved nativity sets, statues, crosses, rosaries, and many other pieces of beautiful olive wood art.
Please visit the display in the Narthex Meeting Room at all Masses for Sunday August 1st.
Cash, checks, and major credit cards gladly accepted.

From Cathy's Desk

The miracle of feeding the multitude is found in all four Gospels. However, there is a difference in John's Gospel in that it is Jesus who personally takes the food serves each of the people present. In doing this he is not only nourishing them with food to sustain them, but Jesus is also sharing part of himself, helping to fill their hearts as well. When the meal was over and everyone present had their fill, he asked the apostles to collect the leftovers so nothing would go to waste. We in some ways are like this meal. We have many gifts both individually and collectively. It is important for us to use all of the gifts we have been given and share them, letting nothing go to waste. During this next week, I invite you to consider your gifts. Then ask yourself, "Am I letting my gifts go to waste?" Our God is the God of abundance. May we learn to be God-like and share ourselves abundantly.

Adult Question: When has the generous gift of another offered you hope?

Child Question: What loving gift could you give to another person this week?

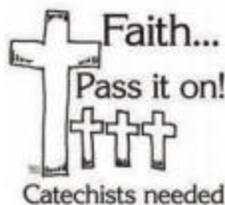

Cathy Smith

Director of Faith Formation/Pastoral Associate

Children's Liturgy of the Word

At the 10:30am Mass each Sunday, the children of the parish are offered an opportunity to hear the Gospel and one additional reading as well as participate in the Psalm in language which is easier to understand. Currently, we are in need of high school students and/or adults to share in this ministry. Ideally, we are seeking 4-6 people and people willing to act as substitutes. Please contact Cathy Smith csmith@stlukebrookfield.org or (262) 782-0032 ext 106.

ROCKY RAILWAY, JESUS' POWER PULLS US THROUGH!

Parents and Grandparents! The time is now!!! Register your children for Vacation Bible Camp!!!

Vacation Bible Camp is a fun way to make friends and learn more about the Bible, our Catholic faith, and learn some cool and interesting new facts. The children will also be involved in a fundraising opportunity to help provide a Birthday Party for children ministered to by the MacCanon Brown Homeless Sanctuary.

Registration forms are available on the table in the Narthex! The fee for the 5 days of fun and worship is only $25 per child, with a family cap of $50.

One of the needs we have is for 4 king or queen sheets in either light blue or white. We will be using them for our scenery.

If you would like to help create the environment, we will be decorating on Sunday, July 25th following the 10:30am Mass please contact Cathy Smith, csmith@stlukebrookfield.org or (262) 782-0032, ext. 106.

From the Pastor

One common thread that was woven in our COVID-19 experience; the most often expressed sentiment this past year and a half has been ‘we miss the weekly physical presence and human interaction of gathering in Eucharist and parish activities. I miss my friends. I hate the isolation.’ Was this your experience? It certainly was mine as your pastor. We are human beings and we thrive on physical interaction. That’s a good thing! God took on flesh in Jesus and that incarnation continues in each and everyone of us; each and every day of our lives, for a Baptismal Lifetime. Each of us is precious. We are ‘God’s Works of Art’ as we will sing again this Sunday as we baptize Brooke Ashley Sullivan, and we need one another in community to be our best and fullest selves. We are ‘in the flesh;’ we are incarnational beings; we are an incarnational church. We need one another! It’s that simple.

“A SOCIAL GATHERING OF RECONNECTION” is an invitation to return to Mass and Parish Life as the Community of St. Luke. Virtual liturgy can never, and should never, replace the act of full, active, conscious...and in-person... celebration of the Eucharist by the Baptized, unless under extreme circumstance (like a pandemic). The ability to stream our liturgies gave us a connection, a source of communal prayer, and bit of familiarity during a very unfamiliar time when this was the only way we could come together. Thanks to all who made it possible.

It is the hope of all of us that each member of our St. Luke Parish Family, return to the in-person celebration of Eucharist as soon as possible; safely, of course. We are still offering safety protocols to help make everyone comfortable. Please consider returning, in-person, to your St. Luke Community of Faith as we enter into this new phase of post-pandemic life. We need to reconnect; re-weave our lives together as we share our stories; sorrows and joys, once again. The fabric of our life is strengthened as the threads of our individual lives are woven together.

Hope to see you at our “SOCIAL GATHERING OF RECONNECTION” on July 31st.

I offer the following reflection by Cardinal Blasé Cupich, “Community the Antidote to the Virus” published in Chicago Catholic (Feb. 3, 2021).

On Jan. 30, Pope Francis spoke about the isolation and sense of loneliness caused by the COVID-19 pandemic. He observed that the virus has “dug into the living fabric of our existence, fueling fears, suspicions, mistrust and uncertainty.” How true it is. Indeed, the pandemic has bred the additional viruses of division, fear and even panic. Yet, the pope urges, we must learn the lesson that this moment of crisis has taught us: “The only way to get out of a crisis better is to get out of a crisis together, re-embracing with more conviction the community in which we live.”

What makes Pope Francis’ remarks all the more noteworthy is that they came on the occasion of his address to members of the National Catechistic Office of the Italian Bishops’ Conference, as it celebrates its 60th anniversary. He took this moment to urge that the need to place community at the center of all we do has much to say about how we are to carry on as a church, especially as we pass on its teachings.

“This is not the time for elitist strategies. ... The great community,” the pope continued, is “the holy faithful people of God. We cannot go on outside the holy faithful people of God, who — as the [Second Vatican] Council says — are infallible in believing.” Elitism “distances you from the people of God, perhaps with sophisticated formulas, but you lose that membership of the church that is the holy faithful people of God,” the pope said.

The message is clear. We all must listen to one another in the church, and no person or group can claim to have all the answers. The task before us is to pave the way in the church for all to participate. This is not a time to discard those who disagree or have not yet come to a full understanding and acceptance of what the church teaches. Rather, this is a time to cultivate an ethic of genuine listening, of broadening participation in the life of the church — both as a path toward a more unified community of faith, and as a means of escaping isolation of several kinds.

As the Holy Father observed, this is “the time to be artisans of open communities” and “missionaries” of “communities that look disappointed young people in the eye, that welcome strangers and give hope to the distrusted. ... It is the time of community that, like the Good Samaritan, knows how to be close to those who are wounded by life, to bandage their wounds with compassion.” Pope Francis continues this same message in our day by putting the word “synodality” at the centerpiece of his service as pontiff. For the church to be true to its nature, circumstances must be created to allow all its members to take co-responsibility by sharing their talents in a bond of mutual communion and respect ... since the flock likewise has an instinctive ability to discern the new ways that the Lord is revealing to the church.”

That includes young people, women and men, critics, those who suffer injustice and live at the margins of society. This is a time to build bridges so that community life can flourish, even if there are still unsettled tensions and different points of view, for it is in this space that God’s grace is often given. Everyone must be included in charting a path forward, as opposed to selecting who remains and who is cast out.

The pope is right. The pandemic has left us isolated, fearful and suspicious of one another. This virus has dug deeply “into the living fabric of our existence,” as he noted. All the more reason for us as a church to be vigilant so that this infection will not invade the life of the church by leaving us suspicious or mistrusting of one another. The only antidote to this virus of division is one that Jesus himself prayed for on the night before he died — “that they may be one.” It is community, our shared life together, that must be the core value we pursue and promote.

Hope to see you at our “SOCIAL GATHERING OF RECONNECTION” on July 31st, 2:30-4:30 PM with the possibility of joining in 5 PM Eucharist as well. See above for registration/sign in instructions.

Peace, Your Pastor, Kenneth

PRAYER FOR THE FIRST WORLD DAY FOR GRANDPARENTS AND THE ELDERLY

I thank You, Lord,
for the comfort of Your presence:
even in times of loneliness,
You are my hope and my confidence,
You have been my rock and my fortress since my youth!

I thank You for having given me a family and for having blessed me with a long life.
I thank You for moments of joy and difficulty, for the dreams that have already come true in my life and for those that are still ahead of me.
I thank You for this time of renewed fruitfulness to which You call me.

Increase, O Lord, my faith,
make me a channel of your peace,
teach me to embrace those who suffer more than me,
to never stop dreaming
and to tell of your wonders to new generations.

Protect and guide Pope Francis and the Church, that the light of the Gospel might reach the ends of the earth.
Send Your Spirit, O Lord, to renew the world, that the storm of the pandemic might be calmed,
the poor consoled and wars ended.

Sustain me in weakness and help me to live life to the full in each moment that You give me, in the certainty that you are with me every day,
even until the end of the age.

Amen.
