Senior Corner

Adele Lund's blog this month is focusing on what she is calling an: An Inter-faith Assemblage. She is talking about a special relationship that she gained through this effort with Fr. Mike, who retired recently. He wanted to step up his volunteer efforts and agreed to minister in one of our memory care units.

"I recently asked him to share what he's experienced in his new role and he sent me the following note: 'When I was asked to consider leading worship for the residents in your memory care, I considered it a challenge to be creative with an "inter-faith" assemblage. What surprised me was that often, the children of those being cared for in suites dropped by regularly to stay and pray with mom or dad. Since ours is an informal opportunity to pray, make connections and to sing, all are welcome to join us, including staff who pray and sing along'."

Senior Fest III--Thursday, October 10th at St. Seb's. Our senior talent this year will focus on crafts. We will be inviting all who are involved in crafts to exhibit your best work!
