The 2022 Mass intention book is here and ready to be filled with your prayer requests.

If you would like to schedule a Mass intention for next year, please contact Terese in the parish office. Intentions are scheduled on a first-come, first-served basis and weekend Masses fill up quickly, so please anticipate that if you have special needs or plans. There are dates still available for this year as well.

Intentions may be for a deceased loved one, someone who is sick or suffering, in celebration of a birthday, anniversary or other special moment, or a prayer request. A $10 stipend is suggested, but any donation amount is appreciated.

For more information on requesting a Mass intention visit <https://bit.ly/PiusXPrayers>.

Justice & Peace

Black Lives Are Sacred

Have you heard of this group? They were formed last year after the killing of George Floyd as a faith based group to "proclaim the sacredness of Black Lives, amplifying Black voices and inspiring people of faith to stand up for racial justice. They provide weekly opportunities throughout the Milwaukee area for "witness demonstrations". Groups gather, spend a few moments in prayer, grab signs (provided, if needed) and stand along streets and intersections to be a visible sign of support for Black Lives. If participants are able, there is the chance to kneel for 9 minutes in silence and prayer. The Justice and Peace Commission is partnering with Kingdom Prep High School to host a witness demonstration. Please, consider taking time out of your day to join us.

Date: Thursday, August 26th

Time: 5:30 - 6:30 pm

Location: Gather in the Pius parking lot. We will stand along both sides of Wauwatosa Avenue. Bring an appropriate sign if you can, but signs will be available.

A Letter From Fr. Paul

On the feast day of St. Pius X, August 21st, parish leaders will participate in a retreat focused on what we have experienced and learned during the pandemic that can help our community, as we move into the future. Please keep us in your prayers.

August 20th is the feast day of St. Bernard of Clairvaux. We remember our neighboring community in our prayers that day, asking God to bless them.

This weekend we celebrate the Assumption of the Blessed Virgin Mary, our belief that Mary was taken, body and soul, into heaven, when she died. It reaffirms that our bodies are an important part of who we are and that our body and soul will be reunited in heaven.

The Gospel chosen for this feast is the Visitation, Mary's visit to her cousin Elizabeth, immediately after she said "yes" to God's request that she bear a son.

What is so striking is Mary's first reaction to the incredible experience she had. It wasn't, "Oh my goodness, wait until I tell everyone about this!" It wasn't, "What do I have to do, now, to prepare myself for this?" It wasn't "How am I going to explain this to Joseph?" Her first thought was about her older cousin who was pregnant and might need her help, so she went "in haste" to help her.

What a wonderful example for us of thinking of the needs of others, instead of concentrating only on ourselves.

Self-preservation is part of our DNA and we need to take care of ourselves and those we are responsible for. But it does not have to be at the exclusion of thinking of others. The problem comes when we want more and more and more, while others don't have what they need. Or when we spend all our free time indulging our personal whims and comforts, when there are elderly relatives and neighbors for whom a visit would be worth more than gold.

God has given all of us time, talent, and treasure. How are we using them? Do we tend to concentrate only on ourselves and our family? Or, like Mary, are we able to think of others, especially those in need? God bless.

Church sign of the week: Ask not what God can do for you, but what you can do for God.

Paul James Portland, OFS

Welcome Rob & Jennifer Braasch & family to our family of faith! May your participation in our community help you to grow spiritually.

New members, as well as family and friends are welcome! This group, for those 50 and older, meets about once a month for worship, fellowship, luncheons and semiannual tours. To join, or for more information, call Sue Langel at (414) 445-6266.
