Whether you are new to the area or visiting from another parish, welcome to our faith community! If you wish to become a member of our parish family, please take a "New Membership" packet available in the church lobby, call the parish office at (414) 453-3875 or visit www.stpiusparish.org/im-new.html.

Hearing Assistance Available

St. Pius X offers the Hearing Loop system.

Here's how it works. If you have hearing aids or a cochlear implant with the telecoil or "T" coil, flip the switch and you will have the spoken word of the priest or the music fed directly into your hearing aid, eliminating background noise. If your hearing aid does not have the telecoil or "T" coil, it can be added.

If you do not have hearing aids, headphones are located in the back of church next to the "wailing wall," in order to get access to the Hearing Loop (ask the hospitality ministers if you are unable to find them).

Headphones can also be purchased at <https://amzn.to/3oxruzG> and can be used in a variety of other venues such as theaters and libraries. For a list of Hearing Loop Installations in Wisconsin visit <https://bit.ly/3lqKWpF>.

It's Salvatorian Sunday!

We invite you to be a part of our mission and ministry through your prayers and support. We are a small but vibrant religious community with a unique ministry approach. We are not running large institutions, we encourage our members to serve where they feel called to serve. You will find our men serving on college campuses, high schools, nursing homes, hospitals, prisons, in social justice ministries and those little nooks and crannies of the world.

We walk humbly alongside those we serve. We serve as an extension of the Lord's hand, helping people to know Christ by our example of acceptance, non judgment and sharing of the Gospel.

Salvatorian Sunday weekend events around the country provide us with the opportunity to share more of our story. Our founder, Fr. Francis Jordan vision remains steadfast to our daily mission: "Make Jesus Known Through All Ways and Means That the Love of Christ Inspires."

Please be as generous as you can in your support, both monetarily and in prayer. Donations can be made online at <https://bit.ly/salvatoriansundaypiusx> or by using the envelopes provided in the back of church. We ask that you return your envelope or donate online in the next few weeks.

Thank you for your support!

A Letter From Fr. Paul

This weekend, we have our annual “Salvatorian Sunday” collection, in which the Society of the Divine Savior asks for your financial support, especially for our formation program, which prepares future ministers for this parish and other ministries. Envelopes are being handed out that can be dropped in the collection box or returned to the parish office over the coming weeks. Donations can also be made online. I thank you in advance for your support of my community.

Today we celebrate the 2nd Sunday of Ordinary time. During Ordinary time, we are learning how to bring God’s love and compassion into the world by reflecting on the words and actions of Jesus.

Our Gospel today presents the wedding feast at Cana. I would like to comment on the interaction presented between Mary and Jesus. The wine is running out and the hosts would be very embarrassed. Mary says to Jesus, “They have no wine,” implicitly asking Him to do something. Jesus replies, “How does your concern affect me? My hour has not yet come,” implying that He will do nothing. Mary says nothing to Jesus, but tells the servants to do whatever He tells them. She knew that Jesus loved her and would do what was right. And the problem was solved!

What does this say to us? There a lot of things we need as we go through life. It might be to get a job or solve a problem. Often, it might be because we or someone we love is sick. Like Mary, we turn to God and we ask for help. But it might seem that God doesn’t hear us or is not answering. The situation might even get worse and all we experience is a deafening silence.

That is when we have to act like Mary and simply move forward, trusting that Jesus HAS heard us and, since He loves us and has promised to be with us, He will answer our prayer. It might not be right now. It might not be the way we want it to be answered. But Jesus knows best, Jesus loves us, and Jesus will answer our prayer in the best way possible. We simply need to move forward, as did Mary, and all will be well. This is called “trusting in Divine Providence” and it was one of the central charisms of Blessed Francis Jordan, the founder of the Salvatorian Family. The medieval mystic Julian of Norwich expressed it as, “All will be well, and all will be well, and all manner of things will be well.”

When I am stressed about something, I repeat those words to myself as a mantra, reminding myself how everything turned out so well for Francis Jordan, despite some incredible difficulties that were thrown at him.

I invite you this week to reflect on Mary forging ahead, despite the seeming reluctance of Jesus to do anything. Are you allowing trust in Divine Providence to calm any fears and anxieties? Can you pray with Julian of Norwich, “All will be well, and all will be well, and all manner of things will be well”?

St. Thomas said it well: “Lord I believe, help my unbelief.”

Church sign of the week: Never let adversity get you down, except on your knees.
