“Three Parishes In One Family”

• OUR VISION •

We the members of Baraga County Catholic Community are three parishes in one family. We seek daily for the grace of God poured out in prayer and the sacraments to be the-best-version-of-ourselves both as individual believers and as a fellowship of the Body of Christ. We seek the lost by our hands-on outreach and unwavering evangelization efforts. Our one aim is to advance the kingdom of God by living the motto of Venerable Bishop Frederic Baraga to do all we do for the greater glory of God, which is the “one thing necessary”.

Please join us for the National Night of Prayer for The Unborn at Sacred Heart on Sunday, December 8 from 9:00 pm to Monday, December 9 at 1:00 am.

In conclusion of our nine month novena, all are invited to join us in Consecrating to Our Lady of Guadalupe on Her Feast, Thursday, December 12, following either the 8:15 am Mass or the 12:10 Mass.

Please join us for a Flame of Love Holy Hour on Mondays at 6:00 pm at Sacred Heart and Holy Name of Jesus Churches. We will pray the Flame of Love Rosary and accompanying prayers. All are welcome.

First Reading:

“For God will show all the earth your splendor: you will be named by God forever the peace of justice, the glory of God’s worship.” (Bar 5:3-4)

Psalm:

The Lord has done great things for us; we are filled with joy. (Ps 126)

Second Reading:

So that you may be pure and blameless for the day of Christ, filled with the fruit of righteousness that comes through Jesus Christ. (Phil 1:10-11)

Gospel:

“The winding roads shall be made straight, and the rough ways made smooth, and all flesh shall see the salvation of God.” (Lk 3:5-6)

Do your Christmas shopping with SCRIP cards that you can purchase through us. It doesn't cost anything more to you for what you are already spending, but each gift card sold gives the school a percentage back.

Go to <https://www.RaiseRight.com/brands> to see a list of brands.

There is also the option of signing up for the electronic SCRIP program called RaiseRight at <https://www.RaiseRight.com/shop> and getting gift cards before you check out at your favorite stores! This is an App that you can get on your phone.

Our school code is: F847111316613

We generally submit orders on Tuesdays by noon and receive in on Friday. Thank you for considering your giving options with our school!

Come Shovel Our Snow!

Sacred Heart School has a position open for an outside maintenance person, responsible for snow removal. There is a snowblower available for the heavier snows. The main sidewalk needs to be cleared by 7:30 a.m. on school days, additional time is available to clear the secondary sidewalks. Applications may be picked up at the school office, or by emailing principal@sacredheartlanse.org. The position is available immediately.

December 11: Christmas Pageant in the church for grades K-5. Parents please drop your child off at the church NOT at the school at 6:30. Program will start shortly after. Please join us in the church basement after the program for a short reception.

December 18: Regular classes/Penance Service. This will be our last class of the year.

January 8, 2025: Classes resume

Second grade students are preparing for First Communion and First Reconciliation. Eleventh grade students are preparing for Confirmation. If your child or grandchild has not received these sacraments, it is not too late to bring them to Faith Formation.

Ask yourself "Am I only giving from my surplus wealth?" and then give your gift to the Society of St. Vincent de Paul so that those who are suffering will be able to know God's love and care.

The readings for the Second Week of Advent offer both encouragement and challenge during this brief but important season of the liturgical year. Recall from last week that the purpose of this season is reflection on and preparation for the two "comings" of Christ – His coming as a baby on the great feast of Christmas, and the anticipation of His second coming at the end of time.

Our First Reading, from Baruch, is a wonderful reminder that God has already triumphed over sin and death and that we, His faithful disciples, will live in the light of His glory one day. "Up, Jerusalem! Stand upon the heights; look to the east and see your children gathered from the east and the west at the word of the Holy One, rejoicing that they are remembered by God... For God has commanded that every loft mountain be made low... that Israel may advance secure in the glory of God... for God is leading Israel in joy by the light of his glory, with his mercy and justice for company."

The Gospel reading from Luke shows us how personal and detailed is God's love for humanity as He prepared the way for Christ's coming among us. We are told the precise time, place, and person, John the Baptist, He appointed to announce the arrival of our Savior. Through John, we are told how to celebrate to the fullest this first "coming" on the feast of Christmas and how to prepare for the second coming — through repentance.

Let's turn away from any bad habits or sin that may have crept into our lives and turn our hearts and minds back to Christ this Advent. This is what the stewardship way of life is all about —moving closer ever closer in relationship with Christ and imitation of Him, ready to celebrate His birth, with eyes fixed on eternal life with Him.

“Preparing the Way with Peace”

Dear Parish Family,

As we journey through Advent, the second week invites us to focus on the theme of peace. In the Gospel of Luke, John the Baptist calls us to prepare the way for the Lord, saying, “Prepare the way of the Lord, make straight his paths” (Luke 3:4). This preparation is not just about external actions, but about the interior transformation that allows God’s peace to take root in our hearts.

The peace that Advent speaks of is not a superficial or fleeting sense of calm, but the deep and lasting peace that comes from being in right relationship with God. In a world filled with noise and distractions, it can be easy to overlook the need for inner peace. But Advent calls us to slow down, to listen, and to prepare ourselves for the coming of Christ, who is the Prince of Peace (Isaiah 9:6).

This peace, however, is not just a personal gift; it is a peace meant to transform the world. As the Catechism of the Catholic Church teaches, “True peace is made in justice” (CCC 2304). The preparation for Christ’s coming also includes a commitment to justice—working for reconciliation, healing, and the well-being of others. As we prepare for the Prince of Peace, we are called to be peacemakers, to seek peace in our families, communities, and the wider world. This can be as simple as offering forgiveness, seeking to resolve conflicts, or extending kindness to those in need.

Let this week be a reminder that Advent is not only about awaiting Christ’s birth, but also about transforming our hearts into places of peace where Christ can dwell. As St. Augustine teaches, “God had one Son on earth without sin, but never one without suffering”. Christ’s peace does not eliminate suffering but gives us the strength to endure it with hope, love, and joy. May we seek this peace as we await the coming of the Savior.

In Christ’s Peace and Hope,
Fr Jins Joseph

Bishop Baraga ordered me to sleep in the only bed available in the parsonage, while he himself slept on the floor with only a mat under him and a cloak for his cover. The bishop refused even a pillow. “You must spare yourself,” he would say; “I am old and accustomed to such things. I am your bishop; you must obey.” Fr. Chebul.

For Your Information

If you are not using offering envelopes, we would like to remind you that you can send us your flower donation requests by putting a note with your donation in the offering basket in an envelope marked “Flower Donation” or send it in the mail. The cutoff is December 11th so the memorials can be posted in the December 22nd bulletin.

There will be a post Hunters’ Supper meeting at St. Ann’s on December 10th at 6:00 pm to summarize the good and think of ways to improve for next year.

The Holy Name Ladies Circle is hosting a potluck luncheon and cookie sale on December 15th, after the noon Mass.

KofC Council 2934 has beautiful Christmas cards and yard signs available for sale at each church. Net proceeds are used for charity in our community.

All three of our parishes are in need of additional lectors, extraordinary ministers of communion, ushers, and greeters. If you have an interest in any of these opportunities to serve our parishes, please contact Fr. Jins or the parish office.
