What Is Classical Education?

A succinct explanation of classical education is the following:

"The classical view of the purpose of education is the development of wisdom and virtue through the pursuit of truth, goodness, and beauty."

~ John D. Mays, From Wonder to Mastery

THIS is what we do at Sacred Heart School! As explained in the bishop's foundations document for our diocesan Catholic schools: "The greatest happiness a person can attain is communion with Jesus Christ (CCC 27). Therefore, the core of our curriculum is the person of Jesus Christ. We hope to graduate students who have "encountered the living God who in Jesus Christ reveals his transforming love and truth (cf. Spe Salvi, 4). This relationship elicits in the student a desire to grow in the knowledge and understanding of Christ and his teaching. In this way, those who encounter Christ are drawn by the power of the Gospel to lead new lives characterized by all that is beautiful, good and true; a life of Christian witness nurtured and strengthened within the "Sacred Heart Catholic School integrates faith and reason to form our students into disciples of Jesus Christ, great thinkers, and lifelong learners."

Faith Formation is a life-long journey, encourating us to increase our understanding and love of our faith. There are books available in the Sacred Heart library, located in the Parish Hall. Please feel free to check them out.

At Baptism, each of us receives the call to holiness and discipleship. In other words, we are all called to become saints. Holiness is not reserved for a select few. It is God's desire for every one of His children. The stewardship way of life helps us answer that call each day.

In today's Gospel from Matthew, Jesus gives us the Beatitudes. They reveal the qualities that mark the lives of His disciples and point us toward authentic holiness. As we continue striving to live as faithful stewards, the Beatitudes provide a faithful measure of our growth in Christ.

The "blessed" that Jesus describes are not different categories of people who make it to heaven. Rather, they reveal the character of those who belong to Him — the poor in spirit, the merciful, the pure of heart, the peacemakers, and all who remain faithful in the midst of trials. None of us can live this way on our own. But as beloved children of God, we receive the grace we need through prayer, the sacraments, and a life centered on Christ.

May the example of the saints inspire us to persevere in our own call to holiness, trusting that one day we will join them in the everlasting joy of heaven.

Saints and Holy Days

Halloween and All Saints' Day are connected parts of a three-day seasonal observance called Allhallowtide.

Halloween (All Hallows' Eve)

- Celebrated on October 31 (the evening before All Saints' Day).
- The word "Halloween" is a contraction of All Hallows' Eve ("hallow" means holy or saint). Historically, it was the religious vigil or evening of preparation before the feast.
- In Christian tradition, it was a time to pray for protection against evil.

All Saints' Day

- Celebrated on November 1.
- Also known as All Hallows' Day or Hallowmas, it is a solemn Christian feast day.
- It honors all Christian saints and martyrs—both known and unknown—who have attained heaven (the "Church Triumphant"). Churches typically hold special masses, light candles, and reflect with gratitude.

All Souls Day

- Celebrated on November 2.
- Remembers all the faithful departed who have died.

The fifth anniversary of my consecration. – Sad! – See the same date in the year 1856. – The past saddens me; the present torments me; the future frightens me. Bishop Baraga November 1, 1859

In the Gospel today, we hear that the poor and suffering are especially blessed. As Blessed Frédéric Ozanam said, "the blessing of the poor is the blessing of God. As you give your gift to the Society of St. Vincent de Paul, please pray for the blessing of our friends in need.

Our Vision

We, the members of St. Clement Hofbauer Parish, are three churches in one family. We seek daily for the grace of God poured out in prayer and the sacraments to be the-best-version-of-ourselves both as individual believers and as a fellowship of the Body of Christ. We seek the lost by our hands-on outreach and unwavering evangelization efforts. Our one aim is to advance the kingdom of God by living the motto of Venerable Bishop Frederic Baraga to do all we do for the greater glory of God, which is the "one thing necessary".
