From the Desk of the Principal

It amazes me every year how incredibly quiet the halls become as soon as the end of the year picnic is over. It is a 180 degree change. The past few weeks the office has stayed busy winding up the end of the school year tasks, but the absence of students stopping in with questions, asking for cough drops, ice packs, or to make extra copies is evident. The halls are now full of desks as Mr. Kettle works hard with summer duties and cleaning. The bells still stay on schedule signaling the beginning and end of the school day, but it is a different atmosphere and true signs of summer. Even with my June list of duties being a bit longer, as I have been busy trying to make the transition of my job go as smoothly as possible, the “quiet” is noticeable. I miss the student activities, but at the same time, I hope our school families are enjoying their summer break.

As I write my last article as principal, I write it with gratitude. I am thankful to have had the awesome opportunity to lead SJV School for the past three years; it was an opportunity I was not expecting, but one I feel blessed to have had. I appreciate the trust and support I was given from our families, staff, students, and parishioners. I will treasure the memories I will take with me from the people I have worked with, met, or gotten to know better while principal.

When I think of who to thank, the list is long. I know SJV is a great school because of the dedication of many: our teachers and staff; the leadership given at the diocesan level; the positive partnership SJV has between our school, religious education, and parish staffs; the support from our parishioners; and the involvement Fr. Paul and Fr. Joe have with our school on a daily basis. I am incredibly grateful for having Mrs. Pam Olley as my secretary for the past two years; she did a phenomenal job. I will miss routinely interacting with this group of people, and leading the school on a daily basis.

Finally, as many of you are aware, Fr. Paul and I came to SJV at the same time. I have worked closely with him for the past three years. His support was instrumental in the confidence I gained as a principal. I was also fortunate to work closely with Fr. Joe for the past two years. I’m grateful to them both for all they taught me. They are blessings in my life, and I will truly miss working with them.

Although my final days here are with mixed emotions, I look forward to spending more time with my family. It was an honor to learn, pray, and serve while being principal at SJV.

With Gratitude and Blessings to each of you,
Mrs. Silha

SJV at the Rock County 4-H Fair

For over 15 years St. John Vianney Parish has had a food stand at the Rock County 4-H Fair. This annual event raises operating funds for the parish. Just as important, it provides an opportunity for parishioners to work together and get to know each other in a fun, informal way. Some of us only see each other at the fair and are now “fair friends”. We serve food all day and we are the only stand to offer a full breakfast menu.

The tent is open from 6:30 AM – 10:00 PM Tuesday, July 23 through Sunday, July 28. Volunteer shifts are 6:00-10:30 AM, 10:30 AM – 2:30 PM, 2:30-6:00 PM and 6-10:30 PM. About fifteen volunteers are needed per shift. Entrance tickets are provided for volunteers except as noted. No tickets are needed for the Breakfast shift. Supervisors are present during all shifts.

Like to Grill?

We need you! Every shift except breakfast needs an adult on the grill. We use charcoal grills and grill hamburgers, steaks, and hot dogs. Please consider using your skills to help us out. Grill assistants must be going into grade 9 or up and are quite helpful during the busy time during each shift. Friends, spouses, parents, and teens – it’s a great time to work at the fair and help SJV at the same time! Check out the shifts online at www.sjv.org or contact the parish office parish@sjv.org or 752-8708 ext. 103 if you can help.
Online Sign-up for the Fair Is Open

“Sign Up Genius” on the sjv.org website is open—grab that favorite spot or “only time I can work” chance now before it’s filled. We have about 300 different slots to fill for Fair Week—July 23 thru July 28, 2019. Each day is listed with the available slots, job description, and age requirement listed. We will also open sign-up after each Mass next weekend, volunteers will be available to answer any questions. We invite everyone to consider working a shift as you are able.

We encourage you to sign up online if possible. If you have any difficulty signing up, please contact Heidi or Jeanne in the parish office, 752-8708 for assistance.

Students going in to sixth grade and up are welcome to work in the front area of the stand. Students going in to ninth grade and up are welcome to work in the kitchen as well. Certain jobs are held for adults only. This is noted in the job descriptions. All the positions except order taker are standing positions. Due to space constraints, we are unable to accommodate more than one person per volunteer slot.

We also have two “mini-shift” positions. We need a volunteer each morning from 9:45-11AM to serve as Dishwasher. The other position is from 4-7 PM each day as Stocker/Odd Jobs. This volunteer needs to be able to climb the steps up into the truck and can lift at least 25 lbs. You could finish this shift just in time to see the show!

While some shifts fills up fast, please take a look online to see where we are short of help. The 2:30-6 PM shift and the weekend shifts tend to be the hardest to fill.

Slime lover needed!

SJV will have a slime making table at ECHO’s 50th anniversary block party on July 13th from 11-2. One or two volunteers are needed to help kids make slime bags to take with them. Contact Julie Nath (608-604-2445) if interested!

Next Sunday’s Gospel

You are encouraged to cut and post this Gospel praying it daily and using it as quiet reflection.

A reading from the Holy Gospel according to Luke

At that time the Lord appointed seventy-two others whom he sent ahead of him in pairs to every town and place he intended to visit. He said to them, "The harvest is abundant but the laborers are few; so ask the master of the harvest to send out laborers for his harvest. Go on your way; behold, I am sending you like lambs among wolves. Carry no money bag, no sack, no sandals; and greet no one along the way. Into whatever house you enter, first say, 'Peace to this household.' If a peaceful person lives there, your peace will rest on him; but if not, it will return to you. Stay in the same house and eat and drink what is offered to you, for the laborer deserves his payment. Do not move about from one house to another. Whatever town you enter and they welcome you, eat what is set before you, cure the sick in it and say to them, 'The kingdom of God is at hand for you.' Whatever town you enter and they do not receive you, go out into the streets and say, 'The dust of your town that clings to our feet, even that we shake off against you.' Yet know this: the kingdom of God is at hand. I tell you, it will be more tolerable for Sodom on that day than for that town."

The seventy-two returned rejoicing, and said, "Lord, even the demons are subject to us because of your name." Jesus said, "I have observed Satan fall like lightning from the sky. Behold, I have given you the power to 'tread upon serpents' and scorpions and upon the full force of the enemy and nothing will harm you. Nevertheless, do not rejoice because the spirits are subject to you, but rejoice because your names are written in heaven."

Readings for Next Weekend

Isaiah 66:10-14c
Galatians 6:14-18
Luke 10:1-12, 17-20
Baby Bottle Round-Up

Thank you to everyone who took a baby bottle on Father’s Day weekend. As you fill your bottle with coin, cash or check for the Pregnancy Helpline and Resource Center of Janesville, please return them to the Gathering Space either in the box provided, or give to an Usher and they will pass it along.

Your contributions support the Helpline through the lean summer month’s as volunteers work to help those in need before, during, and after pregnancy. For more information about the Pregnancy Helpline and Resource Center, visit their website at pregnancy-helpline.net or call the office at 608-755-0285. If you or someone you know is in need or just has questions, please call 608-755-9739 and one of the volunteer counselors will help you find what you need.

Thank you to the Wednesday morning Women’s Scripture Study Group led by Joan Prendergast for their commitment to this annual Father’s Day project.
