Dear SJV Families and Friends,

The year is finally upon us! The building has come to life as teachers finished adding their final touches to the classrooms.

Thank you to Larry and the maintenance staff for all of your hours repairing and cleaning the building. Thank you again to Mrs. Chris Silha and Mrs. Pam Olley for helping greet our new families. Supply Drop Off was this past Thursday evening, and it was a huge success! There is such a wonderful energy in the building.

Please help me thank the amazing staff we have at SJV by taking a moment to offer them words of encouragement and gratitude for all they do to ensure our students excel in their academics and serve as role models for their peers outside of these walls. This is going to be a FANTASTIC school year! We will see you on Tuesday for our first day of a great year!

Have a Blessed and Safe Holiday Weekend,
Heidi Miller, Principal

WE DID IT!

Thank you to everyone who contributed to the 13th Annual SJV Feast Day Collection for ECHO. With the additional help of our generous “match” donors and several other “we can do this” donations, St. John Vianney Parish was able to donate a total of $22,820.28 to ECHO.

As a supporting church for ECHO, the services they offer help us give good direction to so many people in need. ECHO is our main resource when someone calls or comes to the door in need of assistance for food, housing and emergency help. They assist people in need with programs and funding to make their lives better. And, they provide this help professionally and as good stewards of the resources they have.

Remember, the need is year-round. At SJV, we collect monetary donations and special items of food or other items every month with a special emphasis the fourth weekend of the month. One of our pastoral council members also serves as SJV’s representative on the board of ECHO as well. If you have any questions about this support, please feel free to contact the parish office.

You are invited to join the Women’s Scripture Group at St. John Vianney every Wednesday morning to read and reflect upon the readings of the coming weekend. All women in our area are invited, whether you have a background in scripture or none at all.

If the word “discussion” is off-putting, don’t fret. Your oral participation is completely up to you. We will start back up on Wednesday, September 4, from 9—10 a.m. in Marian Hall, enter on the south side of the building (the back door facing the church). If you have conflicts with this beginning date, come when you can; there is always room. This is an opportunity to meet and become friends with wonderful women who wish to grow in love for Jesus, the Christ, and for one another. Please consider coming to see if this scripture group is a good fit for you. If you have questions, please call me at 608-290-3665.

Next Sunday’s Gospel

You are encouraged to cut and post this Gospel praying it daily and using it as quiet reflection.

A reading from the Holy Gospel according to Luke

Great crowds were traveling with Jesus, and he turned and addressed them, “If anyone comes to me without hating his father and mother, wife and children, brothers and sisters, and even his own life, he cannot be my disciple. Whoever does not carry his own cross and come after me cannot be my disciple. Which of you wishing to construct a tower does not first sit down and calculate the cost to see if there is enough for its completion? Otherwise, after laying the foundation and finding himself unable to finish the work the onlookers should laugh at him and say, ‘This one began to build but did not have the resources to finish.’ Or what king marching into battle would not first sit down and decide whether with ten thousand troops he can successfully oppose another king advancing upon him with twenty thousand troops? But if not, while he is still far away, he will send a delegation to ask for peace terms. In the same way, anyone of you who does not renounce all his possessions cannot be my disciple.”

Sister Connie Fahey, FSM is celebrating her 65th year of consecrated life and will be leaving Janesville to retire in Madison’s All Saints Neighborhood Community in early October. You are invited to come for an enjoyable afternoon of music and entertainment at St. John Vianney Church on Sunday, September 8th at 2 pm in appreciation of Sister’s contributions to the Janesville community. Sister Connie has been active in all of the Janesville parishes as a church musician.

Table of Bounty

“You crown the year with a bountiful harvest, even the hard pathways overflow with abundance.” Ps 65:11

The spring started cool and wet, we thought summer would never get here. Now, it has, and our gardens are overflowing, much to every gardener’s chagrin. What can we do with our excess tomatoes, cucumbers, beans, etc? We’ve had our fill; our friends have had their fill, who’s next? The Knights of Columbus want to help you spread your bounty.

Each weekend from August 24th through September 29th we will have a table in the Gathering Space. Bring your excess produce to Mass on Saturday or Sunday so that those that don’t have the opportunity to grow their own fruits and vegetables can share in your abundance. Take what you want as you leave, a Knight will take whatever is left over Monday morning to a local charity to ensure nothing goes to waste.

Please do not drop off items at any other time due to funerals, weddings and keeping the items fresh. Any questions, or if you are interested in learning more about the Knights of Columbus contact Dave Bohler at 608-931-4593.
