Dear SJV Families and Friends,

Classrooms are busy with activity and book bags are full with reading to take home for the evening. STAR testing will begin on the 19th of this month and continue until the 25th. We ask parents to ensure their student is in school during these dates to ensure that no additional class time has to be missed to complete the tests as scheduled.

Please keep our eighth and seventh grade classes in prayers this week as they prepare for a retreat at Camp Gray. This is a highlight for these young adults. The classes will participate in team building activities, nature hikes with lessons on how to care for God’s gift of this Earth, and in prayer sessions and discussions to grow in faith together. We look forward to sharing their stories and photos when they return.

Have a Blessed Week,
Heidi Miller, Principal

The SJV Athletic Association would like to thank everyone who helped with the fundraiser at Thresheree over Labor Day Weekend. The event was a success as we met our goal by earning more than $10,000 (including an anonymous donation of $10 per volunteer spot filled). Thank you again, and mark your calendar for Labor Day Weekend next year!

We are back for another year with the first gathering of the year! Saturday, September 21 from 6:30-9:00 pm at the Nativity House at Nativity of Mary Parish.

Come for dinner, faith, service, fun, and friends!

All high school students are welcome to come and bring friends. Questions, please contact Matt McDon-ald at 0229mcdonam@gmail.com or 608-449-6406.
Men mark your calendars. That Man is You! begins Wednesday, September 18 in Marian Hall at St. John Vianney. That Man is You! combines scripture, solid secular research, and a little fun to address the pressures and temptations facing men in our modern culture. It seeks to form authentic leaders who will be capable of transforming homes and society. Next Sunday’s Gospel

You are encouraged to cut and post this Gospel praying it daily and using it as quiet reflection.

A reading from the Holy Gospel according to Luke

Jesus said to his disciples, "A rich man had a steward who was reported to him for squandering his property. He summoned him and said, 'What is this I hear about you? Prepare a full account of your stewardship, because you can no longer be my steward.' The steward said to himself, 'What shall I do, now that my master is taking the position of steward away from me? I am not strong enough to dig and I am ashamed to beg. I know what I shall do so that, when I am removed from the stewardship, they may welcome me into their homes.' He called in his master's debtors one by one. To the first he said, 'How much do you owe my master?' He replied, 'One hundred measures of olive oil.' He said to him, 'Here is your promissory note. Sit down and quickly write one for fifty.' Then to another the steward said, 'And you, how much do you owe?' He replied, 'One hundred kors of wheat.' The steward said to him, 'Here is your promissory note; write one for eighty.' And the master commended that dishonest steward for acting prudently. "For the children of this world are more prudent in dealing with their own generation than are the children of light. I tell you, make friends for yourselves with dishonest wealth, so that when it fails, you will be welcomed into eternal dwellings. The person who is trustworthy in very small matters is also trustworthy in great ones; and the person who is dishonest in very small matters is also dishonest in great ones. If, therefore, you are not trustworthy with dishonest wealth, who will give you what is yours? No servant can serve two masters. He will either hate one and love the other, or be devoted to one and despise the other. You cannot serve both God and mammon."

Readings for Next Weekend

- Amos 8:4-7
- 1 Timothy 2:1-8

In November, high-school students from all over the U.S. will gather to worship and grow into a deeper relationship with Christ and His Church. By supporting our bake sale, you will help defray the cost of this mountain-top experience for youth from our parish. Please consider buying baked goods on September 21 and 22.

God bless you and thanks for your help!
Table of Bounty

“You crown the year with a bountiful harvest, even the hard pathways overflow with abundance.” Ps 65:11

The spring started cool and wet, we thought summer would never get here. Now, it has, and our gardens are overflowing, much to every gardener’s chagrin. What can we do with our excess tomatoes, cucumbers, beans, etc? We’ve had our fill; our friends have had their fill, who’s next? The Knights of Columbus want to help you spread your bounty.

Each weekend from August 24th through September 29th we will have a table in the Gathering Space. Bring your excess produce to Mass on Saturday or Sunday so that those that don’t have the opportunity to grow their own fruits and vegetables can share in your abundance. Take what you want as you leave, a Knight will take whatever is left over Monday morning to a local charity to ensure nothing goes to waste.

Please do not drop off items at any other time due to funerals, weddings and keeping the items fresh. Any questions, or if you are interested in learning more about the Knights of Columbus contact Dave Bohler at 608-931-4593.

The Knights of Columbus Council #9360 would like to highlight families each month at St. John Vianney parish that model Christian family values and visibly live them each day. It is our pleasure to announce the John and Julie Nath family as the family of the month for September.

John and Julie, along with their children Jack, Jillian and Josie, can be found attending Mass every Sunday as well as attending and volunteering at many parish functions. Julie was one of the co-leaders of abc @ SJV the past few years and recently began working as a part-time kindergarten teacher at SJV school. John currently serves on the Finance Council while Julie is on the Pastoral Council. All three Nath children attend SJV school. Thank you to the Naths for being a great example of a joyful, prayerful, and Christ-loving family!”
