A Message From Our Pastor

Stewardship Corner: There is a boy here who has five barley loaves and two fish; but what good are these for so many?" JOHN 6:9 The miracle of the loaves and fishes carries two important messages. First, no matter how little we have, we always have enough to share. Second, Christ can take our humble gifts and do great things with them if we are just willing to let Him. Nothing is impossible with God. All our gifts, big or small, were given to us for a reason. No gift is too small or insignificant!

New Sound System: St. John Vianney will be installing a new sound system in the church. Many components of the current system are outdated and are no longer serviceable. It has served us well. There are noticeable sound lags in the transepts and in some areas in the main body of the church. After exploring our options, it was determined a new system would be the most prudent and economical solution. This system will have vastly superior audio quality. Listeners will notice the incredible clarity of the sound and will not have to strain to hear each word. Nothing can improve the Gospel, but this will make it easier to hear regardless of where you sit at Mass.

Installation will begin this fall and will cost $55,000. Thru the generosity of several families, we have raised $30,000 to begin the project, thanks be to God! In our campaign to raise the balance for this project, you are welcome to make a donation at any time. If you would like more information about the new system, please call the parish office and George will be happy to answer any questions. Please, consider helping us as you are able.

Parish Events: As part of our goal for the Go Make Disciples initiative, we will be hosting periodic parish events geared toward bringing us together as a parish and giving us the opportunity to celebrate and meet other parishioners. We had a successful cookout after the 5 PM Mass on Saturday, July 17. It was a great success, and I loved seeing parishioners of all ages, enjoying parish time, and having fun. Thanks to Kris Kranenburg, Sue Fraser, and Emily Wallace from the Office of Faith/Adult Formation and all who helped them to organize the event. Stay tuned for news of future events.

Finally, I send you greetings from Tokyo, Japan for what will be for all intent and purposes my last Olympic event as an International Technical Officer for ITF. I found out late this spring that I was one of the only four USA tennis umpires chosen for this role for the Tokyo Olympics. Participation at the Olympics is a great honor as you are chosen to represent your country in a most competitive selection process. Currently, we are not allowed to do much sightseeing as the city is still under strict Covid protocols. We are part of a bubble and are tested daily for Covid-19. I look forward to meeting with the Catholic Chaplain for the Olympic Village to hear his experience with ministering to the athletes and being a priest in Japan. Please, keep us all in your prayers.

Have a blessed week!
Fr. Paul

A Message From Fr. Peter

Praised Be Jesus and Mary! It is with great joy that this weekend we celebrate the 53rd anniversary of the promulgation of the papal encyclical Humanae Vitae (On Human Life). In order to appreciate the richness of the teaching present in this document, the Church is asking us to start this Sunday to celebrate "National Natural Family Planning Awareness Week". Having recently reread this encyclical, which can easily be done at one sitting, I was left with an even greater appreciation for the beauty of the Sacrament of Marriage, the gift of conjugal love, and the practical wisdom explained by St. Paul the Sixth as to what God's plan is for intimate love within its proper context, Marriage.

There is a lot of confusion, ridicule, and even willful ignorance towards God's plan for Marriage and the sharing of the gift of intimate love. In order to cut through all this, this weekend presents an amazing opportunity to learn, "what God teaches through His Church about Married Love and Responsibility".

If I, as your parochial vicar, who love you all incredibly much, could ask anything of you for this coming week, it is to please read this powerful and beautiful document. It can be found for free at the Vatican website or simply by typing "Humanae Vitae" into Google and clicking on the first link that comes up.

If you have any questions about what the Church officially teaches on Marriage, how to get in contact with informed couples on the practice of Natural Family Planning, or about anything in general, please do not hesitate to reach out to me at: FrPeter@sjv.org

God Love You!

Father Peter John Lee

Readings for Next Weekend

First Reading

Exodus 16:2-4, 12-15

The whole Israelite community grumbled against Moses and Aaron. The Israelites said to them, “Would that we had died at the LORD’s hand in the land of Egypt, as we sat by our fleshpots and ate our fill of bread! But you had to lead us into this desert to make the whole community die of famine!”

Then the LORD said to Moses, “I will now rain down bread from heaven for you. Each day the people are to go out and gather their daily portion; thus will I test them, to see whether they follow my instructions or not.

“I have heard the grumbling of the Israelites. Tell them: In the evening twilight you shall eat flesh, and in the morning you shall have your fill of bread, so that you may know that I, the LORD, am your God.”

In the evening quail came up and covered the camp. In the morning a dew lay all about the camp, and when the dew evaporated, there on the surface of the desert were fine flakes like hoarfrost on the around.

On seeing it, the Israelites asked one another, “What is this?” for they did not know what it was. But Moses told them, “This is the bread that the LORD has given you to eat.”

Second Reading

Ephesians 4:17, 20-24

Brothers and sisters: I declare and testify in the Lord that you must no longer live as the Gentiles do, in the futility of their minds; that is not how you learned Christ, assuming that you have heard of him and were taught in him, as truth is in Jesus, that you should put away the old self of your former way of life, corrupted through deceitful desires, and be renewed in the spirit of your minds, and put on the new self, created in God’s way in righteousness and holiness of truth.

Virtual Baptismal Preparation

Baptismal Preparation Sessions are currently available online. For more information regarding the Sacrament of Baptism, please contact the Parish Office at parish@sjv.org or call 608-752-8708.

Gospel

John 6:24-35

When the crowd saw that neither Jesus nor his disciples were there, they themselves got into boats and came to Capernaum looking for Jesus. And when they found him across the sea they said to him, “Rabbi, when did you get here?” Jesus answered them and said, “Amen, amen, I say to you, you are looking for me not because you saw signs but because you ate the loaves and were filled. Do not work for food that perishes but for the food that endures for eternal life, which the Son of Man will give you. For on him the Father, God, has set his seal.” So they said to him, “What can we do to accomplish the works of God?” Jesus answered and said to them, “This is the work of God, that you believe in the one he sent.” So they said to him, “What sign can you do, that we may see and believe in you? What can you do? Our ancestors ate manna in the desert, as it is written: He gave them bread from heaven to eat.” So Jesus said to them, “Amen, amen, I say to you, it was not Moses who gave the bread from heaven; my Father gives you the true bread from heaven. For the bread of God is that which comes down from heaven and gives life to the world.”

So they said to him, “Sir, give us this bread always.” Jesus said to them, “I am the bread of life; whoever comes to me will never hunger, and whoever believes in me will never thirst.

TO HAVE TO HOLD TO HONOR

Natural Family Planning
Supporting God's gifts of love and life in marriage

To have ... God has given each man and woman an abundance of gifts and marriage is one of them!

What would you think of a person who has an amazing gift, a gift that brings lasting happiness, but doesn't open it? Even more bewildering, what if the gift is in plain sight, but the person still does not open it? Sounds strange? Not really. For a variety of reasons, from distractions to presumptions, from insecurity to arrogance, from fear to foolhardiness, people can easily miss a gift. This all-too-common human inclination to not see the forest for the trees can make us laugh or cry depending upon what it is that we missed. With this in mind, let us remember that as people of faith, we don't want to miss God's gifts to us—they are, after all, from the Lord God Himself. And, they are given to us for our ultimate happiness! Let's take a look at these gifts, especially that of marriage and the family.

God, the great gift-giver, is the one who gives life to every man and woman. This life is directed to the fullness of joy and eternity since the Lord God made men and women "in His image" (see Genesis 1: 27). God's gift of life is multifaceted. The gift of life unfolds to reveal many related gifts, all willed by God, including personhood—one's identity as a precious child of God; human sexuality (created as male or female) with its fertility—the ability to co-create with the Lord of all creation; the capacity to love like God, to forgive, empathize, and form small communions of persons in families, friendships, businesses, citizenships, and so forth. Finally, as if all this were not enough, God crowns His creation with His ultimate gift of salvation through His son Jesus—"For God so loved the world that he gave His only Son so that everyone who believes in him might not perish but might have eternal life" (John 3:16).

Added to this abundance is God's gift of the universal vocation to holiness and union with Him. Within it, God calls each man and woman to specific vocations which, hopefully, they will discover in their life's journey. A central vocation for many (but not all), is the call to marry and form a family. Since "humanity passes by way of the family" (Familiaris consortio, 86), marriage and the family are important to everyone. In fact, and as St. Paul VI taught,

"Marriage is far from being the effect of chance or the result of the blind evolution of natural forces. It is ... the wise and provident institution of God the Creator, whose purpose was to effect in man His loving design" (Humanae vitae, 8).

God, as the author of marriage, willed that man and woman would be joined in such a way as to help each other to grow in holiness (the "one flesh" union that Scripture reveals) and to protect and nurture new life within their covenantal union. Pope Francis reminds us that in the center of the home, "we see the father and mother ... with their personal story of love... embody the primordial divine plan clearly spoken of by Christ himself: 'Have you not read that he who made them from the beginning made them male and female?' (Mt 19: 4)" (Amoris laetitia, 9). Marriage and the procreation and nurture of children speak of God's promise of love and life!

To hold ... is to understand, accept, and embrace God's gifts!

When we consider God's gifts to us, we respond in gratitude and joy. At the same time, we also have a responsibility to seek understanding, to deepen our knowledge about God's gifts so that we can accept and embrace them more fully in our lives. Over the centuries and through the guidance of the Holy Spirit, Catholic teaching on God's gift of human sexuality, marriage, and family have done just that—they reveal God’s truth. And so, we can rejoice that ...

- God created humanity as two sexes—“Male and female He made them” (Gn 1: 27)—with different but complementary gifts. This mutuality in difference is especially seen in the distinctive and unique fertility of the husband and the wife, where they must unite in the conjugal act in order to bring new life into the world. And, “That is why a man leaves his father and his mother and clings to his wife, and the two of them become one body” (Gn 2:24).
- “Marriage is the icon of God’s love for us” (Amoris laetitia, 121). St. Paul compares the love of a husband to wife as Christ’s love for His Church (see Ephesians 5: 32). Marital love, therefore, is marked by faithfulness, permanence, and openness to life (see Humanae vitae, 8–9).
- God made marriage for one man and one woman who freely give consent to each other for “the whole of life and which is ordered by its nature to the good of the spouses and the procreation and education of offspring” (Canon 1055; see also Gaudium et spes, 48–50; Humanae vitae, 8–12).
- Children are gifts from God and contribute to their parents’ welfare (see Gaudium et spes, 50).
- God willed that the “essential properties of marriage are unity and indissolubility, which in Christian marriage obtain a special firmness by reason of the sacrament” (Canon 1056). This means that since the baptized Christian is part of Christ’s body, it is the Lord who fortifies the marital bond.
- The acts in marriage by which the union of the spouses takes place “are noble and honorable; the truly human performance of these acts fosters the self-giving they signify and enriches the spouses in joy and gratitude” (Gaudium et spes, 49).
- God willed that the marital act is for the union of husband and wife AND procreation.

The last point above needs some reflection. It is a mistake to think that Catholic teaching means that every time a husband and wife have conjugal relations it is only for the purpose of conceiving a child. Spouses should engage in the conjugal embrace to give of themselves to each other to fortify their spousal union. At the same time, and as St. Paul VI warns,

“They are not free to act as they choose in the service of transmitting life as if it were wholly up to them to decide what is the right course to follow. On the contrary, they are bound to ensure that what they do corresponds to the will of God the Creator” (Humanae vitae, 10).

To honor ... God’s gifts we must protect them and live them following God’s design!

There are many ways to honor God’s gifts of marriage and family. Husband and wife honor their marriage by living faithfully with each other and doing nothing that will divide their marital union. As they make decisions about their lives, they no longer think “I” but “We.” They honor their marital communion when they express to each other tenderness, compassion, generosity, and self-sacrifice. They share this life-giving love with their children, extended family, and friends.

Within the context of marriage, the methods of NFP stand as a real support. That is because they do nothing to harm God’s gifts. Instead, NFP teaches spouses to understand their fertility and work with God’s design. The wife learns how to observe her biological signs of fertility and she and her husband work together to understand whether God is calling them to become pregnant or not. If postponing conception, they simply refrain from the marital act during the fertile time of the wife’s menstrual cycle. No drugs or devices are used. In this way, they do not reject God’s gifts but rather respect and honor them.

When husband and wife accept, understand, and embrace God’s gifts for married love, they honor God. They can maintain the “integrity of the powers of life and love” placed in them by the Lord (see Catechism of the Catholic Church, 2338). And, in doing so, husband and wife ensure the unity of their persons and marriage (Ibid).

Through the use of the methods of Natural Family Planning, spouses can “experience the gift of married love while respecting the laws of conception,” thereby acknowledging that they are “not the master of the sources of life but rather the minister of the design established by the Creator” (Humanae vitae, 13). Married couples who wish to fully live God’s gifts to them set their feet on solid ground where they can live their wedding promises as God intended—to have ... to hold ... to honor!
