PASTORAL PONDERINGS

A weekly column, shared with parishioners, by members of the Pastoral Staff.

Sheri Hanson, Pastoral Associate

Together in Christ

Last year at this time we were trying to predict how to run our Child & Youth Ministry programs during the pandemic. At the time, we did not know how long the pandemic would last, what social distancing rules would be instituted and if families would be willing to participate. While there were some disappointments, like our cancelled Workcamp mission trip due to the Archdiocese's social distancing rules about overnight trips and a middle school retreat in October that nobody signed up for, looking back on the year now, I am amazed by what we accomplished together:

- One hundred ninety-nine children and youth attended our virtual Christian Formation classes, which were planned and led by 38 volunteer catechists.
- Monthly service projects with families completing projects at home like blankets for the humane society.
- Twenty-nine second graders received their First Eucharist.
- Thirty high school juniors were Confirmed.
- Four in-person high school retreats, plus a virtual Confirmation retreat for those who could not attend in-person.
- Four 2nd grade sacramental retreats in-person, with the option of an at-home retreat.
- Forty-nine campers were joined by 21 high school counselors and 12 adult leaders at Vacation Bible School.
- A new High School Youth Advisory Committee made up of high school youth who provide feedback on our youth ministry programs.

We learned a lot this year about being flexible and communicating virtually. Some modifications I plan to keep in our program—for example, recording meetings for people who cannot attend and holding multiple 2nd grade retreats for smaller group sizes. However, we also learned that we prefer growing in faith together in-person. Thus, it is with joy that we look forward to in-person classes next year. With the confidence we developed based on this past year's successes, we plan to face new obstacles next year like we did last year, together in Christ.

If you are interested in joining our Child & Youth Ministry team of volunteers, please let me know! Our first class starts October 3.

Forms are available on our website. Please download form, fill it out, save, and email completed form to cfoffice@stjosephgrafton.org.

Please register by August 31.
Payment is appreciated, but not necessary at this time.
No family is turned away due to financial hardship; please register your children and indicate on the form if you need assistance.

NEW and open to all High School students:

We are piloting a new program called YDisciple. YDisciple follows a small-group centered format where the students choose the topics and the direction of the conversation. YDisciple can meet at an offsite location or at church, outside of regularly scheduled Christian Formation meetings. The schedule will be set after all students have been registered. Please sign up using our regular Christian Formation registration form and indicate YDisciple on the form.

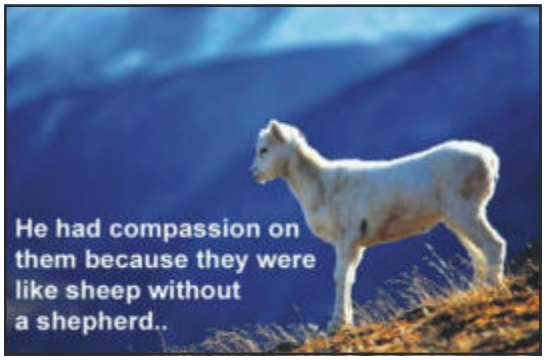
This is a great option for those in sports or have a difficult work schedule.

We Are Called To Be

The Hands of Christ...Open to All

From Human Concerns
By Sandy Michalski



Selfless Love

It's easy to read between the lines in Mark's short gospel today. Jesus was concerned for the apostles. They had been travelling, preaching and healing in God's name and were tired. But we don't hear about how exhausted and spent Jesus must have been. After all, He had also been constantly ministering to crowds. Judging by His followers, His preaching and healing must have been amazing. It was typical for Jesus to be concerned for others rather than for Himself, so He invited His apostles to come away to a deserted place so that they could finally eat and rest.

Well – you know what happened next. The crowds figured out where they were headed and got there first! You would think that, in His exhaustion and deep need for peace and quiet, Jesus might be a bit perturbed by the crowds. But no! Instead, He felt sympathy for them since they sought a shepherd, a leader, a healer. Instead of being irritated, Christ was concerned that the crowd hungered for His wisdom. He loved all of them, as He loves us, so very much! He provided for their needs, first physically, then spiritually, without concern for Himself. Mark's next gospel verses will describe how Jesus went on to feed 5,000 with a few loaves and fishes.

This is the example we take away. Before we spiritually minister to those who are less fortunate, their physical needs must be met. Your Human Concerns Committee strives to follow the loving example of Jesus – to reach out in love to Christ's precious flock. Thank you for your support!

SVDP: Youth Chapter

We are in need of an adult liaison to work with the youth signed up for the SVDP: Youth Chapter.

- Middle school and high school youth committed to hands on service and outreach.
- For youth and led by youth, under the guidance of an adult liaison and the Adult Chapter of St. Vincent de Paul active at St. Joseph Parish.
- Meetings: Monthly September – May (30 – 60 minutes).

If you would be interested or have additional questions, please call Kitty Tector at 262-536-4334.

News for Altar Servers

A dedicated group of altar servers has helped us celebrate Mass well during the past year … thank you! We are now ready to welcome back all servers who are ready and would like to serve by opening up a second server spot at certain Masses. This second spot will give returning servers an opportunity to serve with one of our experienced servers for "on-the-job" training. Watch your email for the Sign-Up Genius schedule. Please contact Deacon Scott at swiese@outlook.com or (262) 355-5103 if you have any questions or would like some additional training before signing up.

Congratulations!
Scholarship Student is Taking the Next Step!

Pamela Ogando Perez was awarded a scholarship in the fall of 2017. She was studying medicine at the Technological University of Santiago (UTESA) in Santo Domingo. Now, just four years later, she has finished her course work and has started her internship rotations.

Thanks to the support from our parish members, we will soon be calling her "Doctora."

A Morning Offering Through St. Joseph

Receive me, dear and chosen Father, and the offering of every movement of my body and soul, which I desire to present through thee to my blessed Lord.

Purify all! Make all a perfect holocaust! May every pulsation of my heart be a Spiritual Communion, every look and thought an act of love, every action a sweet sacrifice, every word an arrow of Divine love, every step an advance toward Jesus, every visit to Our Lord as pleasing to God as the errands of Angels, every thought of thee, dear Saint, an act to remind thee that I am thy child.

I recommend to thee the occasions in which I usually fail, particularly . . . [Mention these]. Accept each little devotion of the day, though replete with imperfection, and offer it to Jesus, Whose mercy will overlook all, since He regards not so much the gift as the love of the giver.

Amen.

Congratulations and Welcome to the following children who recently received the sacrament of Baptism
