PASTORAL PONDERINGS

A weekly column, shared with parishioners, by members of the Pastoral Staff.

Resolution: To Respond More Fully to Our Baptismal Call

As Catholics, making resolutions is not an annual event limited to January 1. Every time we confess our sins, attend Mass or pray, we have the opportunity to make resolutions. In response, God gives us the strength and courage to be successful. This weekend as we celebrate the Baptism of the Lord, it is a great time to resolve to respond more fully to our own baptismal call to holiness and charity. Reflecting on the tenets of Catholic Social Teaching can help us decide how to respond, while our parish ministries provide opportunities for us to respond concretely.

Respect the life and dignity of the human person: Our Human Concerns Committee respects humanity by feeding the hungry, clothing the naked, and supporting families in need.

Call to family, community, and participation: Volunteers who lead baptismal or marriage preparation, catechize, or serve in one of our liturgical ministries support our families and parish.

The right to basic needs and responsibility to provide for others: Each summer our Workcampers help the poor, the elderly and veterans with basic housing needs.

Option for the poor and vulnerable: St. Vincent de Paul volunteers invite us to serve the poor and vulnerable in Ozaukee County.

The dignity of work and the rights of workers: Our Los Toros Committees support educational and job opportunities in our sister parish in the Dominican Republic.

Solidarity: Our Ministers of Care bring communion to the sick or homebound who cannot gather with us at Mass.

Care for God's creation: Our Creation Care Team inspires us to care for our environment. The Creation Care Team will join us after Mass next week to encourage resolutions to care for God's Creation!

Join or support one or more of these groups as you resolve to respond more fully to your baptismal call. I invite you to begin by sponsoring our youth workcampers who will serve in Erie, PA this summer.

Workcampers will be in the Gathering Hall after Mass asking for donations and prayers.

Transition Team Update

Now included on our St. Joseph Parish website (www.stjosephgraffton.org) is our completed Parish Profile which is required by the Archdiocese to help with the assignment of a new pastor/parish director in June 2022. We have also created a video highlighting the gifts of St. Joseph Parish. This video will be shown at Mass this weekend and is posted on the website next to our Parish Profile. The profile and accompanying video are the results of hard work and many hours of collaboration among parish leadership at all levels. Take a look and discover all of God's gifts to our parish family.

THANK YOU!

Thank you to all who generously responded to the SVDP: Giving Tree this year.

Because of you, 142 people in Grafton, 53 children from the St. Vincent de Paul meal sites in Milwaukee, and 22 new babies at the Women's Care Center received their Christmas wishes. They received not only beautifully wrapped gifts, but also the assurance that someone cares about them and wishes them a happy holiday. For some, yours was the only gift they received this year. In addition, your financial contributions will help families in Grafton and Los Toros throughout the coming year.

May God bless you and your families in the coming year and may you be happy with the knowledge that your contributions are greatly appreciated.

We Are Called To Be

The Hands of Christ...Open to All
From Human Concerns
By Sandy Michalski

Why?

Why did Christ ask to be baptized? He certainly didn't need to be cleansed from sin. There are many theories about this: to identify Himself with sinners; to be identified by John; to be introduced as the Messiah; to symbolize His death and resurrection; to show readiness to begin His work; to acknowledge John the Baptist as His forerunner. The ideas go on and on. The reason that probably resonates most with us is that He wanted to emphasize the importance of our baptism by experiencing it Himself. In other words, He set the first of many, many good examples for us at this, the beginning of His public ministry.

What are some of the wonderful examples He set for us? Jesus went about doing good, curing the sick, restoring the sight of the blind, making the lame walk, raising the dead back to life, feeding the hungry, and driving away demons from possessed people as he also preached and enacted the coming of the Kingdom of God. In His life on earth, He cared for the poor, He welcomed little children and He even forgave those who crucified Him. Whether we can replicate them or not, all of these acts display His great love for humanity. We can certainly try to imitate that all-encompassing love. His love is endless and available to any who need it. Jesus is the perfect example of love. It is no wonder that, at Christ's baptism, God proclaimed 'You are my beloved Son, with you I am well pleased.'

With all these great examples, we certainly have our work cut out for us! Our desire to continue Jesus' work on earth sets us apart as caring, Catholic Christians. With your help, the Human Concerns Committee strives to bring God's kingdom to earth by helping to support many worthy organizations.

FEAST OF THE BAPTISM OF THE LORD

Make us Holy

Loving Father,
you sent the gift of the Spirit
upon your beloved Son
on the banks of the Jordan
long ago.
And upon each of us,
the Spirit called upon the waters,
making them holy.
Strengthen us in that same Spirit,
make us holy, set us apart,
that we answer your call.
Through Christ our Lord. Amen.

January 9, 2022
In You I Am Well Pleased

Today's readings: Isaiah 42, 1-4 or Isaiah 40:1-5, 9-11; Psalm 29:1-2, 3-4, 3, 9-10 or Psalm 104:1b-2, 3-4, 24-25, 27-28, 29-30; Acts 10:34-38 or Titus 2:11-14, 3:4-7; Luke 3:15-16, 21-22. John the Baptist pointed away from himself and toward Jesus. He spoke God's Word to the people and baptized those who came to him, but he knew that he was not the messiah, the one who will baptize "with the holy Spirit and fire." And then one day, Jesus came to him to be baptized.

The heavens opened and the Spirit came down in the form of a dove. "You are my Beloved Son; with you I am well pleased." The Holy Spirit descended bodily, making Jesus ready for his public ministry. What joy John must have felt to see the fulfillment of God's promises to him and to the people of Israel! It was the beginning of Jesus' public ministry, in which he preached the kingdom of God but also revealed it in everything that he did.

On the day of our baptism, we receive the same Holy Spirit that descended on Jesus two thousand years ago. It is the beginning of our own vocation to reveal the kingdom of God in our words and our actions: to be like Jesus. How is God calling you today? You are God's beloved child, in whom God is well pleased. How will you carry the joy of that revelation into your life beyond the Christmas season?

THIS WEEK AND BEYOND

January 10—March 1

Ordinary Time

The word ordinary can feel like a synonym for “boring,” but Ordinary Time is far from it. This season takes its name from the ordinal numbers (first, second, third, fourth, fifth, and so on) that are used to count the Sundays and the weeks that follow them. While the seasons of Advent, Christmas, Lent, and Easter have a certain importance in the liturgical year, that does not diminish Ordinary Time. Consider that as the priest prepares the paschal candle at the Easter Vigil, he states, “All time belongs to him.” How might you use this season to grow closer to God?

January 18–25

Prayer for Christian Unity

The Week of Prayer for Christian Unity spans an octave, or eight-day observance, a time frame that lends significance to the week. It is a great sorrow to be separated from our brothers and sisters in Christ, unable to join around the Eucharistic table together to “do this in memory of me.” We wait in hope in a special way during this week for the day when all divisions among Christians will cease.

January 25

Conversion of St. Paul

This feast commemorates the day when Saul, an observant young Jewish man who opposed the early Christians and even participated in the stoning death of St. Stephen, had an encounter with the risen Jesus. Saul, also known as Paul, left behind his former life to become an apostle to the gentiles. To preach the Gospel, you might offer forgiveness and mercy to someone who is not sorry, serve a meal at a soup kitchen with a joyful heart, or drop off a box of diapers at a place that serves mothers and children. Today’s readings: Acts 22: 3–6 or Acts 9:1–22; Psalm 117:1bc, 2; Mark 16:15–18.

January 28

St. Thomas Aquinas

Known as the angelic doctor, St. Thomas Aquinas was a Dominican priest whose writings are essential to the way we understand what we believe. He was a great theologian and philosopher, engaging with the intellectual currents of his day as well as those of ancient philosophy. St. Thomas described the beatific vision, unending happiness and union with God, as the goal of human life. Today’s readings: 2 Samuel 11:1–4a, 5–10a, 13–17; Psalm 51: 3–4, 5–6a, 6bcd–7, 10–11; Mark 4:26–34.

January 31

St. John Bosco

St. John Bosco was an Italian priest who worked to improve the lives of young people who lived in poverty. He went into the world to encounter the young people who had traveled to the city to try to find a better life but were living in abject poverty and unsafe conditions. He began many initiatives and organizations to assist children and was the founder of a religious congregation. Today’s readings: 2 Samuel 15:13–14, 30, 16:5–13; Psalm 3:2–3, 4–5, 6–7; Mark 5:1–20.

February 2

The Presentation of the Lord

This feast, forty days after Christmas, is traditionally a time to bring candles to church to be blessed. In Luke’s account of the Gospel, we hear Simeon proclaim Jesus “a light for revelation to the Gentiles and glory for your people Israel.” The Gospel according to John is also a source of the imagery of light associated with Jesus. Anna and Simeon watched and waited for the light throughout their lives. At times, it can be difficult to wait for what we most hope for. Watching and waiting for the light, we can unite ourselves with the waiting of Anna and Simeon. What desires of your heart are you still waiting to have fulfilled? You might decorate a tealight holder and light the candle to remind you to wait in hope. Today’s readings: Malachi 3:1–4, Psalm 24:7, 8, 9, 10; Hebrews 2:14–18; Luke 2: 22–40.

St. Joseph Parish School:
Teaching, Learning, Leading, and Serving as the Hands of Christ

Home & School Scrip Sale Next Weekend!!

The St. Joseph Parish School Scrip Committee would like to thank everyone who purchased Scrip during their December sale. Each Scrip purchase made by our parish members helps provide a fantastic Catholic education to our many students.

Our next Scrip sale will be next weekend, January 8 and 9, after all Masses. Whether you're using Scrip to do all your shopping on Amazon, buying groceries at Pick N Save or Meijer, getting gas at Mobil or purchasing Green Bay Packers gear at Dicks Sporting Goods, your support means students are getting a good education at St. Joseph Parish School. You will also find a supply of Scrip order forms on the Hospitality Desk in the Gathering Hall.

For faster ordering in the future or to reload existing cards, sign up for a family account using the SJPS code— 5C53FD881447 — and place your order online.

For more information or additional cards outside of Scrip weekends, contact:

Sue Henke at schooloffice@stjosephgrafton.org or (262) 375-6505 x0

Once again, we thank you for your continued support of our children and the excellent Catholic education they receive at St. Joseph Parish School!

As part of the upcoming celebration of St. Joseph Parish's 175th anniversary, we are beginning work on a new parish history. We are hoping that our parishioners will have stories and pictures to share for this new edition. If you would like to help tell the story of St. Joseph Parish, please contact Debbie Krueger at dtkrueger@wi.rr.com or call 262-375-4954.

Sister Circle
Thursday, January 20
7:00 p.m.
Christ the King Church
420 W. Whitefish Road - Port Washington)

Sister Circle is an ecumenical women's group that meets monthly and offers women an opportunity to share their faith and support one another. We hope you will join us!

This year we are reading and discussing the book In His Image: 10 Ways God Calls Us to Reflect His Character by Jen Wilkin. Please read Chapter 6: God Most Gracious and Chapter 7: God Most Faithful for the January meeting.

We will follow CDC guidelines which currently requires masks while indoors. Any questions, please contact Mary at 377-3720 or mariwags@gmail.com.

Knights of Columbus Annual Clergy Night Dinner

The Knights of Columbus, San Salvador Council, is hosting a Clergy Appreciation Dinner at The Hub at Cedar Creek on Tuesday evening, February 8, beginning with a social hour at 5:30 p.m. This annual tradition is a way to recognize and thank the Priests and Deacons of St. Francis Borgia and St. Joseph parishes for their service and to support our Seminarians. A buffet dinner of roast pork, grilled chicken, salad, potatoes, and vegetables will be served along with coffee and cake. A cash bar is available to help toast our distinguished guests.

Registration forms, including detailed information, can be found at the Hospitality Desk in the Gathering Hall. Seating is limited to 150 people on a first come basis. The registration fee for the dinner is $30 per person.

St. Joseph Parish School ... Thanks But No Thanks!

Over the past few years, St. Joseph Parish School has stopped collecting a number of items that we had previously requested our parishioners to collect for us. Although we appreciate your past generosity and thoughtfulness, we will no longer be collecting the following:

- Box Tops for Education ... this program has changed to online submissions only ... see below.
- Campbell Soup Labels ... the program was discontinued by the manufacturer.
- Use Ink Cartridges ... it costs us too much to recycle them.
- Plastic Soda Caps ... Coca-Cola no longer offers the program.
- Empty TP/Paper Towel Rolls ... we no longer have craft projects that require them.
- Empty Plastic Fruit Cups ... we no longer have craft projects that require them.
- Paper Bags

If you would still like to scan your box tops to benefit St. Joseph Parish School, you can download the "Box Tops for Education" App on your phone or enter them at www.boxtopsforeducation.com.

We are still accepting tabs from aluminum cans!

Lifelong Faith Formation is in need of Baptism Hosts!

Volunteers will be trained to greet families on the day of baptism and guide them through the Mass. Training is provided and Baptism hosts are asked to sign up for Baptism Masses based on your own schedules and availability.

For more information contact Sheri Hanson at shanson@stjosephgraffton.org. / 262-375-6500 x175.
