John Knetzger, Associate Director of Formation

REJOICE WITH ME BECAUSE I HAVE FOUND MY LOST SHEEP! (LK 15:7)

As the echoes of Christmas Carols fade into our memories for another year, we leave the manger and the tree and enter into Ordinary Time. Life, though, is anything but ordinary as we mark these weeks until Lent begins. Our Gospel today reminds us of just that. With a mother's love and persistence, we hear the last words of Mary in the Gospels. Directions to wine stewards, sure. Wisdom, though, for us all. Do whatever he tells you. (Jn 2:5)

Jesus often used parables to teach a greater and deeper truth - to tell us what to do. Last month, our second graders reflected on one of these parables, the Lost Sheep, during our First Reconciliation retreat. When a lost sheep is found, the shepherd carries it on his shoulders and returns it to the flock with great joy. (Luke 15: 4-7)

Rejoicing might not be the word that first comes to mind when it comes to reconciliation. Looking inward and reflecting on our sins isn't supposed to bring joy. Acknowledging our missteps and seeking God's mercy and forgiveness can be scary for an 8-year old, a 48-year old, even an 88-year old. But Jesus so lovingly calls us back to the flock when we stray through sin.

As I reflect on the image of the shepherd with the found sheep, I'm reassured to know that not only does Jesus seek us out, he carries us safely and securely back to where we should be. Each and every time, without fail, Jesus welcomes us back to the flock. Reconciliation is a moment for us to be found and restored. The same Sacrament of Reconciliation our children received is available to all of us on Saturdays from 3:15 - 3:45 p.m. in the reconciliation room.

Our thanks and gratitude go to Fr. Pat Wendt, Pastor of St. John XXIII, who presides at our Thursday School Mass, and Fr. Mike Barrett, our Interim Administrator, for leading us in prayer and hearing individual confessions.

Happy Trails to Jay Frymark

We share the discernible, happy face of our Director of Administrative Services in gratefully bidding Jay farewell as he picks up yet another path--into retirement. What a blessing Jay has been to our parish in his official capacity these past years on the pastoral staff. Additionally, Jay has been a loyal and dedicated member of our parish for years, overseeing special work projects around our parish campus well before he found employment here.

As Jay heads into the grace of retirement, he rounds out a career of service to the Archdiocese and then here at St. Joseph Parish. In addition, I owe a personal debt of gratitude to Jay who assisted me at another parish in the archdiocese during a difficult transition--he never blinked when I solicited his assistance, whew!

And so Jay, from all of us at St. Joseph Parish, from the top down to the people in the last pew, we wish you a wonderful rearrangement of time, routines, and duties all done in such a way that you will keep us on your "honey do" list. Enjoy your well deserved retirement, accompanied by the biblical commendation "well done good and faithful servant."

Fr. Mike Barrett

Congratulations and Welcome to the following children who recently received the sacrament of Baptism

We Are Called To Be

The Hands of Christ...Open to All
From Human Concerns
By Sandy Michalski

Got Wine?

Unfortunately – no! The happy newlyweds at Cana were in a bind, but Mary cared enough to intervene. Jesus may not have felt quite ready to begin His public ministry, but His mother had great compassion for the young couple and asked for His help. His ready obedience to Mary spoke volumes about the love and respect He had for His mother. Mary’s confidence in Jesus’ ability to remedy the situation really makes us wonder what happened in their happy, holy home while Jesus was growing up. Somehow Mary must have known that Jesus could help His friends. It is regrettable that Jesus’ history between the ages of 12 and 30 was so obscure. Chances are that it was pretty interesting!

It is wonderful to think of Jesus at the wedding of His friends – to picture Him laughing, toasting the bride and groom, dancing with friends. We seem to dwell a great deal on His suffering and sacrifices, and rightly so. But to imagine Him truly enjoying Himself and having fun is absolutely uplifting and joyful. We sincerely hope He had many happy moments during His life and that He enjoyed the beautiful world that His Father created. Our Care for Creation Team is working hard to ensure that we, as stewards of this beautiful world, safeguard our common home.

The Small Change Initiative will begin this weekend. The Care for Creation Team has many great ideas to help us in our stewardship: join the Laudato Si discussion group, have one meatless day a week, recycle, say a short daily prayer for the earth, etc. Let’s all participate and make this world pure and amazing for those who come after us. Please stop by to visit with the Care for Creation Team after Masses both this weekend and next weekend.

LOS TOROS MISSION

Los Toros Celebrates the Feast of the Three Kings

In Los Toros, as in many parts of Latin America, the Feast of Epiphany, or the Three Kings, is an even bigger celebration than Christmas. The Three Kings Day, “Los Reyes Magos,” is centered around the children.

Activities for teaching the faith to the children are held in the church with singing, shouting, moving and dancing. Afterward the Reyes Magos have a toy for every child. There is usually food, often rice pudding and popcorn, and juice, for everyone. Adults gather to talk, laugh, play dominoes and cards.

The photo above is from this year’s celebration and was sent by people in our sister parish in Los Toros.

SCHOOL SCENE

By Carren Gratz, Middle School Math & Science

Happy New Year from the Middle School Math and Science classroom! Upon returning from break, I wanted to begin the year by helping the students really take a moment to reflect on what they want to get out of their education. To that end, each student created a 2022 goal for both Math and Science. We looked at what it takes to create a strong, attainable and realistic goal that will help each individual focus on their talents and areas for improvements. I was impressed at the array of skills, concepts and the amount of thought the middle schoolers put into creating their goals. We will use these goals as a reminder throughout the remainder of the school year and check in on their progress towards achievement periodically.

We then looked to review the scientific method, which is the basis of all of our science activities and labs. The scientific community is moving towards a concept called CER that focuses on a claim, evidence provided and creating reason to tie everything together. Students read through a scenario Who Kidnapped Baby New Year to determine who the culprit was, what evidence proves them guilty and how to construct a solid argument of proof.

AUDIT TEAM MEMBERS NEEDED

We are in need of two individuals to be part of our Audit Teams. We are short one team member to help with the Sunday offertory on Monday mornings and one team member to help with our Wednesday deposit. If interested, please contact Deacon Scott Wiese.
