PASTORAL PONDERINGS

*A weekly column,
shared with parishioners,
by members of the Pastoral Staff.*

Fr. Timothy Schumaker, Parish Administrator

Rise up in splendor, Jerusalem! Your light has come, the glory of the Lord shines upon you. See, darkness covers the earth, and thick clouds cover the peoples; but upon you the LORD shines, and over you appears his glory.

These words from our first reading on Epiphany Sunday remind me of a classic image found in cartoon comics and shows. This image is of a rain cloud that follows the character while everyone else enjoys the sunny day. No matter where the character goes, the cloud and rain follows them and keeps them in this place of darkness and sadness.

Yet we read and hear in our first reading that our faith does just the opposite. In a world that often appears dark and sad, darkness covers the earth and thick clouds cover the peoples, we as men and women of faith walk with the light of God shining upon us, upon you the LORD shines, and over you appears his glory.

Imagine how different this image is, that while the world is covered in darkness, we walk amidst it with the light of the Lord and his glory following us from above. No matter where we go, we are followed by the spotlight from heaven. It is a powerful image and one that we are called to embody. We are called to be a light to those around us, a light that leads people to Christ just as that star of Bethlehem led the three magi to Christ in the manger.

The world needs this light, one just listens to the daily news to understand the dark and sadness which covers it. We must be beacons of hope, peace, joy, patience, kindness, and most importantly love.

Having just received the Light of the World 10 days ago, may we continue to bask in it and bring its warmth and brilliance to each and every person we encounter.

My name is Andy Smith, and I am excited to be joining St. Joseph Parish staff as Director of Liturgical Music beginning January 2nd! I come to St. Joseph Parish with over 15 years of experience in directing choirs and teaching music, ten of those years right here in St. Joseph Parish School.

My relationship with St. Joseph Parish began in 2002 when the youth of St Joseph Parish went on a summer workcamp trip. I accompanied my now wife, Laura, and had the blessing of beginning a life-long friendship with Brenda Cline, who was our Youth Minister at the time.

In 2009, I began working in the Catholic Church teaching in several Catholic schools, and directing St. Peter Catholic Parish's Contemporary Ensemble for three years. In 2012, I became the full time Director of Music at St. Peter Catholic Parish. I have LOVED all my years directing three adult choir groups and various children's choirs throughout the liturgical year.

In 2014, I began teaching at St. Joseph Parish School, along with providing music at our Thursday morning Masses, and many Christmas and Spring concerts, all focused on our School's Mission: Teaching, Learning, Leading, and Serving as the Hands of Christ.

I've also enjoyed directing nine musicals, with performances in our very own Doherty Hall each Spring. I look forward to continuing to teach and direct in our parish school, and look forward to exploring opportunities to bring our students, families, parishioners, and staff closer through music in the Liturgy.

In my personal life, Laura and I have four children; Elijah, Josephine, Theodore, and Hazel. We enjoy traveling and camping together as a family during the summer months, playing board games when we have time, and are all looking forward to having Dad working a bit closer to home.

I am very excited to begin working with folks here at St. Joseph Parish, and continuing to teach Music in our parish school as well. I hope to continue fostering a lively music program, honoring the history and legacy of those before, while venturing into the future of our faith. I hope not only to work with the talented choir members we already have here, but also look forward to welcoming new members as well. I hope to especially connect with the families and children of the parish, and to offer many opportunities to get all more involved in the Mass.

May God's blessings find you well this holiday season! See you in January.

Andy

We Are Called To Be
The Hands of Christ...Open to All

*From Human Concerns
By Sandy Michalski*

Seek!

If God has favorite prophets, Isaiah must be close to the top of His list! The accuracy of his prophesies is sometimes uncanny. In the first reading today, we hear Isaiah predict the Lord's coming radiance shining on Jerusalem, the arrival of camels from the East and gifts of gold and frankincense. Sound familiar? He is actually foretelling today's feast of the Epiphany! After Jesus was born, it is believed that the Magi traveled around 900 miles to find Him. This may have taken at least a year, not counting many weeks of preparation. Their quest for knowledge and fulfillment was incredibly relentless, truly amazing!

The gifts they offered the Christ child, gold, frankincense and myrrh, were quite valuable. What can we offer our Lord, as we come before Him in worship? Let us offer Him our time, more valuable than gold – time to spend in silence, friendship and adoration, as we contemplate His unfailing, everlasting love for us. Instead of frankincense, let us offer up the fragrant incense of our prayers, always irresistibly pleasing to God. Myrrh was often used to embalm the dead. This gift to baby Jesus was a sign of His future passion and death. Instead of myrrh, let us offer our death to sinfulness and our rebirth to goodness and yes, to holiness! The gifts of the Magi were temporary, of this world. Our gifts, so much more valuable, will resound joyfully throughout eternity! Thank you 'star of wonder, star of light'!

Lord, help us to always seek You with the wisdom and diligence of the Three Wise Men.

EPIPHANY OF THE LORD

Radiant Light

God our guiding light,
you illuminated the long path to our Lord for the Magi.

Like the travelers,
we are overjoyed by your radiant
presence made known to us.
Though darkness blankets the world,
your glory shines upon us.
May we gather,
walk by your light,
and pay homage to you all the days
of our lives.

Through Christ our Lord. Amen.

Sunday, January 5, 2025

Treasures for the Lord

Today's readings: Isaiah 60:1–6; Psalm 72:1–2, 7–8, 10–11, 12–13; Ephesians 3:2–3a, 5–6; Matthew 2:1–12. The Magi travel to pay homage to the Holy Family after Jesus is born, a fulfillment of the prophecy we hear in the first reading. Isaiah urges Jerusalem to “rise up in splendor,” for the light has come. He tells of people who journey a long distance, “bearing gold and frankincense, and proclaiming the praises of the Lord.” The Magi do just this and bring three gifts to honor baby Jesus: gold, frankincense, and myrrh. There is much symbolism in these gifts: gold identifies Jesus as a king; frankincense, used as incense for offerings, symbolizes prayer; myrrh, used in healing and embalming, foreshadows Jesus’ death.

Though it may feel like Christmas is over as the world has moved on from celebrating the holiday season, the Church celebrates Christmas until the Feast of the Baptism of the Lord (this year, that is next Sunday, January 12). In the spirit of Christmas, reflect on what treasures you possess to give to the Lord, on what gifts you can offer to your community and the Church. After your prayerful reflection, offer a gift to someone this week. A person in your community might appreciate the gift of quality time; an agency might welcome your volunteer hours; children in your family would appreciate the gift of faith through faith-sharing on the Epiphany; and organizations that serve families appreciate monetary gifts.

THIS WEEK AT HOME

Monday, January 6 Consolation and Desolation

“Do not trust every spirit but test the spirits to see whether they belong to God,” warns John the apostle. Indeed, it is critical to discern God’s will. St. Ignatius of Loyola writes about the states of consolation (joy, peace, being settled) and desolation (fear, anxiety, being unsettled) in prayerful decision-making. Per St. John’s encouragement to deepen our spiritual awareness, take time today to learn about Ignatian discernment. Consider how you can practice prayerful discernment. Today’s readings: 1 John 3:22—4:6; Psalm 2:7bc–8, 10–12a; Matthew 4:12–17, 23–25.

Tuesday, January 7 Abundance

Jesus takes five loaves and two fish to feed the vast crowd gathered to hear him preach. The disciples are skeptical as Jesus turns a small amount of food into an abundance that feeds five thousand people. Invite your family to reflect on the abundance with which God has blessed you. Gather at the end of the day and say a prayer of gratitude, naming some of those blessings. Today’s readings: 1 John 4:7–10; Psalm 72:1–2, 3–4, 7–8; Mark 6:34–44.

Wednesday, January 8 Take Courage

In today’s Gospel, Jesus walks on water during a storm to reach the disciples. They are terrified, but Jesus says to them: “Take courage, it is I, do not be afraid!” The wind dies down and the disciples are astounded. Their hearts are hardened, as they cannot comprehend Jesus’ self-revelation as the Son of God. Find a church in your area that offers Eucharistic adoration. When you go to pray, consider how you can keep your heart from hardening. How can you surrender your fears? Today’s readings: 1 John 4:11–18; Psalm 72:1–2, 10, 12–13; Mark 6:45–52.

Thursday, January 9 Liberty

Highlighting Jesus’ mission of liberation, the Gospel proclaims that he will especially serve the marginalized and forgotten, bringing “glad tidings to the poor.” From the first reading, we hear that “God is love.” Further, “We love because he first loved us.” Set time aside this week to serve someone who is afflicted or oppressed. While you serve, pray with John the apostle’s words: whoever does not love another “whom he has seen cannot love God whom he has not seen.” Today’s readings: 1 John 4:19—5:4; Psalm 72:1–2, 14 and 15bc, 17; Luke 4:14–22a.

Friday, January 10 Withdraw to Pray

Jesus cleanses a leper and, while word of his ministry spreads and crowds gather to listen to him, he withdraws “to deserted places to pray.” Amid his healing and preaching, Jesus models the importance of cultivating a prayer life. Spend time creating a prayer space in your home. This should be a space to which you can withdraw, like Jesus. Set time aside to pray in this space at least once every week. Today’s readings: 1 John 5:5–13; Psalm 147:12–13, 14–15, 19–20; Luke 5:12–16.

Saturday, January 11 Idols

Take John the Baptist’s words to heart: “He must increase; I must decrease.” To do so, “be on your guard against idols,” as the first reading states, and consider what takes you away from God. Before going to sleep tonight, prayerfully review your day. How did you give glory to God? What “idols” distracted you from doing so? Today’s readings: 1 John 5:14–21; Psalm 149:1–2, 3–4, 5, 6a and 9b; John 3:22–30.

SCHOOL SCENE

By Ms. Gratz,
Middle School Math and Science Teacher

As another year comes to an end, the sixth, seventh and eighth grade students have been burning the candle at both ends in math and science - and they are all showing tremendous growth because of it! Aside from academics, we have been intentional this year about getting our middle school students involved in making a difference in the community, learning about themselves as stewards of our Catholic faith and in tune with everything they have to offer.

For our first middle school retreat, we worked with KC Kranich, Director of Youth Ministry, to have the students visit Mr. Bob's Under the Bridge just down the street here in Grafton. The focus of this retreat was on the Catholic Social Teaching of Rights and Responsibilities. Before we began, the students were lead in a discussion on social justice and the Catholic understanding of peace and its tenets. When we got to Mr. Bob's Under the Bridge, the students were given an introduction to the mission of the organization and heard first-hand stories about the hardships that others experience. The students then spent time sorting through numerous donations and helping to organize the clothing in preparation for its journey to Milwaukee for distribution.

When we returned, the students came together to debrief and reflect upon the activity. We shared thoughts on different scenarios, read through prayers and reflected upon Scriptures to help broaden our understanding of those around us and within our community who may struggle with the basic necessities of food, shelter, rest, medical care and/or social services. It was very eye-opening for some and was a wonderful way to foster a greater sense of our Catholic-ness within our students.

JOURNEY WITH JOSEPH

Our Traveling St. Joseph, Our Guardian, is back for 2025!

The “Traveling St. Joseph, Our Guardian” is a statue of St. Joseph housed in a special case (shrine) that makes its way from home to home, staying nine days in each home in a living novena. After nine days the shrine comes back to our Parish for the next family to pick up and begin their Novena. If you recall, parishioners Stephen Lewis and Don Somogyi brought this beautiful devotion to our Parish.

History: Steve came to us with the idea and he also purchased a beautiful statue of St. Joseph. Don built the beautiful wooden shrine that houses St. Joseph and Deacon Scott Wiese blessed the shrine. The front medals on the shrine doors came from a rosary that was blessed by St. John Paul II!

This devotion begun in Grass Lake, Michigan by Father Leo Joseph, director of the Shrine of St. Joseph, Patron of the Suffering and Dying. According to Father Joseph, “As protector of the Holy Family, who better to invite into our homes than St. Joseph?”

St. Joseph was a good father and husband to Jesus and Mary. Joseph isn’t just the father of Jesus; he is the spiritual father of the entire church and protects everyone who is a part of it. His role is to guide and protect anyone who is a part of the Catholic family. Accompanying the traveling statue will be suggested prayers, although each family is free to pray however they choose. After nine days the statue moves on to a new family.

Our Journeys will start the week of Sunday, January 5th and will go to the end of 2025. Please sign up to bring St. Joseph into your home. You will find the Traveling St. Joseph sign up book at the Resource Table at the back of the Gathering Hall.
